Obtain telephone numbers from the latest Telephone Directory.

If the name is not found in the directory ask the operator and note the number in the directory for future reference.

Speak directly into the mouthpiece of your telephone with your lips close to it.

On calls to party lines the "busy back" report does not necessarily mean that the particular telephone called is busy but that some telephone on the line is in use.

Do not hang up the receiver until you are ready for the operator to take down the connection.

Specific instances of unsatisfactory service or troubles from defective equipment should be promptly reported to the Chief Operator.

Parties calling on own line should hang up immediately after calling a number.

Rules Regulating Telephone Service

This telephone instrument shall not be so placed as to be readily accessible to the public (of which the Company shall be the sole judge) and shall be used only by the subscriber, the members of his or her family, and his or her employees. No obscene or profane language shall be used through said telephone, nor shall it be used for any unlawful purposes. The use of said telephone in violation of any of the foregoing provisions shall give the Telephone Company the right to terminate this contract and remove the same from the premises of the subscriber.

The subscriber agrees to use care in the use of the instruments furnished and to pay the lessor for all repairs necessitated by the improper use of said instruments; also to pay for all mouthpieces, receivers, shells and ear caps broken from any cause. The subscriber further agrees to pay the actual cost of moving said instrument from one location to another and at the end of said period to deliver to said company said telephone instrument in good repair, ordinary wear and use excepted.

Representatives of the Company shall have the right to enter upon said premises, to attach, renew, alter or move said instrument and connections and shall at all times have the right, without notice to discontinue such service and remove such instruments for non-payment of any sum or sums due for services rendered.

The subscriber hereby insures said telephone instruments against loss by theft and damages or loss by fire or water, and if said instruments are lost or damaged from any cause, the subscriber agrees to pay the Company for the same.

In case of non-payment of rent, or any proper charge hereunder, the Company shall have the right to discontinue and refuse service until such amount is paid, without any discount on the rental during the period of such discontinuance and the subscriber shall pay the sum of Two Dollars for time and labor disconnecting and reconnecting such service. Said amount shall be paid in advance before the subscriber shall be entitled to have said instruments reconnected.

The subscriber hereby assumes all risk of misconnection, interruption of service, mistakes or errors in receiving, transmitting or delivering messages.

In case of interruption of service subscriber hereby agrees to give said Company immediate notice thereof in writing.

The subscriber is not to permit any telephone, signal equipment nor apparatus of any kind or nature manufactured, leased, sold or furnished by any person, company or corporation, to be attached to or used in connection with the lines, wires or apparatus of THE CITIZENS LIGHT, POWER AND WATER COMPANY.

The Company hereby reserves the right to limit the conversation on said telephone instrument to five minutes.

People judge the man or the business by the Printing.

Once upon a time there was a merchant who wanted to save on his job printing. He was satisfied with less than the best. He did not care whether he purchased in his home town or elsewhere, just so long as it was printing.

So he ordered from "down below" and got a job that was "cheaper" in every respect. There were mistakes in spelling—even the name "Ketchikan" was spelled incorrectly.

The paper was cheap—it looked cheap. The home town printer did not get the work so his employe lost the time, and the store lost the trade. The customer saw that the printing was inferior, and thought the merchant's merchandise was inferior, too. He lost more business, and his competitor, who had his printing done at the plant of The KETCHIKAN ALASKA CHRONICLE, got the trade.

The Chronicle does expert work. It has the facilities, it has the superior workmen. Money spent with The Chronicle for printing, stays in Ketchikan.

Printing goes forth as the personal representative of the merchant. It is important that the "representative" be well-dressed. The Chronicle specializes in "well-dressed" printing. Come to The Chronicle FIRST!
