MY BOOK

Ketchikan High School as it stands today.

DEDICATION

WE, in gratitude for their foresight and wisdom, dedicate the KAYHI '50 to Mrs. M. S. Dobbs, the earliest Ketchikan teacher still living here, to the men who established the first school in 1900, and to parents and teachers of Ketchikan schools, who have realized the value of education in training Alaska's future leaders.

Our hope is that we may successfully use the education provided us for the carrying out of their ideals and contribute something to the progress and education of Alaska.

Half Century of Education in Ketchikan

KETCHIKAN'S first school was organized in the fall of 1900 on the lower floor of the Red Men building, built and owned by Neil McIlravie who received ten dollars per month for its use. Mr. McIlravie was the father of Mrs. Bert Libe and Mrs. Frank Bold, who live here now. The enrollment was about 19.

This building was located where the Reagan Frozen Food Lockers is located now. The Red Men Lodge met upstairs and the lower floor was used for a courtroom as well as a school.

In this first school, Mrs. Bertha Wells, who is in charge of Hunt's Novelties Store here now, took some high school subjects including English and German and taught the government school on Gravina Island the next year. She had passed the teacher's examination before attending school here. She rowed to Gravina in a rowboat each week, and received $60 per month.

Her mother became a photographer and preserved many of the early scenes of Ketchikan. Many of these pictures and plates are filed in the Ketchikan public library now.

Mrs. Jack Talbot of this first school was one of the first Ketchikan class to graduate from the eighth grade.

Mrs. Anna Hicks, whose husband was a dentist in Ketchikan, taught the school for a salary of $75 per month. The term lasted only ninety days.

Beginning in February 1901, Miss Elizabeth Heckman taught the five month term for $90 per month. Miss Heckman was the mother of Emmet Ryus and sister of J. R. Heckman who founded Heckman's store.

The Red Men Building proved inadequate for the growing population of Ketchikan so in August 1901 bids were called for a new school building to be built where the Catholic Church is now located. The contract was awarded to Canfield and Cornell who bid $1377.50 for the construction work. In September of that year, C. M. Hoover painted the new building.

Cost of painting was itemized as building, $180; porch, $7.75; cupola, $5; water closet and coal house $12. Total $204.75.

Miss Laura Mae Willis (Mrs. M. S. Dobbs) taught the first four grades in the new building. The upper four grades were housed in the second floor of the old Red Men Building and Miss Margie Henry taught them. Miss Henry formed the first girls basketball team here.

Mrs. Dobbs still lives in Ketchikan and Miss Henry was teaching in the Tacoma, Washington, schools when Charles "Chuck" Cloudy attended junior high school here. Mr. Cloudy is a grandson of Mrs. Bertha Wells, a student in the first school here. Mrs. C. L. Cloudy, Sr., is a member of the present school board.

In 1902 the school board decided to have the school open in August instead of September because of the short winter days.

Growth of population of Ketchikan soon made this building inadequate, so in 1905 a new and larger building was erected on the present site of Main School. This building was used until the present school was completed in 1924.

The location of the other school was sold to the Catholic Church. Mrs. Wells tells that many times she has climbed the hill to the present Main School location over logs and through brush to pick berries.

First high school graduating class was in 1916 when Alice Kinkaid and Edith Swanson were in the class. Edgar Anderson and Martha Foosness were in the second class.

Land purchased from the White Cliff Lode mining claim became the location of the new grade school, White Cliff, in Newtown. The addition at the south end of this building was made later.

Charcoal Point School, not in the city limits at the time, had five teachers before it closed in 1933 and the children sent into town. This building now is unoccupied, is dilapidated and part of it has fallen.

The city of Ketchikan has grown from the village of about 800 inhabitants in 1900 when it was incorporated until it has about 6000 citizens now.

The school system has a grade school at Clover Pass with one teacher and 17 students and two grades and two teachers in the government building at Deermount with 50 students.

Main Elementary School has eight grades, nine teachers and 280 students enrolled. White Cliff has eight grades, twelve teachers and 400 students. High school has eleven teachers and 200 students. Besides this the system has one vocal and one instrumental music teacher and one nurse. White Cliff has two half-day kindergartens and Main School, one.

The system has one superintendent, two grade principals and one high school principal. Deermount is under Main School supervision.

The school is crowded, there is need for more classrooms and more teachers in order to accommodate the increased school population.

The yearbook staff is indebted to Mrs. Bertha Wells and Mrs. M. S. Dobbs for much of the early history in this story.

Administration and Faculty form the framework of a school. Through years of education, this framework alters to meet the needs of a changing world but maintains its position as the foundation of education.

J. E. DANIELSON
Superintendent of Schools

FOUNDATIONS

The issuance of this Kayhi Annual marks the close of a half century of progress for the Ketchikan Public Schools. During that period our school system has evolved from a one-room school of twenty-one pupils to our present enrollment of nine hundred thirty-five students and a staff of forty-three teachers.

During that period, too, a progressive community of American citizens has grown up around us and it is because of the educational standards which they have insisted upon that our schools are what they are today.

We are confident that in the years to come our school system will continue to progress and to keep step with the growth of our community and of our territory—that it will continue to do its part in upholding American traditions and ideals, and that it will carry out with even greater vigor the task of preparing its students to live successfully in tomorrow's America and tomorrow's world.

—J. E. DANIELSON, Superintendent of Schools.

SUPPORTING US

MISS ELSIE M. STOUFFER
Principal of High School

Fifty years of progress in education is a most fitting theme for Kayhi's annual. During this time there has been a great change in the attitude of the American people towards their high schools. At the beginning of the century, high school was strictly considered as a preparatory school for those few who expected to go to the colleges and universities.

Fifty years has witnessed the evolution of the high school serving a few to the high school serving and preparing everyone for his or her life's work. Today a high school education is considered a part of the heritage of every American boy and girl.

The objective of the activities and events recorded on the ensuing pages has been to prepare and train students in such a way that they will be able to participate and assume their responsibilities in a prosperous, well-governed and well-informed American community.

—MISS ELSIE M. STOUFFER, Principal of High School.

Library Is Busy Place

KAYHI'S library has over 3000 books and subscriptions to 35 current magazines and newspapers that teachers as well as students use regularly. Four of the magazines are gifts.

Mrs. Jules Dahlager, the teacher in charge of the library, with her student assistants, is ready at all times to give help when the reading room is open.

This picture shows teachers studying the magazine rack for material to use in classes or for personal reading.

Teachers Help Plan College Schedules

SENIORS make use of the college catalog section of the library, especially during the second semester when they are planning their advanced education. The library has a collection of these catalogs from many schools and will secure them from any school which students request.

Examination of these entrance requirements helps students to plan their schedules to include college demands.

Here Mrs. Jules Dahlager, librarian, and Miss Elsie Stouffer, principal, are helping several seniors plan their work.

Transporters of Materials

SCHOOL transportation in Ketchikan is a big problem since students come from eleven miles north of town to Herring Cove nearly ten miles south.

Students farthest out north of town have to be on the road waiting for the bus at 7:30 a.m. and south of town about 7:55 a.m.

Drivers of the Northern Bus company drive the school busses. All were most considerate of students waiting, or as was often the case, rushing to catch the bus.

The above picture was taken at the corner of Main and Grant streets, the corner loading place.

Preservers of Properties

CUSTODIANS of Ketchikan schools are kept busy with repairs, cleaning and attending heating problems of the building. A. C. Erskine, who has been with Main School for many years, is in charge of work at that building with John "Scotty" Smith and Walter D. Cohea as assistants. Frank C. Clark was at Main School until he resigned to become assistant director of the Civic Center and Mr. Cohea took his place.

The building is open from 8 a.m. until 5 p.m. daily and during evening activities and practices.

Hugh Struthers and D. C. Henderson are in charge of White Cliff School and Gilbert Kellar at Deermount. Two students, Mary Carson and Kenneth Hilbert, do this work at Clover Pass School.

L A N D I N G S

Upperclassmen appreciate the strides made in education by those who through the ages have developed modern methods and school plants. They are preparing themselves to go on with the tasks of research and study.

CLIMB OF SENIOR CLASS

AFTER being initiated as freshmen in 1946, and Class of 1950 was officially entitled to begin the fourth year climb. And looking back now, those steps of progress were at times steep.

To help us on the way were Miss Marjorie Paulus and Miss Mary Zehntner, advisers. As leaders we elected Dean Morgan, president; Bob Jones, vice-president; Joyce Copeland, secretary; Alfred Berry, treasurer, and Chuck Jensen, sergeant at arms.

First project of the year was the Freshman Frolic, held in the surroundings of a graveyard with appropriate verses on the tombstones.

By 1946 the class had arrived at the first landing, and when school re-opened in 1947, we were ready to continue the ascent. We needed a big boost here and so had Mrs. Ray Turek, Irvan Wengert, Mrs. Helen Bond and Ed Hollister as advisers. Bob Jones was elected president; Barbara Larsen, vice-president; Peggy Hendricks, secretary; Alfred Berry, treasurer; Bonnie Butterfield, sergeant at arms, and Marie Mendenhall as the S.B.A. representative.

As most classes, we had to stop a while to take part in the activities and entertainment. Part of this was initiating the freshmen at an assembly, September 19. The Sophomore Hop, on November 21, was decorated as "Blue Heaven."

The boys had teams playing in the intramural basketball and ball games. They won the intramural track meet. The Girls' intramural basketball tournament was won by the sophomore girls.

Just about the time most of us were beginning to lose our breath, the school year ended. This summer vacation gave us time to get "wind enough" to carry us up another flight.

Our junior year started off by taking the stairs two-at-a-time. We won the S.B.A. banner by having 100 per cent members in the organization. As we were upper-classmen, the need of funds to help put on the Junior Prom was the subject of continual effort. We needed finances to back us up that flight of stairs. The answer was hot dog sales. We sold them at our first football game, in the rain too. Miss Marjorie Paulus and Al Rambow worked hard with us. We sold hot dogs and pop at all the major basketball games and made "pom-poms" for one of the Petersburg games. Our yell queens, Barbara Larsen and Carol Vig, led us in cheers for the team.

The first half of the flight was conquered and called for a celebration. This was the Junior Jinx on January 28. We held the first "Sox Dance" Kayhi ever had. The "Juke Joint" had a juke box built by the junior boys, with humorous signs on the walls.

UP LONG FLIGHT OF STEPS

Advisers: Miss Margaret Hyde and Ray Bassett.

The Junior Prom was May 6, the same day as the inter-school track meet. The gym was very effective as a Dutch scene, complete with windmill, which turned slowly.

The boys won first place in intramural track, and also the intramural basketball series. A committee was appointed to decorate the stage for the seniors' graduation.

Murray Simpson was elected by the students and teachers of Kayhi as the person whose name should be associated with that of Leslie Bugden for the Memorial.

Our third landing was reached, and we looked back at a progressive year under the leadership of Bill Anderson, president; Marilyn Scott, vice-president; Irene Bue, secretary; Nancy Gore, treasurer; Dean Morgan, sergeant at arms; Peggy Hendricks and Henry Lund as S.B.A. representatives.

We forgot how steep the last flight of stairs was when the school year started off in a flood of activities. No need to hang on to the railing this time! We were under the very able guidance of Miss Margaret Hyde and Ray Bassett, and elected as officers Bob Jones, president; Joyce Vig, vice-president; Wanda High, secretary; Carol Vig, treasurer; Norman Henderson, sergeant at arms; Henry Lund, Chuck Jensen and Dean Morgan, S.B.A. representatives.

The class again won the S.B.A. banner. We rooted for our team in a football game with the Victoria Independents. Then basketball season came and between trips to Wrangell and Petersburg with the team, we were studying hard. The final year means much to everyone. Our class entered a skit in the high school talent show and won first place. We took a breather—in the form of Christmas and spring holidays.

"Murder at Random" was chosen as the senior play. A mystery-comedy, it was directed by Ray Bassett, with two different casts. One cast performed April 28, while the other cast performed April 29.

The class boarded the "Hiawatha May 18 and went to Shoal Cove for the annual Senior Sneak.

The class will leave for a two-day trip to Bell Island May 13, but this is not school-sponsored.

Senior "White Day" was held May 1. All Seniors wore white, and underclassmen were requested not to wear white.

The Senior "Will" will be read at the Senior Assembly May 19, ending our activities for 1950.

Baccalaureate and Graduation are scheduled for May 22 and 26, respectively.

We have reached the top of the stairs to a high school education, and are now ready to go out in the world and seek higher levels.

LOYAL JUNIORS PREPARE

ANXIOUSLY awaiting its last year at Kayhi, the Class of '51 has been busy for the past year with hot-dog sales, the Junior Jinx and the Junior Prom. The first two functions were money making plans for class expenses this year and next.

They sold hot-dogs and cold drinks at all school games. Gregory Burns, as hot-dog sales chairman with Shirley Olin and Bob Corbin on the committee, sliced buns, heated hot-dogs, spread mustard and cooled bottled drinks before each game.

Good salesmen included Larry Droogs, Don Freimuth, Des Moore, Lolamae Spaeth, Madge Silsbee and Bob Peihl.

Shirley Olin was elected Football Carnival Queen in October when the whole school sponsored the carnival to help the football fund.

LOWER LANDINGS

Modern Education has become a complex process. Underclassmen look into the future with puzzled expressions, but further study helps to direct them into a definite pattern of future endeavor.

SOPHOMORES GUIDE FRESHMEN TO FIRST STEPS

INITIATION of the freshmen was first on the program of sophomore activities for the year. After five strenuous days of eluding sophomores, freshmen ended the week by attending an assembly at which the initiating class tried to make the new students appreciate their responsibility as high school students.

Lloyd Olden was elected president; Tom Housholder, vice-president; Eby Nell Reagan, secretary; George Cloudy, treasurer and Joyce Carl, sergeant at arms. Mrs. Hurff Saunders and Irven Wengert were faculty sponsors.

The class had a basketball team and entered track. Lloyd Olden was on the first string of the high school team and George Cloudy, Tom Housholder, Jim Graham and Clarke Poorman played with the Cubs in the Junior City League.

Alice Olin was candidate for the Yearbook Queen and Diane Thompson for the Football Queen.

Bill High, George Cloudy, Jim Graham, Tom Housholder, Pete Ellis, Ray Miller, Don Olsen, Lloyd Olden and Clarke Poorman turned out for football.

George Cloudy and Joan Cutler were co-chairmen of the dance. Other committee chairmen were Cliff Johnson, decorations; Beth Daigler, entertainment; Carol Burns, refreshments; Bob Spaeth, clean-up, and Bill High, lei making.

C O N N E C T I N G   P I L L A R S

With educational progress has come many activities in which students have learned to practice the principles of democracy and leadership that founders of the school had exercised in civic development. At first these were few but with growth in enrollment, they became more numerous and complex.

Student Body Association

"TO PROMOTE the welfare of the school and to arouse a spirit of loyalty and co-operation among the students" is the purpose of the Student Body Association. Any person regularly enrolled in high school may join by paying the membership fee which is set by the Student Council, governing body of the organization.

The Student Council acts as a co-ordinating body between administration and student body. It is made up of the S.B.A. officers, class presidents, class representatives and yell king.

They plan general assemblies, budget S.B.A. funds and provide welcoming assemblies for visiting groups. Besides these regular duties, the Council this year has encouraged the development of a group of ushers for school functions, have taken a definite responsibility for stage equipment and have helped to stage productions.

They sponsored the "Tide of Toys" program through which they sent toys to underprivileged children in Europe, the Junior Red Cross program and crippled children drive.

The Council arranged for housing of visiting students during inter-school contests, paid for food for athletic banquets and paid a part of the expense of pep leaders' uniforms.

PRICIPAL duty of the high school fire squad is to prevent loss of life in case of an emergency. They clear the building, close windows, keep law and order in the drill, check students when the fire signal is sounded, so that the city Fire Department can extinguish the blaze.

In the fall the Student Body President appoints a school fire chief, assistant fire chief and firemen who are usually upperclassmen. The chief confers with the city fire chief in regard to procedures for safety.

Besides these regular duties, they check fire extinguishers and report those in poor condition to the city department. Also they provide for a check of the fire hose on racks by the city department.

Torch Society

TORCH SOCIETY, honorary scholarship organization, was introduced into Kayhi in 1935 to promote school citizenship, scholarship, good fellowship and service. Eligibility of membership is based upon points earned in grades and participation in activities.

An "A" is evaluated as five points; "B," three points; "C," one point; "D," no points, and "F," as minus one point. Major activities allow two points each, minor activities, one point each. Grades are computed on the semester basis.

Sophomores must have completed eight credits, computed on the semester basis with a total of 24 points for grades and activities, to be eligible for membership as a sophomore. Juniors must have fifty points, and seniors eighty points. Each year members receive pins as emblems of their achievement.

Graduating seniors who have totaled 110 points are allowed to keep their final pins permanently.

Quill and Scroll

QUILL AND SCROLL, national honor society for high school journalists, is sponsored by the Journalism Department of the University of Chicago. Members must be in the upper third of their regular classes in grades, must submit an article they have written for approval of the national secretary and must be recommended by the adviser.

The organization sponsors contests in editorial writing, feature writing, humor columns, and special advertising page layouts.

Besides this they make a check of the paper once a year and issue ratings based on the news values, lay-out and general journalistic standards of the paper.

Moira Lane and Sally Stuart did not feel they had done enough work to make application although Moira had handled circulation on the yearbook and Sally had covered Latin Club news. Gregory Burns, Peggy Hendricks, Irene Bue, Stanley Henderson and Barbara Larsen were members of the Press Club but not in the journalism class. Barbara had been accepted as a member last year.

Latin Club

THE purpose of this club, which was organized in the fall of 1944, is to maintain an active interest in Latin among students at Kayhi. Meetings are held twice a month with student-planned programs.

The annual banquet was November 19 with "Epulum Jovus," which means "The Feast of Jupiter," as the theme. Other special social events were a Christmas party at the home of Sally Stuart, a Valentine party with Lolamae Spaeth as hostess, a buffet supper in March at Bud Cramer's, and the annual picnic in May at Ward Lake.

Again this year at Christmas a C.A.R.E. parcel was sent to a family in Salonica, Greece.

Sally Stuart received the award which Mrs. Jules Dahlager, sponsor, gives each year to the student earning the most points for participation in club activities.

First semester officers were: Joyce Carl, president; June Rasmussen, vice-president; Ann Smith, secretary, and Rodney Rich, treasurer. Second semester officers are: Kay Sherman, president; Bud Cramer, vice-president; Nancy Hanson, secretary, and Sally Stuart, treasurer.

Members of the National Students' Latin Honor Society of the Association for the Promotion of the Study of Latin include June Rasmussen, Lillian Rodriguez, Kay Sherman, Murray Simpson, Sally Stuart, and Arthur Wilson.

On the KTKN school radio program in January the club presented a burlesque, "The Labors of Hercules."

Science Club

PURPOSE of the Science Club has been to further the interest of science. This year the club has taken on the appearance of a science and photography club with emphasis on photography.

The club gave a radio program on atomic energy and its workings. Chuck Jensen, Bob Jones, Florence Olofson, Rosalind Torres, Pete Ellis and the sponsor, Ray Bassett, took part and managed to add much humor to their lines.

The club has been the victim of an overcrowded school calendar, so that even with a limited membership they found few times when they could get together for meetings or experiments without slighting some other demanding function.

They planned an exhibit of amateur color slides and movies in order to give enthusiasts an opportunity to exhibit their work. Money from this project was to help pay for a good press camera for the school.

One of the pages of candid pictures in the feature section of this book was the result of some of the work of the club.

Junior Toastmasters Club

JUNIOR TOASTMASTERS CLUB was organized this year by the adviser, Al Rambow, for all students interested in public speaking. Out of it grew the declamation and debate activities.

Because of the large number of interested students the number of members was limited to eighteen.

First speeches were autobiographies. Then they gave speeches of appeal, argument and illustration or description of an object in which they used their hands.

The club met three times a week and members took turns being toastmaster, word critic, evaluator and critics of each speaker.

Declamation

STUDENTS interested in declamation chose the selections they wished to recite and impersonate.

The final contest was held in a declamation assembly March 21 and 22 with the Rev. Ed Freeman and Mrs. A. R. Bushre as judges.

Fred Olsen was awarded first place for the dramatic section; Vera Reichner and Lolamae Spaeth tied for first place in humorous selections.

Other students who participated in this program were Maxine Burt, Arthur Wilson, Irene Bue, Jean Mayo and Bob Corbin.

Al Rambow was sponsor.

Debate

THE debate team under the adviser, Al Rambow, participated in a Tri-School debate tournament with Petersburg and Juneau at Petersburg April 14 and 15. They debated the nation-wide debate question, "Resolved—That the President of the United States Should Be Elected by the Direct Vote of the People."

In the final debate between the Ketchikan affirmative team and Juneau negative team, Juneau was judged the winner.

Ketchikan teams were, affirmative: Chuck Jensen, Maxine Burt and Bill Anderson; negative team: Moira Lane, Arthur Wilson and Barbara Larsen. Rodney Rich was alternate.

During debate study the club stressed the value of this method of settling questions of national importance with the possibility of its supplanting warfare in international disputes.

Kayhitems

KAYHITEMS, as the school paper, has become an important part of Kayhi since it was first published in 1923. As a laboratory course in journalism, the Kayhitems staffs, besides learning the mechanics of turning out a paper, has at all times endeavored to reflect the school's attitude through its editorial policy, to chronicle accurately the school's activities on its news pages, and to bring entertainment and education through its feature and humor pages.

That KAYHITEMS has succeeded to a degree is shown by the ratings given by national scholastic press associations.

The paper was rated First Honor by the National Scholastic Press Association in 1944-'45; All-American, 1945-'46; 1946-'47; 1947-'48; 1948-'49 and 1949-'50.

Columbia Scholastic Press Association ratings were First Honor 1946-'47; Medalist, 1947-'48; First Honor, 1948-'49; Medalist, 1949-'50.

Quill and Scroll, national honor society for high school journalists rated the paper First Honor, 1945-'46; 1946-'47; 1947-'48; 1948-'49.

Press Club

PRESS Club has been keeping busy this year publishing KAYHITEMS and this yearbook. The Journalism class works mainly on the paper while the Press Club assumes the responsibility of the annual.

All journalism students and anyone in high school who is interested in journalistic work make up the organization. Barbara Larsen was chosen president; Nancy Gore, vice president; Barbara Johnson, secretary; Stan Henderson, treasurer, and Hart Otterlei, sergeant at arms. Miss Ethel Evans, journalism teacher, is sponsor.

Junior and senior members of the club in the upper third of their class scholastically are eligible for application to Quill and Scroll, national honorary society for high school journalists.

Office Help

GIRLS who help Miss Elsie Stouffer, principal, with her tremendous job of conducting school business, are doing an invaluable service both to the school and to themselves. They do much of the routine work, such as collecting attendance slips, typing letters, cutting stencils, and mimeographing, leaving Miss Stouffer time for more important work.

Credits are given according to amount of work done in assisting the principal.

Assignments for office help have been Pat Winters, home room periods and fourth hour; Shirley Milonich, first hour; Rita Bugden, second hour; Irene Bue, third hour; Shirley Olin, fifth hour, and Betty Reagan, sixth hour.

Librarians

THE student-librarian's position is one of both learning and helping. He learns the library system of filing books and magazines, collects fines, catalogues and repairs books, arranges book displays, helps the students to find reference material, etc.

Besides what they learn in experience, the librarians receive one-half unit of credit a year.

In the morning Bob Corbin works in the library from 8:30 to 9; Peggy Guerin, from 9 to 9:30; Mary MacIsaac, 9:30 to 10:20. In the afternoon Jean Cutler helps from 12:50 to 1:30; Peggy Guerin, from 1 to 1:30; Bertha Larsen, 1:30 to 2:20; Marjorie Settje and Lolamae Spaeth, 2:20 to 3:10 and Joan Cutler 4 to 4:15.

TUNE AND RHYTHM

Through the fifty years of schools here, music has played an important part of the entertainment program. At first room teachers taught the music. Now the school has a supervisor of vocal music and a director of instrumental work.

On March 24 and 25, the mixed chorus presented "AN OLD KENTUCKY GARDEN," an operetta in two acts based on the music of Stephen Foster and arranged by Grant-Schaefer.

The money earned from the operetta was used to send fifty members of the mixed chorus and band to Juneau for the Southeastern Alaska Music Festival, Festival, held at Juneau May 6, 7 and 8.

With several concerts throughout the school term, the organization of a Band Booster's Club among parents and friends and plans for more extensive music training among the band members give Kayhi the assurance of the "Top Rate" type of band next year and in years to come.

This was the first operetta to be presented by a Kayhi mixed chorus in many years.

Student director for the production was Joanne Stevens and prompter was Vassa Casey. Ed Ohashi painted the scenery assisted by Joe Lewis, Charles Jensen and Jim Hinman. Des Moore and Greg Burns had charge of the lighting. Irene Bue was accompanist.

Miss Mary Zehntner and Mrs. Irvn Wengert were co-directors.

K Club

K CLUB is an athletic organization composed of pupils who have earned letters in any major sport at Kayhi or have been chosen as Yell King, Song Queen or Yell Queens.

Joe Lewis heads the club this year. Bob Jones is vice president, and Jim Tucker, secretary-treasurer.

Purpose of the club is to interest all pupils in high school sports program, to set examples of good sportsmanship, clean living and scholarship.

Some of the activities include handling of all athletic funds, promoting ticket sales and advertising.

They sponsored a carnival to raise funds for football during the fall.

The organization is proud of the scholastic record of its members and the seriousness with which boys train for participation on Polar Bear squads.

They Direct School Enthusiasm

Pep Squad

PEP leaders direct school enthusiasm at all interschool sports and plan pep assemblies. The Yell King is elected by members of the Student Body Association in the fall and later Yell Queens and Song Queen are elected.

Students try out before an assembly before the election for each office.

They prepare and teach new yells and songs, and in any way they can, help to create enthusiasm among athletic fans for school games.

THE Kayhi football team broke even for their third season losing to the Victoria Independents 24-6 and winning from the team on the Coast Guard boat Hemlock 20-0.

The Oak Bay Goblins, scheduled to play here September 24, disbanded and were replaced by the Victoria, B. C., Independents of the senior league. This team was made up of ex-high school players. Although Kayhi played masterful ball, the experience and age of the Independents proved too much for the locals who went down fighting to a 24-6 score. Defensively the locals tackled viciously to stop the Canadians through the line, but superior speed paid off on wide end sweeps and reverses.

Highlight of the Bears' offense was the passing when Tucker completed 12 out of 18—one to Christomos for a touchdown. The locals had no trouble making yardage but failed on the long pay-off runs that are necessary.

TEAM MANAGERS

On October 11 the Coast Guard team from the boat Hemlock tangled with the locals only to lose by a score of 20-0. Kayhi playing good ball was more than a match for the Coast Guard. In the first quarter Tucker crossed the line for the first score to be followed in the second stanza by Jones who skirted right end to paydirt. In the third quarter the Coast Guardsmen were caught on a double reverse with Berry going over. Anderson of Kayhi caught a Hemlock behind the goal to end the scoring for the day.

Thirty Kayhi players saw action.

Jim Tucker and Jim Hinman were co-captains of the team and Norman Nelson and Ralph Dale, managers.

Pictures of the captains were not available for the annual.

Intramural Basketball

WITH the opening of the '49-'50 basketball season, each of the four classes at Kayhi had their respective teams to represent them for the intramural league.

This year the senior class finished on top of the ladder as they did last season. Since the senior team had varsity players, it proved strongest of the four.

The title was no pushover, however, as the juniors had several varsity players also, and then the two underclass teams with real spirit and ambition gave them a good run for their money.

Junior City League

KAYHI had two teams in the Junior City League, the Whites and Cubs. Other teams in the league were the Kingfishers, made up of Coast Guard personnel, and the Alaska Native Brotherhood team.

Whites took the league championship with seven wins and four losses. Cubs ended the series with two wins and nine losses.

These teams played preliminary games to Senior City League games. Ray Bassett was coach.

Another team composed of grade and high school students called the Vets' Boys Club team played preliminary games also. They were considered too young to play in the Junior City League, but nevertheless gained much valuable experience in their games.

Although an extra record of their games is not available, they were undefeated.

Members of this team which didn't belong to any league were Charles Nelson, Fred Olsen, Bob Reagan, Dick Maddox and Bob Vincent.

Junior League

THE Ketchikan Junior League was started this year with teams from elementary schools. They played preliminary games at inter-school and City League games. Purpose of the league was to encourage boys of younger ages to participate in basketball and thus learn the rudiments of the sport before they entered high school.

White Cliff, Civic Center boys completed the series with first honors, Main Elementary School was second; Guiding Light Children's Home, third, and Presbyterians, fourth.

Exact scores and games played are not available for in the hurry of completing the final games, the score book was misplaced.

At the beginning of the season, Beulah View had a team in the league but they dropped out.

Directors of the teams were: Beulah View, Jimmie Diamond III; Presbyterians, the Rev. Ed Freeman; Guiding Light Children's Home, Alfred Everson; Main Elementary, Cle L. Montgomery, and White Cliff, Civic Center, Harry Ludwigen.

Harry Ludwigen acted as general director of the League.

In the International games Coach Hollister saw his club drop three games to Prince Rupert, but from then on it was a different story. In the fourth game Kayhi trounced Rupert, took Wrangell four straight games followed by three wins from Petersburg to take the Southern Division Championship.

The Juneau Crimson Bears, a fast accurate team, took two from the Polar Bears followed by two straight wins from Seward to give the Capital City boys their first All-Alaska title.

The basketball series with Prince Rupert proved to be the early experience Kayhi needed. After dropping the first three games to the Canadians the Bears got in high gear and took the next eight out of nine to clinch the Southern Division title.

Prince Rupert, as usual, had a mid season club which played steady ball until the fourth game when the Bears finally hit the right combination and made themselves felt.

Because of three wins Prince Rupert keeps the International trophy for at least another year.

Girls Athletic Association

THE G. A. A. has been very busy again this year, taking part in many different activities. Officers were: Wanda High, president; Barbara Larsen, vice-president; Irene Bue, secretary; Joyce Vig, treasurer, and Rita Bugden, point chairman. Miss Marjorie Paulus is the sponsor.

Initiation of new members started the year off on October 19, followed by Faculty Night on November 17, a reception and style show at the Elks Lodge honoring the Petersburg girls and sponsors on February 4, Parents' Night, April 4, and the Mother's Tea on May 13.

A Greek Clothing Drive, with Chairman Maxine Burt was a successful project. Four packages were sent to a family in Greece and the G. A. A. "Scrubettes" scrubbed the Civic Center and earned enough to send another package to Greece.

The Junior Red Cross representatives, Moira Lane and Carol Vig, were in charge of slippers which were made by the members and sent to children at the Institute in Wrangell.

An Easter Benefit Drive was held in April when food was collected for a needy family.

Several girls earned 500 points in athletic activities for a G. A. A. letter or chevron.

Yell queens, Shirley Liljestrand and Shirley Olin, led the G. A. A. Drill Team this year and directed the many noon hour practices, which were started in December in preparation for the games with Prince Rupert, the first inter-school games of the year.

The fifty members of drill team wore white skirts and blouses with banners of maroon.

Many of the drills were given by Mrs. O. M. Lien and they were greatly appreciated.

The drill team performed at all inter-school basketball games in Ketchikan and usually sang the visiting team's school song while performing the letter of that school.

G. A. A. points were earned by the members for the time put into practices.

The staff compiled this list from school records and newspaper stories. Names were printed in KAYHITEMS with a request for corrections. The staff will appreciate corrections to this list so that future publications will be accurate.

YEARBOOK EDITOR

10,000 B.W.*

This is Raggmopp, Son of Og.

Voted the most likely to succeed by the members of his class, Raggmopp sported the very latest in leopard-skin coats and considered it quite proper to tow his best gal to the Jungle Prom by a firm grip on the scruff of her neck. Raggmopp up there has just finished hacking out the senior panels on HIS yearbook, and he's quite proud of his workmanship. He had his troubles, all right, but there's one thing you can say for his work; it was PERMANENT!

There is still a little of the caveman in all of us, but caveman methods do not apply to our school yearbooks. Unlike Raggmopp, the annual editor of today doesn't want a "hacked-out" yearbook, and he doesn't need a chisel and a slab of granite on which to do his work. The modern yearbook staff doesn't have to put up with crude reproduction either! The yearbook of today is made permanent through the proper use of good photography, good printing, and the best in photoengraving!

Modern schools, because they've learned that the finest engravings cost no more, order their printing plates from Western, and thus assure themselves of the finest in workmanship. In addition, they can take advantage of the only complete yearbook service in the Pacific Northwest!

If you'd like to get away from the "just another annual" classification, and publish a truly fine yearbook, get in touch with Western. We have produced more prize-winning annuals than all the other photoengravers in the Pacific Northwest combined!
