Each student at Kayhi will eventually go his own way in life; each seeking the key fitting the lock of the door desired. There are many doors to be unlocked, and with each door, a decision to be made.

It is fortunate that the people of our great country have realized that the best way to make these decisions in life is through education. They realize that the reason we are a great country is because of education. They also realize that the only way to preserve the wonderful freedoms we enjoy is with education.

If the graduating student leaves school with a harmonious personality, the know-how to make a living, and the ability to live and to think for himself, he will have taken advantage of the key to the future that a good education offers.

Because instruction ends in the classroom, but education ends only at death, it is important that every student try his best to find the right key to his future.

Dear Mrs. Turek,

The science department at Kayhi would not be as complete or responsive without you.

You have stirred an interest and desire for learning in your students. This has been truly appreciated.

We dedicate the 1965 Williwaw to you, Mrs. Turek, in acknowledgement of your fine efforts at Kayhi.

Sincerely,

Class of 1965

Senior Class History

Let's take a glance through the keyhole of the past. Four years ago, under the leadership of Scott Schwartz, President; Wendy Sande, Vice President; Kathy Kometz, Secretary; and Susan Carr, Treasurer, the Freshman class is bound and determined to establish itself. The successful Frosh Frolic, "Casper's Capers", does just that.

Our Sophomore year begins with Dennis Nalder, Dave Pitcher, Karen Lasiter, Mike Hook, and Spike Christopher as officers. We find more Sophomores moving ahead. Thirty-eight "scholars" are tapped for Torch. Sandy Nalder, Tina Gregory, and Karen Lasiter represent the class on the pep squad. Supporting the Kings are Sophomores Dick Hjorteset, Dennis Nalder, Mike Hook, Spike Christopher, and Dave Pitcher. The Sophomore Hop, "Something's Fishy", is a great success.

Looking now to our Junior year shows us Dave Pitcher, President; Jack Davies, Vice President; Pattie Cessnun, Secretary; and Sandy Perlstrom, Treasurer. Cherilyn Loitz heads Fire Squad with three assisting Juniors. A new group, King's Knights, is organized with twelve Juniors as active members. Our Junior pep squad, with Suzanne Hawkins, Gail Hunt, Karen Lasiter, Sandy Nalder, Susan Barry, and Beth Urquhart cheer the Kings to victory at the tournament in Juneau. Homecoming is a real success with Wendy Sande reigning as queen. Ending the fun-filled year is "Capsana" the Junior Prom.

Our last long look through the keyhole reveals our Senior year. The SBA officers are Mike Hook, Jack Davies, Pattie Cessnun, and Beth Urquhart. Senior Class officers are Dave Pitcher, Jack Davies, Kathy Kometz, Karen Lasiter, and Randy Boyd. Our Senior Play "Antigone" is presented in December along with our Senior Ball "It's a Blue, Blue, Blue, Blue, Blue, World." Sandy Nalder, Gail Hunt, Nancy Huff lead our Pep Club with Kathy Kometz Homecoming chairman. Many Senior players support the Kings.

We must now look through the keyhole of the future to find our key to success.

Senior Class

After spending months, weeks, days, hours, minutes, and seconds laboring profusely on this momentous psychic endeavor (in the most part, how to evade it), I have come up with these following prophesies for the illustrious class of 1965. The following names you will read are not fictitious; believe it or not, they really belong to people! Enough said.

After a quick consultation with theosophical devices, I conjured the spirit of Fred Allen. Fred will do well in the cattle business and eventually be on the board of directors for the ARMOUR packing company. After more boring rituals, I ended up with these: Ethel Almquist, lucky girl, finishes high school! Karen Anderson, after a relatively short stay in the U.S. hears the Viking call and departs for Sweden where she marries, of all things, a blonde! Carol Atkinson does real well and marries a rich man who unfortunately doesn't spend very much. Darlene Atkinson steals Carol's husband; only this time he does like to spend! And now we come to Susan Barry. Susan goes on to become a Dixieland pianist and plays on Bourbon Street Tuesdays and Fridays. Martha Bayou works her way up in the Coliseum Theater and eventually replaces Mrs. Daigler. Pat Berkey decides "people is pigs" and decides to be a lady prospector, but unfortunately strikes uranium and becomes a debutant. Bob Boatwright, what a mind! He goes to Reed College but is expelled a semester later for wearing a fig leaf to a class of Practical Theology. Tsk-Tsk. Sharon Boatwright does badly I'm a'fear'd, and ends up as a nightclub dancer in Wetsprings, Montana. Ahhh! Sandy Bohannon! What a shame she found out that all the gum companies in the world went out of business. She committed suicide. Randy Boyd becomes a famous bone specialist after finding a cure for bowleggedness. Louise Brinck, after tasting the glamour of the stage, heads for Hollywood and becomes an exotic screen temptress. Carol Brown marries a man named Carl Black and lives happily ever after. Donna Brown wins acclaim far and wide as the fastest woman typist alive, then in one fatal surge, breaks the world speed record and drops dead of a heart attack. Patty Brozena joins the Peace Corps and wins world fame as the successor of Albert Schweitzer. Bill Bruesch astounds all of his friends by getting a haircut. Bill Burns joins the Marines and becomes their best drill sergeant, nick-named "Battling Billy Boom." Bob Caldwell gets sent to the Washington State Penitentiary for being caught for the 363rd time for having an illegal still. Pattie Cessnun inherits the family Chevy II, paints it fluorescent orange, drops a 427 in it, and enters drags across the country. Doug Charles, quite by accident, takes the perfect picture and dies from the shock. Helen Chiabre meets a man in the Navy and runs off with him to Tahiti where they live happily ever after. John Cochrane, after spending years studying the trumpet, decides he hates music and becomes a hermit in the Yukon. Mike Currie, after years in Alaska, finally returns to California and shrivels up into nothing as he first steps into the sun. Jack Davies, astounding his fellow lawyers and giving up the profession, becomes a surf-boy at Malibu Beach. Mike Dyakanoff goes into a partnership with Alex Schlais and forms the M & A Distillery Company. Mike Erickson, while exploring the remote New Guinea jungles, encounters an evil witchdoctor that immediately shrinks Mike to a healthy five feet tall. Bob Feller joins the Army but goes AWOL when he finds out it didn't send him to Europe. Robin Finsen packs up her writing utensils and heads for India to study the Rubiyat of Omar Khayyam. Susan Fison strikes it rich on the stock market and becomes a financial wizard. Anne Gilmour knocks off her ol' man and takes over his hotel. Becky Graham can still be seen, riding like mad in a car that's green. Glen Griffin becomes a tennis shoe tester for P. F. Flyer. Verna Guthrie becomes a world reknown lady wrestler. Alfred Hagevig wins a huge contest held for the owner of the curliest and most uncontrollable hair in the world. Hugh Hall becomes the lead star of the future version of Tom Jones. Gary Hamilton also heads for Hollywood and becomes the thirty-third Tarzan. Helen Hawkins opens a beauty parlor and becomes the first hairdresser to popularize complete baldness. Joanna Hendricks is destined to raise a brood of kids. Dan Hennessey spends the rest of his life trying to introduce the topless bikini. Pat Hickey is vested with the title of "Most Valuable Human in the Universe" by the President of the United States. Bill Hollywood becomes filthy rich, buys Hollywood, California, and changes the name to Blorknatty. Mike Hook becomes so horribly mutilated from playing sports that he becomes Hollywood's most successful monster. Judy Hopkins eventually marries a man owning a Rambler Cosmopolitan. Nancy Huff and Gail Hunt go on to further journalistic endeavors and end up publishing the world's biggest girlie magazine. Karen Jensen becomes tired of things and opens a casino in Las Vegas. Janey Johansen joins the WACS and becomes a top-notch drill sergeant. Ken Johansen doesn't do anything in the future. Cliff Johnson becomes a cover illustrator for men's magazines. Greg Johnson becomes enraged at his wild blush and permanently dyes his face purple. Marie Johnson is on her way up in this world. She becomes an elevator operator in the Empire State Building. Charlie Jones never kicks the habit of buying yellow Chevys. Jim Keithley never kicks the habit of recurrent Chevy nightmares. Dolores King changes her name by marrying Donovan Queen. Mike Kitts becomes a sickening "yes" man on Madison Avenue. Patsy Knight marries Peter Day. Kathy Kometz becomes a famous model for Borax Soap. Kathy Krier invents the first electric hair teaser. Karen Kubley decides blondes don't have more fun and dyes her hair black. Gus Langworthy eliminates George so no one will have trouble calling him the wrong name. Karen Lasiter, much to her dismay, loses her phony Southern accent and suffers a nervous breakdown. Tom Lattin and Ken Lea both join a monastery where they finish their lives writing fantastic science fiction. Lynn Leding marries Larry Followin. Paul Leslie changes his last name to Zangnarg because people kept calling him Leslie Paul. Renee L'Heureux becomes totally insane after writing her last name one time too many. Tom Llanos took heed of Mike Hook's fate and took up the florist business. Frank Lloyd amazes everyone by starting a vicious campaign to eliminate the dangerous sport of surfing. Ed Locks, for some insane reason, decided to become a locksmith and wins a prize for the catchiest business sign--"Lock's Locks". Cherilyn Loitz, shocked by almost winning the "most interesting walk," designs a dress that hides all motions of the body. The next case I'm afraid is a tragedy. Poor Charlene Loomis will walk home, open her door, and be attacked by her huge, black dog because she forgot to feed him. Helen Lorentzen will end up being a Nightwatch D. J. for KJR, Seattle. Anne Lucas, deciding that walking to work in town from her house in the sticks, is too much trouble, will buy an XKE with all the money she has saved at Bob Race's. John McKinley will live on to become the Honda-sponsored driver for all Scrambler competitions. Rod McLeod will immediately head south after graduation. Gary McNally will be awarded a prize from Mr. Wipfli for giving him the biggest laugh ever in an economics class. Jim Masen, contrary to popular belief, will not join Demolay. Vicky Metcalf will be the first woman in history to join the Los Angeles Rams. Gerry Minnich will thin out, grow taller, and finally beat up his older brother. Harold Moeser will become a famous professor on the study of aircraft maintenance. Ron Mosher will finally be forced to paint his car white. Dennis Nalder, after years of athletic mishaps, will head for the needle. Sandy Nalder will become a five-star general in the WACS. David Nault will be awarded a prize for dating the most girls four years older than him. Dick O'Bryan will flabbergast all by becoming a decathlon athlete. Ruth Ann Parsons, surprisingly enough, will marry a parson. Marvin Peratrovich will change his name to Smith. Sandy Perlstrom will become a famous and brilliant college professor in an all-male college. Nick Pettygrove will still be seen riding his red 305 with his white Air Defense helmet. David Pitcher will end up posing for Greek statues. Patty Roberts will invent the first slide clarinet. Heather Robertson, before getting married, will change her name to Robertdaughter. Wendy Sande will decide that her next boyfriend will have a benchseat and column shift. Tom Selfridge will head for Muscle Beach, where all his efforts will crown him "Mr. Universe." Lonnie Shawver will become totally bald before he's twenty-one. Judy Silke will become the successor of Robert Ruarke's column. Norman Sivertsen will become a physicist for the carbonation division of Coca-Cola. Kathy Snider and Beth Urquhart, to the surprise of all, will attain the height of 5'11". Mike Sowell will be drafted into the Army before he has a chance to join the Air Force and will come back to Ketchikan, where no one will recognize him in his crewcut. Albert Spromberg will be the world's long distance walking champion. Tom Streeter, after finally more money, will graduate to a Honda 150 instead of 90. Bob Suddath will be playing drums one day and suddenly become a writhing mass of quivering, uncontrollable muscles. Jim Taylor will still be working at Lahmeyer's and still fighting Colleen B's father. Dick Veerman, heeding Mike Hook's talk of resembling Rock Hudson, will eventually replace Rock Hudson in Hollywood. Gary Walters will not end up owning Alder Park Grocery. Joey Whitney knows what I originally was going to put, so I won't mention him. Wesley Williams will be sucked up into Hollywood and become famous playing moron roles. David Yeisley will catch pneumonia the sixth time he loses his boat while hunting and has to paddle driftwood back to town. Jim Zink will become forced to invent an aerosol spray cement can.

Prophecy

Physically and mentally exhausted, I hereby do close this cabalistic feat.

God bless,

Pat Hickey

The class of 1965 and I started together. I wish I could see the growth in myself that I see in members of the class.

Working with you has been a frustrating, humbling experience. We did not do everything that we could have done but to me it will always seem that you would have reached any end if I could have pointed you in that direction and shown you a reason for getting there.

It has been a short, sweet, rewarding four years for me. May the time seem the same to you and be as good for you.

Latin Club

In the glorious days of the Roman Empire, the Senate was the governing body of the Republic. There were two heads of government, called consuls. They ruled on alternate days. In case one of the leaders was a tyrant or unjust to the people, the other leader (consul) could undo any act that he considered harmful. The Senate and the Roman people in this year of 2718 A. U. C. under the consulship of Bill Goodale and Pam McBride. Other officers include the Scriba, Lynne Simpson, who writes the scrolls; the Quaestor, Colleen Beausoleil, who takes care of the money bags; and the Tribune of the Plebs, Jon Pitcher, who makes sure the Plebs (lowest class of citizens) are given fair treatment. These plebeians are the first year Latin students. Those who have completed two years of Latin are occasionally promoted to Godhood.

Homecoming

February 18, 19, and 20, 1965

A turkey dinner started off homecoming.

Dixie Hellenga sings "Ebb Tide" to entertain the audience.

At this pagan ritual a Crimson Bear was burned as a sacrifice.

A record entry of cars made the car parade the biggest ever.

The candidates wait with expectation!

Bonnie Pierce, as she is announced queen.

The queen is crowned.

"'Cause she's a witch!"

"Thank you THING!"

The queen's dance.

And the demand for this vital Alaskan natural resource has created a year-round industry which is the number one in the panhandle. This is a dynamic, modern industry. If you dislike confined offices and crowded streets take a second look at logging. It needs skilled engineers, professional foresters, and young men familiar with Alaska.

Advertisements??

Wanted Dead or Alive Public Enemy No. 007!

$500 reward for the capture of Hungary Hugo Hall, Jr. He is accused of child beating, tire stealing, dope peddling, and selling of cheat sheets.

"HUNGARY HUGO"

Hungary Hugo is 5 feet 10 inches tall, weighs 150 pounds, has red hair and green eyes.
Warning!! He is armed and dangerous.

We advertise ANYTHING!

"I'm the applicant for a science scholarship."

"Mabeline what?"

"Senior Party!"

"Caution: Do not taste test acids."

"You've got a what in your furnace?"

"Ban takes the worry out of being close."

"We came to hear the Glacierenen."

"Even your best friend won't tell you."

"Kenneth of the Lilly Dache, why?"

"Sting along with Itch!"

The staff of the 1965 "Williwaw" wishes to thank Gordon Lloyd and Morgan Grude for their many courtesies, such as, working practically "on call" and spending many overtime hours on processing so the staff could have pictures in time to meet deadlines were appreciated.

Other credits and acknowledgements: Title page design, Gary Jones, Class of '64; all photography, except that credited to Gordon Lloyd and Morgan Grude, was taken by the student photographers, Bob Boatwright and Doug Charles. Various shots were donated by individual students. The page 10 photograph was taken by Doug Charles.

So this is what the team does at practice.

Home Ec. come as you are breakfast.

Mrs. Dohm and the Senior Class as they appeared in the 6th grade.
