There's a time for everything! Life begins with the time of our birth and ends at the time of our death. As we grow up, there's a time to work, and a time to play; a time to be happy, and a time to be sad; a time for your friends and a time for just yourself.

Our high school years are the best times in our lives. Emotions and events are magnified. We are just kids when we clown in the halls, but we're adults when we have to decide which, if any, college we'll apply to. We'll remember the good (and the not so good) times of our high school years for all of our lives. We hope that our annual can bolster your memories, and provide an interesting picture story of the 1966-67 school year.

HOMECOMING

EATS

Everyone including the teachers, King and Queen Candidates, students and the people of the town are enjoying a fine dinner prepared by Mrs. Kinerk and all who helped.

SPEAKERS OF THE NIGHT

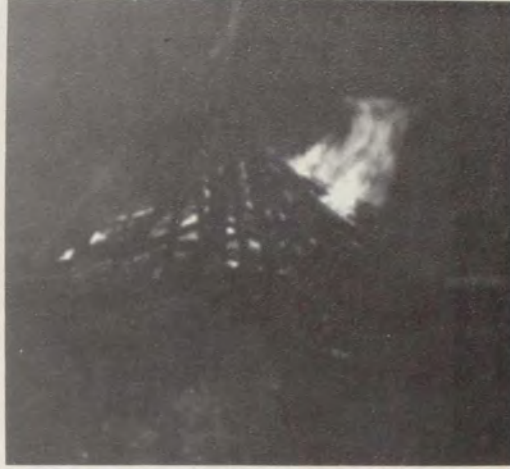

Coach Hunskor predicts a close game with our rivals--the Bears.

Our great principal Mr. Stekl gives an encouraging speech to all attendants.

HAPPENINGS

As usual it was raining for the burning of the Crimson Bear!

CREMATIONS AND RENDEZVOUS

VOCALISTS

Mr. Daigler and Mrs. Wengert surprise everyone with their talent of singing. They were excellent!

Miss Margaret Hyde

We, the staff of the '67 Williwaw consider it an honor to dedicate this yearbook to one who has been such an intricate part of our high school for so long a period. Without your help and hard work, Kayhi would not be complete. For this, we wish to dedicate the 1967 Williwaw to you, Miss Hyde.

SENIOR CLASS HISTORY

We established ourselves as Freshmen in 1963-64. To lead us through a trying year, we elected Rick Ludwigsen, President; Joe Kinerk, Vice-president; Linda Farstad, Secretary; and Mike Fleenor, Treasurer. Colleen Beausoleil showed the power of our great class by being chosen Annual Queen. The Frosh Frolic was honored as the best decorated dance of the year. Our freshmen year was marred by the tragic assassination of President John F. Kennedy.

With a year of experience behind us, we elected Rick Ludwigsen, Bill Goodale, Lynne Simpson, Colleen Beausoleil and Ken Flores as officers. Our supremacy was again shown by the reigning of Linda Farstad as Annual Queen. Our intelligence was shown by the tapping of fifteen sophomores for the National Honor Society. Colleen Beausoleil and Betsy Germain were chosen for Varsity Cheerleaders, and Cathy Crowder was elected Vice-president of the Pep Club.

Our Junior year was the best yet. We were led by Gene Short, Colleen Beausoleil, Shirley Abel, Anne Caldwell, Cathy Crowder and Rick Ludwigsen. Our class was represented by Rick Ludwigsen, Bill Goodale, Gene Short, Bruce Hardesty, Keith Stump, and Dick Michalsen on the All-Alaska Champions, "the Kayhi Kings," who produced the first undefeated season in conference play. John Sund was our manager. To support them, Linda Farstad, Vicki Wallin, Cathy Crowder, and Bridget Hickey were chosen as Varsity Cheerleaders; and Keith Stump was elected Pep Club Vice-president. Anne Caldwell was chosen for Girl's State and Carl Casperson for Boy's State.

At last we are Seniors! Leading the school, we voted Carl Casperson, Rick Ludwigsen, Anne Caldwell, and Joe Kinerk to S.B.A. offices. Leading our class in our final year are Dick Michalsen, President; Bill Goodale, Vice-president; John Sund, Secretary-Treasurer; and Gene Short, S.B.A. Representative. Joe Kinerk led the Pep Club and Carmen Dima was Homecoming Chairman. Six Seniors are expected to lead the team to another winning year in basketball. The events of our final year were diligently recorded by Anne Caldwell as editor of Kayhitem and Keith Stump as editor of the Williwaw. Our last year was highlighted by a successful carnival which was held on November 12.

SENIOR CARNIVAL FINANCIAL SUCCESS

Above: Mr. Hansen gets a wet one on the head during his turn in the sponge-blow.

The Senior class carnival in November was a huge success, both financially and fun-wise. Chairman John Sund did a bang-up job in producing an enjoyable evening for students and townfolk alike.

Right: Kayhi girls look enviously at the prize teddy-bear raffled off at the carnival.

Below: Ken Jackson urges encouragement to contestants at the bean bag-row, while Vicki Wallin keeps her eye on the prizes.

Victor Rice and Harland Anderson keep on their toes as they pin up balloons while keeping a weary eye out for over-anxious dart throwers.

Once upon a time when dolls where plentiful and trees seemed the most important aspect in life were two little girls who lived at Mountain Point. They wore frilly dresses, the latest up to date bobby socks, shiny patent leather shoes and pretty bows in their hair. One day their Mommies called them away from their play, and had them pose for a picture. They forgot about the picture until many years later when the annual staff claimed it. Pictured here are the two little girls, who are now big girls, Lolly Underwood and Vicki Wallin.

Juniors run for office of school clubs when they realize that they are finally upperclassmen.

Washing done anyone? Janis Brand has just begun the Laundry Business.

Major Lolly here pushing orders to get her expedition crew on the job, after all, two minutes is way too long to have a break.

THREE JUNIOR CHEERLEADERS FAIL TO LOOSE STONEHAWKER AWARD!

Courtesy of Ketchikan Public Library and Ketchikan Museums

Cheerleaders Susan Hardesty, Sharon Caldwell, and Mari Salazar made a valiant but vain attempt to lead their class from the ownership of the famed Stonehawker Award. Although they cried cheat, and tried to blame it on the judges, the class of '68 won the award for distinguished silence.

The year 1967 is Alaska's Centennial year. From all of the work being put forth by the citizens of our state will come lasting results and memories.

For you, the students and faculty of Kayhi, I hope that 1967 will bring much personal satisfaction and many pleasant memories. As the years pass, this great year and its events will gradually fade away.

But, each time you open the pages of this yearbook, may you remember this year. Renew in your mind the pleasant memories and personal accomplishments and satisfactions of this time in your past. Let 1967 be a most satisfying page in your individual "Book of Life."

ADMINISTRATION

VICE PRINCIPAL: MR. HANSEN

Mr. Stekl and Mr. Hansen are well thought of men at Kayhi. Both have diligently come to the aid of students when necessary and showed an active interest in their welfare. A sense of humor can be seen in both, which makes them even closer to the students and faculty. We here at Kayhi would just like them to know how much we appreciate their efforts.

BELOW: Mr. Stekl and Mr. Hansen come to the aid of a student in trouble.

FADER HEADS

VOCATIONAL TRAINING

Mr. Fader, former Vice-Principal at Kayhi, and a very ambitious person when it comes to the security of high school students, is heading a wonderful program which will expand greatly in the next few years to come. This program, Vocational Training, gives many students opportunities to develop and master skills which will benefit them in future years when obtaining jobs.

For the deep concern shown by the many people involved in this new phase of education, the students at Kayhi wish to express their deep gratitude and appreciation.

"Please, Mr. Green, don't go away mad-just go away!"

DISTRIBUTIVE

Distributive Education founded this year is under the administration of Mr. Ed McNulty, Distributive Education turned out a great success, and will expand rapidly as it is really beginning to fall under the interest of Kayhi students. It provides students with a job, pay, and along with taking one class a day, guarantees one credit.

FACULTY

To the students of Kayhi, teachers are considered a very valuable item. They are a mixture of personalities which give the students a true insight of what to expect when a part of the adult world. What the students learn, what they know, is something only the teachers can take credit for.

From the students of Kayhi, and especially the seniors, is their deep sincere thanks and appreciation for all the teachers have done.

KAYHITEMS

Kayhitems, the school paper, is a true reflection of life at Kayhi. It has recorded school activities, forwarded educational information, and entertained the students through its feature pages, editorials, and humorous columns. It is lead by the fearless Anne Caldwell, Editor. The staff also includes News Editor Bill Goodale, Editorial Editor David Dye, Feature Editor Sharon Shull, Sports Editor Chris Boatwright, Art

Editor Chris Engel, Circulation Manager Jim Griffin, and Photographers David Dye and Joe Kinerk. Ober Keets Fox is Business Manager, and Linda Hildre acts as Proof Reader. Reporters this year were Kent Kleinschmidt, Edna McElfresh, and Mike Moore. Advisor was Mr. Dennis Daigler, who proved himself very valuable to the entire staff.

LATIN CLUB

The two major activities of the Latin Club are the annual Slave Auction and the Roman Banquet.

Latin I students are sold as slaves to the GODS and GODDESSES (students who have completed 2 years of Latin) and SENATORS (students currently taking Latin II).

The money from the Auction pays for the Roman Banquet held in the Spring.

Officers are elected by the SENATORS: There are two consuls, one presides on even days and the other presides on uneven days; a secretary, and a treasurer.

Miss Hyde is the advisor.

The Kayhi Thespian Society, larger and more active than ever before, put on a program of three plays in 1966-1967. The plays were all successful, thanks to our director and advisor Mr. James Knutson, and a lot of hard working thespians. "1948" by George Orwell, with cast members Ober Fox, Carl Caspersen, Candy Cloudy, Rex Lauber, Susan Boatwright, Karen Hainline, Steve Smeltzer, Kathy Engel, and Shirley

Abel was presented in December.

"A Perfect Analysis As Given By A Parraot" by Tennessee Williams with cast members: Joanne Elliott, Enid Elway, Steve Laird, Ober Fox, and Mike Gray, and "Why I am a Bachelor" with cast members: Anne Caldwell, Ober Fox, Mike Gray, Sharon Caldwell, Kathy Bird, and Linda Riley were presented in early February.

NINETEEN EIGHTY-FOUR

Nineteen Eighty-Four, starring Candy Cloudy and Carl Caspersen, proved practice worthwhile. Pictured here Candy and Carl blush as they realize the acting required in George Orwells novel.

Same scene as in picture number one, but minus blush and embarrassment, Candy and Carl wisk through the part with no mistakes whatsoever, leaving audience well pleased.

Another scene, following picture number two, shows Carl, Candy and another actor, Enid Elway. Enid playing the landlord.

And Carl, two plus two DOES equal five!

NATIONAL HONOR SOCIETY

Throughout history, a man has reorganized and marked for special honor those who excel. Ancient and medieval universities established their honor societies. In modern times, the coveted honor of election to Phi Beta Kappa outranks all other distinctions that a college can bestow. In election to the National Honor Society, the secondary school faculty honors the attainments already made and recognized the promise they contain of continued excellence in the cherished ideals of a school.* The National Honor Society was founded in 1919 by the National Association of Secondary-School Principals. Although Ketchikan High School has had an honor society called "Torch" for a number of years, it was not until 1934 that it became an official member of the National Honor Society with the granting of Charter 5218. The symbol of N.H.S. is a flaming torch, and after thirteen years of membership in the national organization, our chapter is still often referred to as Torch. Members are elected by the faculty on the basis of Leadership, Character, Scholarship, and Service.

The Honor Guard grew to eight this year, and it is quite an improvement. The two groups compete, and the competition produces extremely good marching. Each group makes up his own routines, which makes a nice change of pace for the start of the game. The hard work of the Honor Guard is very much appreciated by the crowd at the games.

Flower - - Red Rose - - A red rose is symbolic of vibrant glowing health - an necessary attribute for happiness and efficiency in home and group life. The red rose was chosen because it grows in every State and Territory of America. Its universality of cultivation conveys the idea of good home and family life for all.

Kathy and Sharon were elected to serve as officers for the Alaska association of the Future Homemakers of America. So important are their position, that they were sent to Juneau to attend for officers meetings; expenses paid. They work as an advisory board to guide the work of all chapters in the state. This years officers have received praise and letters of recognition for the outstanding job they have done in developing the state program.

There are eight specific purposes of the organization, Future Homemakers of America.

1. To promote a growing appreciation of the joys and satisfaction of homemaking.
2. To emphasize the importance of worthy home membership.
3. To encourage democracy in home and community life.
4. To work for good home and family life for all.
5. To promote international good will.
6. To foster the development of creative leadership in home and community life.
7. To provide wholesome individual and group recreation.
8. To further interest in home economics.

The Drill Team strives to make our great team and Pep Club look even better, by showing off their talents of marching. This activity is under the direction of Miss Susan Cook and has 36 girls with four alternates.

The drill team has performed four times now and will compete with others in Sitka. They are having new uniforms made by Mrs. Ernie Boyd and a Mrs. Casperson. These will be maroon courdory with a white instep, white blouses and possible maron courdory vests.

Karen Roley and Judy McBride show worry and tension before the performance, meanwhile Mabel Skan, says, "Don't sweat it!"

PEP CLUB OFFICERS

These are the innocent faces of our famed Pep Club officers: David Dye: Vice Pres., Julie Roeter: Treas., Enid Elway: Sec., Pam McBride: S.B.A. Rep.

Meet Joe Kinerk, our peppy president.

Judi, a worried Junior Varsity Cheerleader, desperately cheers her team on in hopes for winning.

Pep Club is an organization designed to help keep and increase the school spirit at Kayhi.

The peppiest and most hard-working people are able to go the Southeastern Alaska Tourney, held in Sitka this year, by way of the Pep Club.

We are sincerely hoping we'll win the tournament and make it a record of four in a row.

Since the season is now over except for the trial tournaments we can safely say it has been a fair year.

We hope to see even more school spirit in Sitka and next year, too.

PEPPY GENERATION

A special thanks to past Cheerleader, Sandy Nalder, for her help and advice which helped make the Cheerleaders the success they are today. The many hours she spent working and instructing the Cheerleaders are highly valued. Her help proved worthwhile, for the Cheerleaders today are considered one of the peppiest and most enthusiastic in many many years.

Long hours of practice produce winning team

After a tremendous season last year, this year's Kings have had to work extra hard in order to live up to their image. An average of fifteen hours of hard work and sweat are used up every week by the Kings in order to be in top form for their games. Defense has been the strength of the team, and through the thorough coaching of Mr. Hunskor and Mr. Vincent, the varsity has always been a top contender in Southeast play. After completely dominating the conference last year, the '67 season ended in a tie with Petersburg for first place.

The Kayhi Junior Varsity travelled to other towns for the first time, as the Kayhi basketball system was enlarged to include one other team, the Freshman squad. Not only did they travel, they also received aid in the form of five JV cheerleaders. As they played other junior varsity teams, they took right after their elders, the Kings, as they won most all of their games.

Kayhi-Cross-Country Hurt by Injuries

Kayhi's third year cross-country team showed signs of improvement, but were hurt by injuries to their runners at crucial times. In the warm-up meet at Ketchikan, visiting Juneau walked off with the honors, Petersburg taking second, and Kayhi a few points behind at third. Juneau's Chuck Estes won followed by Gene Short, and Keith Stump. At the next warm up meet in Petersburg, Short placed first, Stump third and Jim Griffin fourth, but the team lost as Petersburg won in overall points. Then with the final South East Alaska meet in Wrangell, Griffin developed shin splints.

The race started with Short, Estes of Juneau, and Stump sprinting off to an extremely fast start, but again trouble hit--this time when Short got stomach cramps. Estes won in the exceedingly fast time of 11:47, followed by six Edgcombe runners. Stump lead Kayhi's effort with a disputed 8th place finish, and was followed by Short who finished 25th of the 70 competitors.

Juneau's Chuck Estes finishing first in the Ketchikan meet. He outdistanced all other runners competing.

WRESTLING

The boys sweat to carry their new mat out of the way of other gym activities besides their own.

Wrestling has emerged as a major sport at Kayhi this year. After a late start last year, this year's wrestlers have come a long way under the direction of Coach Oliver. A beautiful new mat was bought at the start of the year, and it has been put to good use. The team has fought six matches and will travel to Juneau before meeting Sitka on their home mat.

Grunts and groans may be heard as the varsity works hard with weights and exercises after school. In order to compete in the rough sport, the boys must practice many long hard hours. The wrestlers started out well, beating Juneau once and Petersburg twice, before losing to Sitka once and Mt. Edgecumbe twice.

Kayhi - 35 Juneau - 18

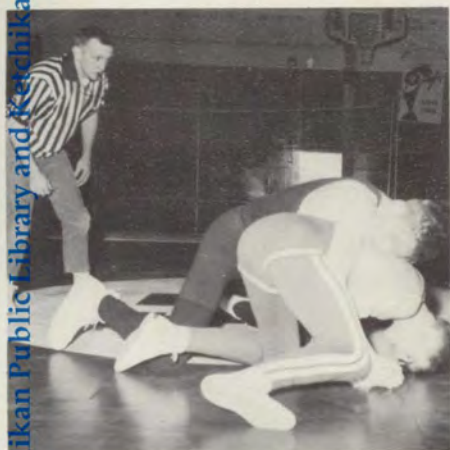

Kayhi - 41 Petersburg - 15

Kayhi - 39 Petersburg - 13

Kayhi - 16 Sitka - 33

Kayhi - 18 Mt. Edgecumbe - 26

Kayhi - 11 Mt. Edgecumbe - 33

Ober is trying his darndest to win, see those muscles straining.

The whole team is working out before another exciting match.

Coach Oliver winces as a wrestler loses his round.

KAYHI TRACK SQUAD PLACES THIRD

David Price, David Hanger, Jim Griffin

Keith Stump, Gene Short, Peter Nault

"Bottoms up" Mike Houts

"There she goes" Lynn Campbell

Kayhi's Track Squad, under the coaching of Mr. Dennis Oliver, moved up three notches in the southeast track standings. Our second year Track Squad showed greater strength in the field events, while being weaker in the running departments.

Gene Short ran the distance races, with

Peter Nault backing him up. Jim Griffin and David Hanger ran the middle distance races, and Gary Hook and David Price, the short races.

The field events competitors were Mike Houts, Lynn Campbell and Keith Stump.

WRESTLING 1966

Kayhi's first wrestling team did a lot to get us on the road of achievement equal to that of the basketball team. The team practiced after school in the multiservice room or in the gym when it was vacant.

Ketchikan saw two exhibition matches between halves of the King's home games. Coach Oliver and most of the team went to Petersburg where the members showed that the team will have to be reckoned with, in the coming years.

Steve Smeltzer, David Mc Connel, Jay Urquart. Absent: Don Moe

The staff of the 1967 "WILLIWAW" sincerely wish to thank Ruth and Gordon Lloyd for all the work and help that they have extended to us in making our annual. It is difficult to express our deep appreciation to these two hard-working individuals.

We would also like to extend thanks to all of those who have donated of their time and effort in the making of this annual. Otto Schallerer's extra work on the student candida has made the coverage of the school events complete. Dianna Morris and Caroyn Crane are to be thanked for the beautiful job done on the cover. Again, a thanks to all.
