Williwaw Produces Excellence

Williwaw, the yearbook staff, has worked extremely hard with many diligent hours. The class was offered after school during seventh hour.

The staff did a variety of things including drawing the lay-outs, selling advertisements, writing copy, and preparing photos.

Mrs. Nancy Hudson, new at Kayhi, was the advisor. Mr. Jeff Fitzwater helped by providing the yearbook with many photos.

Photographers Work Hard

This year, the Photojournalism students worked extremely hard to take pictures for the yearbook, the school newspaper and other special requests. Without the assistance of this group, the yearbook could not have survived. Students also worked on other class and personal photography projects. Mrs. Nancy Hudson was the teacher.

I'm very proud to have been the Student Body Association for these last two years and would like to thank the advisor, Mrs. Evelyn Bullock, for her patience and Vice-President, Ty Walker, and Secretary, Laurie Pool for all of their support. The SBA members worked hard this year and deserve thanks.

Thank you,
Karen Yetka
SBA President

Students Display Leadership

Class officers for each class are elected by classmates each school year. The officers are in charge of leading class meetings and for organizing class activities and fund raisers. The classes sponsor such activities as school dances and concession sales at sports activities. Also, the Senior class held a Senior Carnival at the beginning of the school year. 1. The Senior Class Officers: Steve Hudson, Vice President, Craig Green, President and Kirk Wolf, Sec./Treas. The Sophomore Class Officers: Celina Buendia, President, Lori Tallman, Sec./Treas., and Sue Romero, Vice President. 3. Aviation Flies To New Heights

Directed by Mr. Dick Hamlin, this year's Aviation class worked hard studying techniques of ground school, interpreting weather maps, reading flight charts and practicing actual flying. Students were given an FAA exam so they could get their private pilot license. The group sold ice cream at lunch time in order to pay for the flying lessons.

Kayhitems Writes The News

Kayhitems produced a monthly Ketchikan High School newspaper. In the paper, they covered events happening either at the school or feature articles about what Kayhi students were doing. Each year they publish a special April Fools edition. Students also sold ads to local businesses which helped to pay for the printing costs. Bill Bolling was the editor and Mrs. Nancy Hudson, the advisor.

Debate Argues Issues

Debate is a class and a team sport in that a person debates in class and travels to other towns to debate other schools. The topic this year was Resolved: the federal government should employ all employable citizens living in poverty. The team debated in tournaments in Petersburg, Juneau and finally the state tournament in Anchorage. Each team of two students debates both sides of the topic each tournament. The debates are judged on logic, analysis of the topic, delivery, organization, techniques of rebuttle and cross-examination. Those that competed in state were: Carol Sue Busby, Celina Buendia, Steve Hudson, Will Halstead, Sacha Kotlarov, and Leslie Wood. Alternates were Kyle Packard and Stormi Pesterfield.

Tyron Walker receiving his first place metal for his Southeast 50 yard free race. This was also the record breaking race. 6. The Kayhi Girls' Swim Team posing with their second Southeast trophy. 7. James Kleinschmidt during diving warm-ups.

The 1984-85 Swim Team had a fantastic year with Tyron Walker breaking the Southeast 50 yard free style record and taking first in the Southeast 50 free, Carl Jaynes winning second in State at the 100 yard breast stroke, and James Kleinschmidt winning first in Southeast diving. The girls' team was second in Southeast and the boys third. Nine went to State competition—six swimmers and three divers. They were: Carolyn Walter, Scott Andrew, James Kleinschmidt (divers), Wendy Ness, Dawn Shapansky, Amy Goffinet, Jennifer Horne, Tyron Walker, and Carl Jaynes (swimmers). The team was coached for the first year by Mrs. Dru Hansen and she was assisted by Mr. Bruce McFadden.

Five Gymnasts Compete In State

The gymnastic team started off strong by beating Juneau in their first meet. However, because of eligibility problems, the overall outcome of the season was hurt. In Southeast competition, Julie Whiteman placed first in all-around and in all four events—balanced beam, uneven bars, floor exercise and vaulting. Wendy Mackie placed third in all around and was strong in the four events. Angela Nilles was a tough competitor all year. Lead by the team captain, Julie Whiteman, Wendy Mackie, Angela Nilles, Jill Nordtvedt and Jamie Minichella went to State competition in Anchorage. This year Kayhi did not bring home any State medals. However, the girls did well and were not intimidated by the competition. Coaching the gymnasts was Mrs. Tris Nausid. She was assisted by Mr. Doug Nausid.

The Cross Country Team was both large and successful for the 1984-85 year. There were outstanding efforts from individuals in Southeast ranking such as Sandy Thompson, 3rd, Kim Paulsen, 4th, Andrea Cusack, 7th, Kathy Tallman, 10th, Gary Philbrook, 2nd, Nick Thun, 4th, and Mike Cusack, 5th. They ranked out of 85 girls and 100 boys running in Southeast regional. At the State level, the boys placed 5th and the girls 7th. Gary Philbrook placed 11th, Nick Thun, 14th and Mike Cusack, 15th out of 130 runners.

Junior Varsity Boys Played Well

The Junior Varsity basketball team had a successful season finishing 14-7. Three of those losses were by one point! Alan Frank led the team in scoring with 235 points followed by Mike Cusack's 232 points. George Ohashi was the team leader at point guard with Andy Herrman and Wade McClennan rounding up the starting line up. Coaching the team was Mr. Brad Breen.

Freshmen Reveal Young Talent

The Freshmen Boys' Basketball team ended the season with a 9-12 record. The beginning of the year saw a very inexperienced group of players. As the season progressed, through much hard work and practice, the team showed great improvements. Kayhi definitely had some young talent. Kayhi hosted a Freshmen Invitational Tournament in December. Teams from Canada and Southeast Alaska participated in the two day event. Ron Greene was selected to the All-Tourney team. In January, Kayhi traveled to Canada to play in a tournament held in Prince Rupert. Through great playing, Ron Greene and Frank Cloudt were selected to the first team and second team All-Tourney squad respectively. Playing against older teams much of the time, Kayhi showed that it could battle with any team. As a whole, the Kayhi Frosh team had a good season and the upcoming years will find Kayhi having some very fine teams.

JV Girls Show Outstanding Future Promise

It was a banner year for the Kayhi Girls' JV Basketball. The team showed that they will be ready to fill the shoes of the Southeast Championship Kayhi Varsity team. A strong freshman class combined with several promising sophomores made for one of the toughest JV teams in Southeast. The girls swept Sitka in four straight games and lost only to Juneau in conference play.

Loti Tallman and Toni Hackney provided the backbone to this team. Tallman led the team in rebounds and Hackney proved to be an outstanding playmaker at the point guard position. Kathy Tallman, another freshman, proved to be an asset on the defensive and often was given the assignment to guard the opposing team's best inside player. Stacy Hall, Debi Olsen and Holly Leo showed outstanding promise as freshmen and will no doubt press for a varsity spot next year.

The girls have no major tournaments at the JV level as the main objective of the program is to gain experience for the Varsity level. Dan Ortiz was their coach.

Varsity Girls Show Who's Tops

Winning the Southeast Region "5" Championship had to be the most satisfying and thrilling victory of Ortiz's ten years coaching girls' basketball. To have the girls play so well in front of a packed gym and defeat a strong Juneau team was something that they had worked hard for. The 2,700 fans set a record in the state for attending a girls' game. It was an exciting year for the Kayhi girls' team as they posted a 24 win and 8 loss record. The team was rated in the state's top five all year long. The Kings had a solid front line with Daubersmith, Lockwood and Thomas doing the rebounding and scoring inside. Excellent shooting by Karen and Mae Peterson gave this team a good outside attack. Falco and Thompson were outstanding at defense. The team received strong support on the bench from Minnich, Tallman and Hackney. The team had outstanding athletic students who were a credit to their school, community and to the winning tradition of Kayhi basketball.

Southeast Attracts Crowd

The Southeast tournament, hosted by Kayhi, yielded a great deal of attendance. The Girls' Varsity team took first place in the 4A league. The team went on to compete in State, where they took fourth. The Boys' team came in third behind Juneau, who won the 4A, and Sitka, who took second. K-Hilites and the Varsity Cheerleaders were rated outstanding in their competition scoring.

1. Girls brought to light a winner. 2. Alumni joined for some fun. 3. Drill Team just scored outstanding in competition. 4. Stephanie Lockwood—"Look at that score." 5. Jim Blankenbeckler showed his skill. 6. And the crowd cheered on! 7. Girls tense at the bench. 8. Steve Hudson took a breather.

Varsity Boys' Basketball

The 1984-85 Varsity Boys Basketball team put forth a great deal of effort but had a tough season. Kayhi went into the S.E. Tournament in third place behind Juneau and Sitka for the second year. Lettering in Varsity Boys Basketball were Jim Blankenbeckler, Bob Boozer, Steve Hudson, Kyle Johansen, Chad Novak, Kris Pihl, and Kirk Wolf. Jim Blankenbeckler was named as Honorable Mention to the State All Tourney Team.

Varsity And JV Cheerleaders Support Kings

This year Kayhi's Varsity Cheerleaders showed top form and received a superior rating at Southeast Cheerleading competition. The squad cheered at girls and boys Varsity basketball, swimming and Varsity wrestling. They led a strong cheering section with precision cheers. All the cheerleaders were enrolled in oth period P.E. where they practiced daily. Mrs. Lori Albright and Mrs. Dena Conley were the advisors for both squads.

K-Hilites Rate Outstanding

This year brought a season of variety for the K-Hilites. They performed a novelty dance number under black lights, executed a sharp military drill, repeated their hoop routine from 84's competition and shook it up in a jazz dance routine. The girls traveled to Anchorage as guests of the school board at its annual state convention. For the fourth year, in tournament competition, the team scored a Superior rating. This routine, choreographed by Advisor Sherry Hewitt and Captains Kim Gilbert, Amy Bettisworth, Andrea Cusack, Bliss Campbell and Shelly Taylor, was a novelty dance in which the girls wore turn of the century bathing suits, emerged from bathing houses and used parasols as props. The K-Highlites had a successful season!

Volleyball Sets Up For A Great Year

It was a rebuilding year for the Kayhi Volleyball team. The Kings lost four of its starters from last year's State Consolation Championship team. Another set back for our team was the losses of Wendy Mackie and Kelly Judge. Both had leg injuries early in the season. This year's King team was led by last year's all-State player Amber Thomas. Thomas, who Coach Richard Ortiz considers the best player ever to come out of Southeast, was sought after by many top universities on the West coast. Outstanding all around player Sheila King also carried much of the load for this year's team. Rounding out this year's team were Donalee Minnich, Stephanie Lockwood, Kelli Green, Leslie Hansen, Lorraine Ludin, Tonya Hill, Jenny Beardsley and Cathy Praast. The team had been ranked second in the conference.

The 1985 Junior Varsity Volleyball team enjoyed a winning season this year, propelled by some of the best serving in the conference.

Highlights of the year were an all-Junior Varsity tournament at Klawock and the opportunity for one half of the team to compete with the Varsity team in the Southeast finals. The team was coached by Mr. Brad Breen.

1. "Ya, we bad." 2. "We're a team that sticks together." 3. Shelia Hollywood: "I've got it." 4. Shelia King waiting for the bump.

Track Team Makes Strides

LEFLAR

The 1985 Track season was hampered by poor weather but many fine performances over-shadowed this. Field events were shallow but had key people including Rhonda Palmer, Ripley Bryant, and Ted Glasser. Several veterans led the sprinting department while underclassmen and first year track participants added a strong dimension. Top point setters were Laura Beth Daubersmith and Brian Murphy. Injuries hampered the quality group of distance runners. Other top performers included Jim Hunt, Kim Paulson, and Will Halstead. The following students competed at the State level: Ripley Bryant, Ted Glasser, Rhonda Palmer, Laura Beth Daubersmith, Brian Murphy, Kim Paulsen, Jim Hunt, and Steve Sigler. Co-Coaching track were Mr. Brad Breen and Mr. Dan Ortiz. They were assisted by Mrs. Geri Downing.

Drama Performs Original Version

This Fall, the Drama Club, under the direction of Mrs. Barbara Knapp, did a brilliant job bringing to Ketchikan the Grimm's fairy tale, Snow White and the Seven Dwarfs. It was the original version which varied from Walt Disney's, which had adapted the plot and names to fit his animated version of Seven Dwarfs as we know them today. The performance was well presented and delighted the young and old alike.

Kayhi Hosts Shakespearean Festival

The final play of the year was a collection of scenes from several Shakespeare plays, including scenes from Romeo and Juliet, Taming of the Shrew, King Richard, Lovers' Quartet and others. This play, unlike most, differed because there was no set, just the bare stage and the troupe. The play followed a Shakespearean festival/Renaissance faire. The play went well and was considered one of the best Kayhi productions ever.

1. Court gossip. 2. "Come ... sit by me." Russell Wodehouse & Dee Weisert. 3. Kevin Sarber is Macbeth. 4. Karla Tallman, Nathan Hoff, Erica Schafer "... and you never clean up after the dog." 5. B.D. Loomis, R.A. Wodehouse, Dee Weisert: giving it the DEVO!

The Senior Prom was held on Saturday, May 11, 1985, in the beautifully decorated gymnasium at Kayhi. The theme was "We've got tonight."

1. Rob Bailey, Wendy Ness, Kyle Patterson, Chris Herrman and Bob Boozer having some laughs. 2. Janalee Minnich and Karl Fuller playing peek-a-boo. 3. Students dancing amidst the balloon decorations. 4. Sandy Thompson and Steve Hudson waiting for the goodies to be set out. 5. Theresa Slick and Greg Ohmer looking around in amazement. 6. Mandy Laurence and Rick Hennessey: "Ta Da, we're Seniors!"

1. Jim Blankenbeckler and Karen Williams looking a little tired.
2. Karla Tallman, Terry Moore and Erica Schaffer hitting a balloon.
3. Beci Haddix: "What can I say, Brandon?" 4. And they danced all evening.
5. Paige Martin: "C'mon Rusty, you can't quit dancing yet."

Departments Give Achievement Awards

SBA Holds Talent Show

SBA sponsored a Kayhi talent show and offered cash prizes for first through sixth prizes. There were ten participants including a teacher group who was not considered for the prize.

1. Brandon Loomis and Russel Wodehouse — 1st place for the "Odd Couple." 2. Jody Wodehouse, 5th place, doing his interpretation with his mouth of how the west was won. 3. Kelly Thynes and Ginger Garrison, 3rd place, performing a ballet dance. 4. Craig Green singing a solo, 4th place. 5. Becky Hadlax and Wendy Miles, 2nd place, in a silent skit of adventures of Buffy and Buffy. 6. Russ Wodehouse and Brandon Loomis, 6th place, in a musical presentation.

1. Mr. Cote of the faculty group singing "Wild Thing." 2. A rock band performance by "Intrance." 3. Larry Jackson feeding Nathan Hoff a raw egg. 4. Brett Munsey stringing at the guitar. 5. Scott Wedel sings lead. 6. Ginger Garrison displaying grace. 7. Freebird plays a tune.

Students Travel For New Experiences

The foreign exchange program has provided an opportunity for students to travel and spend a year in another country. The students are able to learn about other cultures and customs. The student lives in with a family from the town where they are assigned. Students do not choose the country they visit. They do, however, provide a priority list. Participating students and their families pay most of the expenses.

1. David Lesmond, visiting from Australia. 2. Ruy Neto, a senior from Brazil. 3. Kevin Sarber traveled to South Africa. 4. Tammy Burns also traveled to Africa but in a different location. 5. Ruy adds foreign talent and charisma to Kay-hi's swim team.

TV Class Produces Videos

TV Productions was offered for the first time at Kayhi. The students produced various video tapes ranging from documentaries to music videos. Mrs. Nancy Hudson was the instructor.

Fast Foods Class Prepares Lunch

A Fast Foods class was added this year to take the place of a hot lunch program. The class prepared hamburgers, burritos, french fries, taco salads, and hot dogs. Other foods were brought in from local businesses and sold. The Australia band students and their parents sold the food at lunch and used the profits toward their trip.

1. Marianne Barron and Trina McCamy preparing salads. 2. Mrs. Munch, teacher. 3. Bonnie Lauth frying fries. 4. Jerry Wacker preparing buns. 5. Trina McCamy. 6. Stacy Woods setting out the hamburger. 7. Sharon shaping hamburgers.

Senior Tea—A Delightful Occasion

Courtesy of Ketchikan Public Library and Ketchikan Museums

Each year, the female faculty and the junior girls sponsor a tea for the graduating senior girls and their mothers. This year, the tea was held at the Sons of Norway hall from 2:00-4:00 on Baccalaureate Sunday. It was a beautiful afternoon and was successful to the hard work of the staff and junior girls.

1. Senior girls waiting to sign the 1985 tablecloth which will be permanent and saved for other teas. 2. Tina Anderson and her mother. 3. Tabitha Gregory and Ginger Garrison enjoy conversation. 4. Bonnie Bartos and her mother. 5. Karen Williams: "Excuse me, I think I'm going to get more goodies." 6. Jeannie Neff and Karen Yetka reminiscing their Senior year.

Seniors Shape The Future

Baccalaureate was the Sunday before graduation. The majority of the class participated in the ceremony. Guest preacher was Father Don Bullock. The Kayhi Choir sang "Thy Will Be Done."

The Class of 1985 graduated 136 Seniors. At the ceremony, Andrea Cusack, Ginger Garrison, and Jenny Wisniewski, all Valedictorians, gave a speech on the unity and future of the class. Tabitha Gregory was the Salutatorian. Craig Green, Class President, sang "You'll Never Walk Alone" and gave a speech on behalf of the graduating Seniors.

After graduation, the Seniors met at the Gateway Club for an all night graduation party sponsored by the Seniors' parents. Mr. and Mrs. Hank Terpsma, owners of the Gateway Club, donated the club rental and the band, Mirage, from Seattle. Refreshments of soda pop, pizza and other snack foods were served. There were several door prizes donated by many of the local businesses.

Kayhi Displays Spirit

Spirit Week is an activity that Kayhi promotes each year. This year's week had five dress up days. The dress up themes were: Pajama day, Sweats Day, Hawaiian dress day, Nerd day, and New Wave. Students and faculty alike displayed their spirit by dressing up each day. It was a fun spirit-filled week.

1. The New Wave dress up group. 2. Steve Hudson, Sandy Thompson, Andrea Cusack and Kirk Wolf — fun in the sun, Ketchikan style. 3. Do you recognize this nerd as Tami Newell? 4. Mr. Jeff "New Wave" Fitzwater and counterpart, Sandy Thompson. 5. Beci Haddix, Madonnawannabe. 6. And this is Kayhi's group of Nerds.

Students Dress For Spirit Week

Courtesy of Ketchikan Public Library and Ketchikan Museums

1. Hawaiian fun in the halls of Kayhi. 2. Jamie Peratrovich: "Hey gang, do you think a little ole nerd like me will make a good Kayhi cheerleader?" 3. Julie Whiteman: "I hope he will be impressed with me." 4. Diane Bixby looking right in style. 5. Students leaving for their surfing class. 6. "Hey, we are New Wave." 7. Upperclassmen show their spirit without having to dress up! 8. Stacey Burgoyne thinks: "I wish that I really was in Hawaii."
