Building
Blocks
Towards
The Future

In life we find there are blocks to build.

Our goal is to stack them higher and higher.

And in our building there are obstacles we meet.

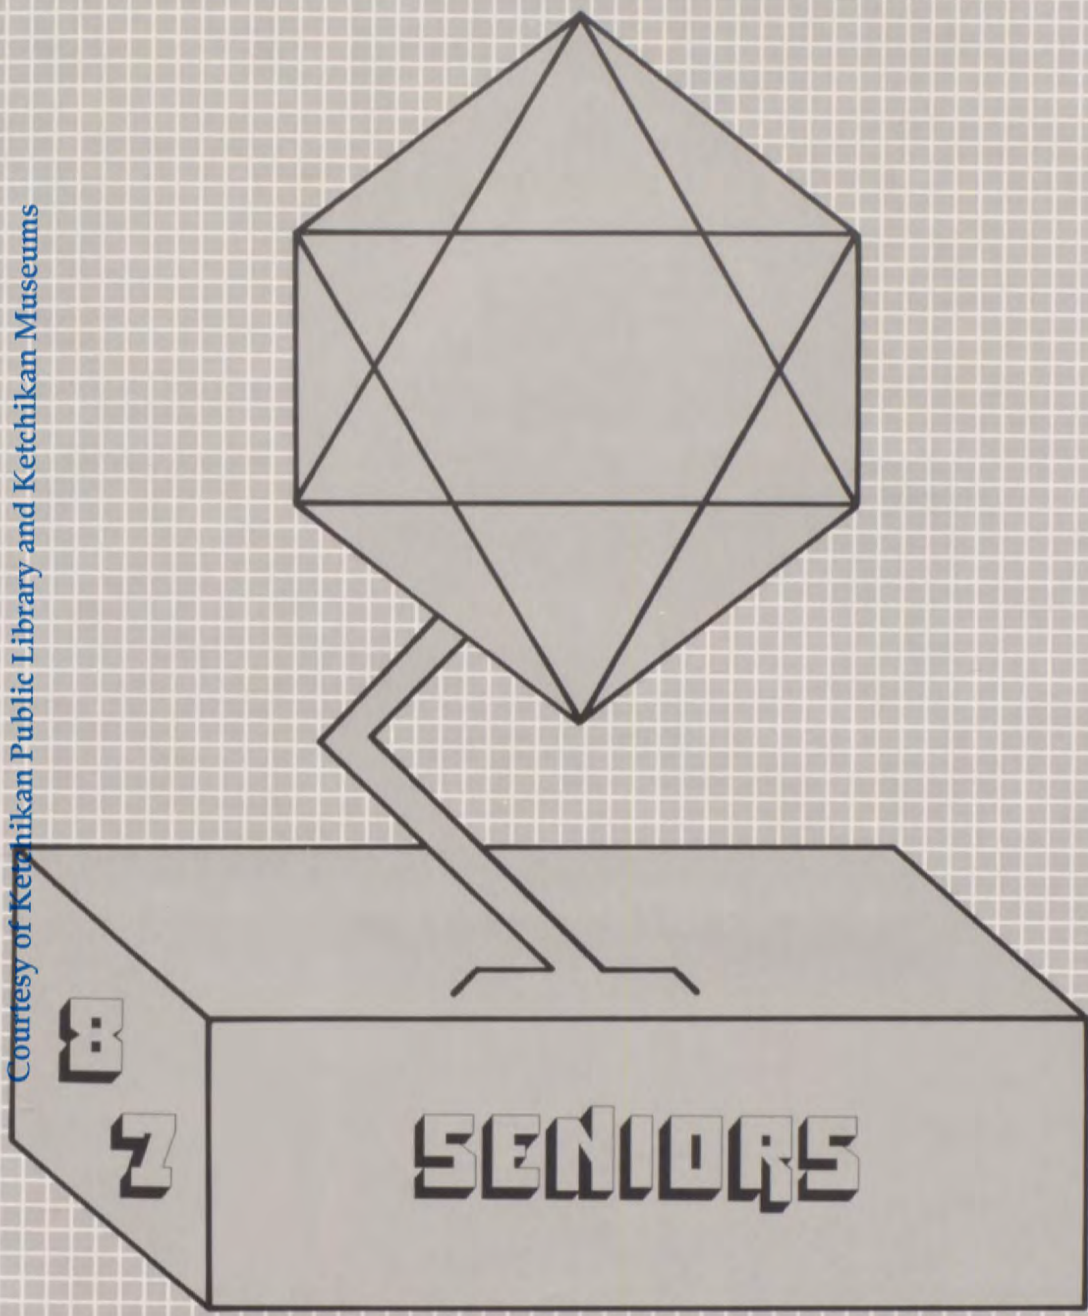

*Conquering them depends on the goal
you desire. —Scott J. McCrea*

*Kristy M. Emig:
Yesterday is a
memory, Tomorrow's
a dream, today's a Reality.*

*Lacie Feller:
Yesterday is a
memory, today, a reality, tomorrow
what we make of it.*

*O'Neal Fitzgerald: Never judge people
on their looks alone,
it's what counts deep
inside, some people know this but some don't.*

Newspaper Staff Makes Controversial Paper

AP-(Ketchikan) The newspaper staff survived (barely) a hectic year, crawling over lawsuits, libel suits, and 3-piece suits. Under the leadership of Scott McCrea (alias Milo P. Hackensorch) they put out a newspaper on an irregular basis that raised quite a few eyebrows around school. "A work of art! I loved the paper" (Scott's mom). "Truly marvelous McCrea is a genius!" (Siskel and Ebert) Sad to say, not many shared the same views as these critics did. Due to outside pressure, the young whippersnappers were forced to halt their risky humor.

Suzie Starr, known to some of us as Michelle Cotoner, had to resign from her job as the King's Courier famous gossip columnist, due to a move back to the Philippines. Even though she has only one article published during her employment here, she created enough excitement to fill up at least 3 ocean liners.

"I have seriously considered running off to the Philippines also," says ace troublemaker Milo. It probably wouldn't be a bad idea for the lad, who, due to his biting humor, has made the principal's office his second home.

Williwaw Works 'Round The Clock

Courtesy of Ketchikan Public Library and Ketchikan Museums

Unquestionably the best time I've had with out being arrested — SJM. She's got the jack — BS. The words of a prophet are written on the subway walls — SAH. Auntie Em, Auntie Em, there are crumbs in my cot — LJT. A yearbook is never completed until you're dead — MM. Once again I cut a worthless object — WCD. Live like James Bond ... Die like James Dean ... WCD. The Williwaw staff worked around the clock this year, staying as late as 5:50 am to try and meet the spring deadline for the first time in four years. Mark Merritt went beyond the call of duty as advisor, making the school his second home. The infamous late-night crew survived the ordeal by listening to Pink Floyd and playing b-ball in the gym at 2:30 am. Relief was brought with an occasional pizza and submarine sandwich thanks to honorary late-night crew member Jeff Fitzwater. 1. The 86-87 Williwaw staff. 2. KIBBLES-N-BITS KIBBLES-N-BITS MORE KIBBLES-N-BITS. 3. Sally Hauan — I want you all out of here by sundown. 4. Lori Tallman — I'd rather be watching the Waltons. 6. Sly Bry. 7. The members of Jazz Ensemble worked hard this year, giving up an extra hour of sleep so they could arrive for their 7:00 a.m. class every morning. Under the direction of Randy Bjur, this talented group of musicians produced a variety of music including swing, jazz, rock and ballad style musical selections.

Adults Work Cheap!

Senior carnival is the Senior class event during the year that truly involves the entire community. The Seniors play hosts to fun loving adults and thousands of children. As it turns out, the fun is also profitable. Carnival gives the Senior bank account a great boost. As the headline indicates, labor is cheap!

The Kayhi Drama Department relives moments of the late 1940's in GOODBYE, MY FANCY as college coeds welcome a liberal Congress-woman portrayed by Erica Schafer to her old school as an honorary visitor at the request of Bo Neff playing the spineless president with whom she had been in love for years. Reunited with roommate and staff, she faces reality with the help of LIFE photographer played by Jody Wodehouse and the president's sensitive daughter played by Stacy Lewis. Goaded by the sarcastic tongue of her secretary portrayed by Leslie Wood, the Congress-woman enlightens both students and staff while she pursues her own happiness.

Stage Crew

This years stage crew is an outstanding group of people who throughout the year have been very helpful in a number of ways. They help with the arranging of the many concerts and they set up props and sets for our theatrical events.

Debaters Bring On Victories

Courtesy of Ketchikan Public Library and Ketchikan Museums

The Debate team boosted a group of strong individuals from past years, plus some young members that should provide Kayhi with victories in years to come. At this time Kayhi has defeated all of its competition, and is traveling to Puyallup, Washington for a tournament. Top speakers have been Sue Romero, Dee Weisert, Jill Nortvedt, Leslie Wood, and Anna Massenburg.

1. Mike Mellison looking rather distinguished. 2. The infamous Mrs. Sande. 3. Nick Gucke—Go ahead, make my day. 4. Dawn Shapansky is all smiles. 5. Editor making a stupid caption.

Kings Knights Help Out

The Kings Knights is an organization of students that worked concessions, selling tickets, etc. during school activities. The help they provided on their own free time made basketball games and other activities more enjoyable to go to. Other duties performed by the students was keeping the gym floor clean and helping to clear the halls during fire drills.

1. The Kings Knights (back row) Joe Stevenson, Julie Slanaker, Ray Hendricks, Kevin Stump, Tim Kleinschmidt, Drew Transki, Joe Hendricks, Mick Wisnewski, (front row) Chris Latham, Renee Bauder, Danalyn Loitz, Kimberly Harrington, Suzanne McGee, Angela Nilles, Julie Simpson. 2. "No, Scott, this isn't tickets for the Van Halen concert." 3. Bill Munson slyly sneaks a $50 into his pocket. 4. Pat Olsen won't let anyone by until they give him a ticket.

The 1986 Cross-Country team proved to be one of the strongest in a long time. The boys, led by junior Phillip Nell, went undefeated in Southeast and at the S.E. championship in Sitka placed six runners in the top ten. At the state meet in Anchorage the team met defeat, placing 7th. The girls team suffered teamwise due to a shortage of runners, but had three strong individual runners led by senior Kim Paulsen. Paulsen went to state along with sophomore K.K. McGee and junior Cheri Gobble.

Gymnastics Team Carries On

Courtesy of Ketchikan Public Library and Ketchikan Museums

Due to budget cuts, the gymnastics program was unable to function as a school activity. However, thanks to the sponsoring by Parks and Recreation, they were still able to continue as an out of school club. Under the coaching of Bill Patton, a team of five girls went to Juneau for a meet. Those who went were Angela Niles, who placed second in all of her events, and Kate Pearson, Dawn Vandergriff, Becky English, and Mary Myerchin. The team was defeated, however, but were able to prove their abilities for a homecrowd during a tournament held here in Ketchikan.

In Memory Of

*John Mark Merritt
1961-1987*

On May 2, 1987, Mark Merritt, English, photo-journalism teacher and yearbook adviser here at Kayhi, was killed in a car accident near Ward Cove. His death was deeply grieved at Kayhi among students and faculty, as he was a teacher that was loved by all who knew him. To those of us in the yearbook staff, he was more than just a teacher — he was a close friend. Without him this yearbook would not be possible. With our love . . . God bless.

Dedicated to the memory of Mr. Mark Merritt ...

*I couldn't believe it when I heard the news,
Was it true, or a lie, I could not choose.*

*They say you were speeding, and lost control,
Your death then began to take its toll.*

*They pulled your body from the car,
Then it caught fire, and blew apart.*

*I drove out there, to see the place,
where God took you, up to grace.*

*On the road, death was spelled,
Imprints were there, where the car fell.*

*Tears drenched my cheeks as I thought of you,
Of how it happened, and my tension grew.*

"You'll be there on Monday, this is just a dream, Please come back," I frantically screamed.

*I pulled over, to the side of the road,
And looked on the street where the story was told.*

*There were red marks of where the car had betrayed,
And white chalk traced a figure, where your body had lain.*

*It was at that time, I knew it was true,
No longer would I walk in class and see you.*

*10 after 9 we'd all pile in,
Our faces filled with an innocent grin.*

*We knew we were late and this was the end,
For we did this day after day, again and again.*

*But we never got in trouble because we all knew,
Just the day before, you were late too.*

*Now I sit here in your classroom,
Surrounded by others filled with gloom.*

*You used to fill us all with a feeling of joy,
You brought much happiness to all girls and boys.*

*Time has stood still since the day that you died,
But it seems like forever that I have cried.*

*Now you are gone, and left me quite blue,
And all I can say is ... I miss you.*
