Check out our truckload o' hippies!

The Class of 2001 begins with the number one coolest senior float ever! This year's theme was Hippies of the 60's.

Peace! The other side is ready to start the party with this dove float. Bystanders were awestruck with the love radiating from these keen seniors!

Here are some awesome seniors having a groovy time on the senior float. Starting from the left: Elizabeth Schafer and Ellen Armstrong, Taylor McDonald and Niki Steffen, Jennifer Azure and Cynthia Crowl, and Tesia Dobrydnia and Michelle Trumble.

Goofy Ahna Gillet, after being stopped all day by the yearbook paparazzi, flashes another crazy smile our way.

Jesse Van Aart takes a moment to reflect on his first senior event.

THE PROCESSION OF KINGS: These seniors lead the class of 2001 in the Fourth of July Parade. Unless you're the leader of the pack, the view never changes.

Two Thousand One

Everyone has their own definition of hippie: Joey Fama, Richard Harney, Greg Slagle, and Richard McAlpin are all throw-backs from the sixties and Lowell Oposcolo is the vision of the modern hippie.

SUPERSTARS! Georgia Brown, Meghan Paulson and Ellen Armstrong model their favorite dime store finds...hippie shades!

--These flower children are lookin' pretty groovy in their hippie attire. Cambre Skaggs, Heidi Nash and Dollee Enright mug for the camera.

--Can you spot the irony in this picture? Jenessa Valentic, Meghan Paulson, and Jessica Kenyon try not to squint in the BRILLIANT Ketchikan sun.

--These peace-making chicks are lookin' keen: Alisa Gubatayao, Janae Thomas and Cynthia Crowl.

Peace-out dude- Richard McAlpin

Seniors Jill Walker, Katy Markiewicz, and Holly Temple prove they're bad to the bone by wearing such hip, rebellious clothing.

Seniors Sayers Mcalpin, Tesia Dobrydnia, and Michelle Trumble reveal the fashions of this generation of Kayhi students. Leather, shiny, glittery clothes and accessories are taking over, and these three show what the average Kayhi student may wear in four years.

Senior Brandon Nicholas follows the brand name fashion code strictly to keep up his good boy image and remain a girl magnet, while senior Greg Slagle shows his bad boy rebel side by expressing his anti-brand name duds concerning the source of the label trends.

Seniors Mandy Peters, Kelly Nausid, Chelsey Richardson, and Loren Joy Leonora pose for a picture to commemorate their triumphant march with the senior class on the Fourth of July. This picture looks like a blast from the past with the free love and peace these girls are displaying in their wardrobe.

Hard work leads to fun and games. Brandon Nicholas and Jesse Van Aart took advantage of this time and doused Georgia Brown and Ahna Gillet with mud! YUCK!

THE KING! This was Mr. Crockett's last year as a Wood Hog. He is joined by Georgia Brown, Ahna Gillet, Ellen Armstrong, Danette Kahle, Janae Thomas, Jamie Egner-Burns, Katie Sportsman, and Meghan Paulson.

It's a chipping spree! Jake Martin, Brandon Nicholas and Jesse Van Aart take a whack at it!

This looks like fun! Kyle Worman beats up on Chasina Haynes.

These are the Wood Hogs of 2001! You know who you are.

Boy does this look fun! Niki Steffen and Rich McAlpin love the mud! Woodhogs

Only a Senior

knows the feeling

Jody Fletcher thinks that when the time comes for reunions, "Not very many people will come because they won't be in Ketchikan anymore. Probably only 10% of our class will show."

Sara DeYoung thinks that her "Freshman year was the best" of her high school career because it was "really fun!"

"Freshman year was cool because I didn't really have to do anything. It was easy," says Peter Rowe.

John Hernandez wants "A trip out of this town or the state," for the perfect graduation gift.

"My favorite year in high school was my junior year because all of my friends were here," said Julie Guthrie.

Rochelle Leask would like "A 2001 blue Ford Explorer for graduation." We can all hope and wish for our 'dream graduation gift.'

Rachel Robecker said "I can't wait to get out of school. I definitely have senioritis." The days just can't go by fast enough for her!

DESIDERATA

Go placidly amid the noise and haste, and remember what peace there may be in silence.

As far as possible, without surrender be, on good terms with all persons.

Speak your truth quietly and clearly and listen to others, even the dull and the ignorant, for they too have their story.

Avoid loud and aggressive persons; they are vexations to the spirit.

If you compare yourself with others, you may become vain or bitter, for always there will be greater and lesser persons than yourself.
Enjoy your achievements as well as your plans. Keep interested in your own career, however humble; it is real possession in the changing fortunes of time.

Exercise caution in your business affairs, for the world is full of trickery, but let not this blind you to what virtue there is.

*Many persons strive for high ideals, and everywhere LIFE IS FULL OF HEROISM.

Be yourself. Especially, do not feign affection.

Neither be cynical about love, for in the face of all aridity and disenchantment, it is as perennial as the grass.

Take kindly the counsel of the years, gracefully surrendering the things of youth.

Nurture strength of spirit to shield you in sudden misfortune. But do not distress yourself with dark imaginings.

Many fears are born of fatigue and loneliness.

Beyond a wholesome discipline, be gentle with yourself.

You are a child of the universe, no less than the trees and the stars; you have a right to be here.

And whether or not it is clear to you, no doubt the universe is unfolding as it should.

Therefore, be at peace with God, whatever you conceive Him to be.

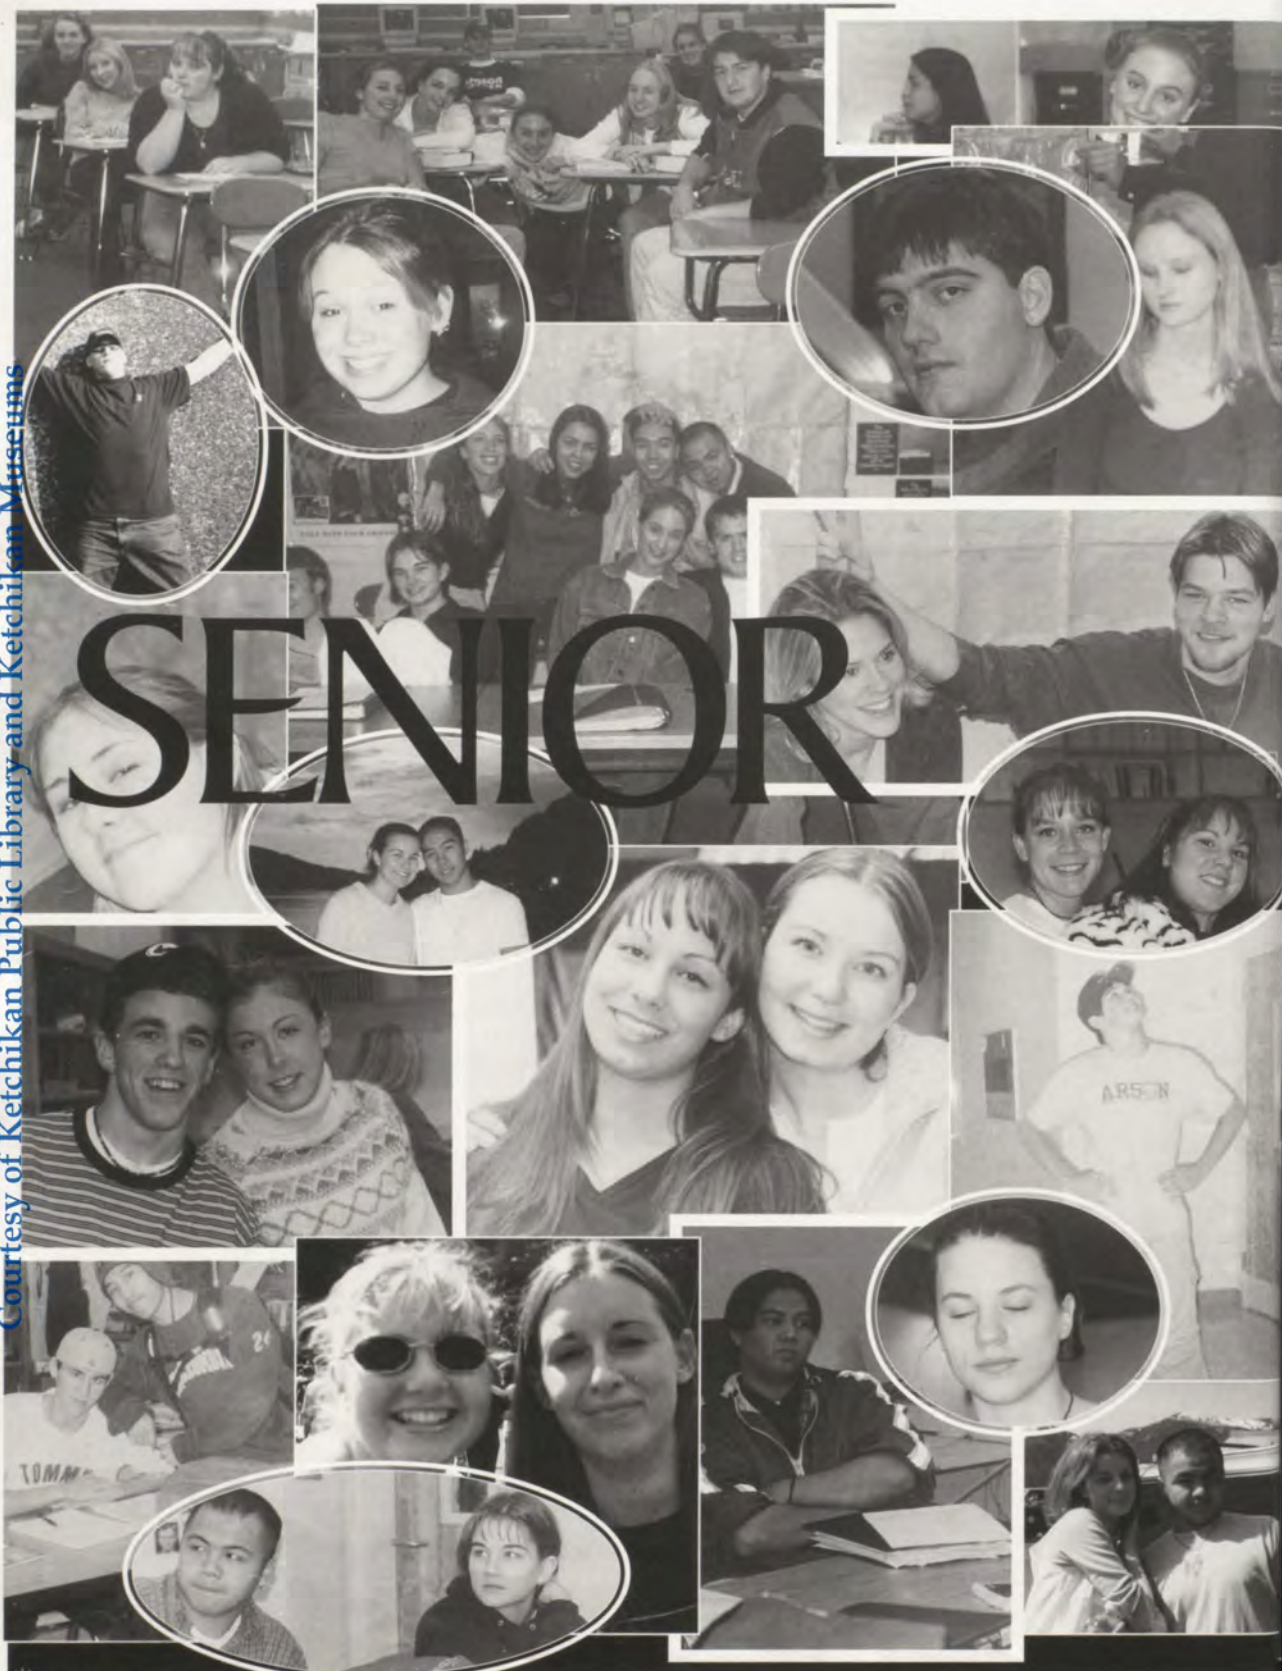

And whatever your labors and aspirations, in the noisy confusion of life--keep peace in your soul.

With all its shame, drudgery and broken dreams, it is still a beautiful world.

Be cheerful. Strive to be happy.

Things We Do...

Senior Brian Bergeron and sophomore Lindsey Bolling are havin' an extra fun time at a little get together. "I really like being funny on the weekends; it's lots of fun!" says Lindsay. She certainly has the look down!

Seniors (far left) Chasina Haynes and Tesia Dobrydnia participate as defense and prosecution attorneys in Ketchikan Youth Court, the new addition to Ketchikan's justice system.

Working at Carrs video/photo department, I have met a variety of interesting people and learned to speak up for myself. I work full time and always work the two to ten hour shifts. Working and going to school is really hard, but it is always fun to receive those little surprises while processing photos." -- Senior Amy Stepper seminary is a class that starts at 6:10 a.m. during the school year. This class is for the students that belong to the Latter Day Saints Church. I like this because it helps me learn."

-- Senior Stuart Mecham

"Coaching the Knightlites has been a fun experience. The girls are so sweet and we have lots of fun at practices. Hopefully by coaching we have benefitted the Kayhi dance team by giving the young girls a head start."

-- Senior Janessa Valentice

Senior Matthew Hanson, freshmen Taylor Gregg and Erica Broome participate in the Special Olympics State games in Anchorage, Alaska.

Sophomores Kelly McDonald, Kaelin Gillet, and Sarah Hollimon are involved in Ketchikan Theatre Ballet. They practice at least four times a week, every week. Lots of Exercise!!!!

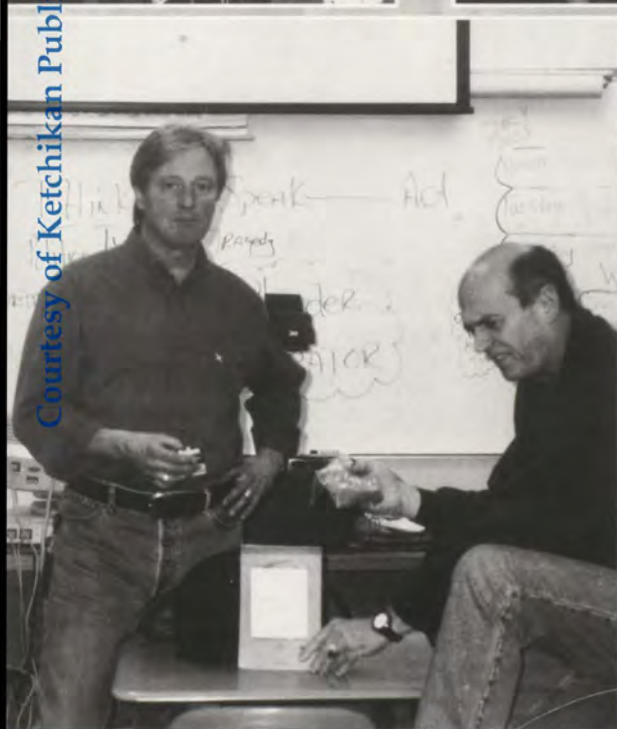

Things We Do...

Juniors Rachel Neterer and sophomore Celina Dobson are performing at the Saxman Tribal house. In McPherson's jazz band, the Windjammer.

"Lizzy and I try to workout five days a week at least. It is a fun activity and it gets me pumped. I want to be on the crew team when I go to college, so I need to really start practicing." --Senior Meghan Paulson

Seniors Lowell Oposcollo and Steve Edwards, sophomores Elisa Bolling and Chelsea Woodell are really getting into the N'Sync moves that Lowell is teaching them. Looks like they've got it down pretty well. Just one of the many things high schoolers do on weekends.

"I enjoy going to the Rec Center. I see hot chicks 24-7. I always see Lizzy Peters. I told the guys she must work out, 'haha'! I am awful at racquet ball, yet my audience is usually quite humored. With all that running around and the hot chicks everywhere, I'm suprised I don't just pass out!"

--Senior B.J. Sukert

Mr. Pennington and Mr. Crockett teach Kayhi seniors about the T.L.O. vs. New Jersey case, which defines the rules surrounding search and seizure at school. In this case a student was caught smoking and there were a variety of drugs in her purse with her cigarettes. The Supreme Court ruled she could be charged with possession of drugs, but because there was no warrant, there was reasonable suspicion. Quite interesting.

Kayhi Current Events

Courtesy of Ketchikan Public Library and Ketchikan Museums

Gross-Alaska Coliseum Twin Theatre has been open since the beginning of time and we are joyous to say it is finally moving into a bigger, better building located at three miles North Tongass conveniently next to the new Walmart. Many of us High School students are sad to see it go.

Walmart, bigger and badder than ever, now comes to Ketchikan. Opening February 2001, it will bring an increase in jobs and affordable quality products for the whole family.

Mum Yum! After a lifetime of having only McDonalds for our fast food needs, we finally have a Burger King. This new taste has become a favorite for satisfying Kayhi's hungry students during the short thirty minute lunch break.

Erika Van Slyke wins Miss Alaska Jr. National Teenager 2000 after winning the junior division of the state program in Anchorage in April. (More information on page 65.)

Mrs. Troina's wall of A's was abruptly put to an end with the governments institution of FERPA.

What do we think of FERPA?

"It doesn't really matter to me, but I do care when some people see my grades."

"I don't think it matters; I wouldn't judge or look at a person differently because of their grades. So what should it matter?" - Sophomore Meggie Isaia

"I personally have never seen anyone make fun of anyone else for their grades, and the fact that we have to use our student ID numbers on some papers makes me feel like we are all just numbers and we don't really matter. That kind of scares me and makes me wonder what the future of our education system will turn into." - Sophomore Heather Evoy

"People that do get bad grades know they do bad, and they usually don't care that much. People that do good want people to know they do good. I don't think FERPA is a good thing for those with a 3.0 and up." - Sophomore Kelsi Jones

"I think that people with D's and down should just be called up and the ones with good grades are fine, but the D students should be asked if they would like others to see." - Freshman Seain Kearney

"Right now it hasn't bothered me yet, and I haven't even really noticed any changes. It's just that now in some of my classes the teachers give us our homework answers everyday, so I like it." - Sophomore Kyle Hadland

Wind Ensemble plays harmonious music during their practices. They are eagerly awaiting their next concert.

The trumpet section of Wind Ensemble knows how to get the job done. They are playing quite quickly; look at those fingers fly!

Senior Will Stevenson is a top notch tuba player. He diligently practices daily. He knows how to "blow" away the audience.

Senior Jake Belfry and junior Mark Davey chill out in the band room. They are anxiously awaiting the moment when they step out onto the stage and perform for an eager audience.

Senior Matt Hanson likes band because "I get to go to Music Fest." In the spring, all of the music groups in South East Alaska meet together and perform. This year they are traveling to Juneau

Junior Chelsea Woodell plays percussion. This is an important part of Wind Ensemble; percussion adds character and makes the music they play much more lively.

"The Kings of Debate"

Junior Jesse Zaugg figures that these girls, Sarah Keene and Chasina Haynes, smile better than most guys, so he just lets them look at the camera.

BELOW: Juniors Andy Dupre and Jamillah Pitchford (and life-long best friends) share a few laughs as they know this year's debating will be a very stressful learning experience.

BELOW: Junior Jimmy Pike said, as he tries to debate the issue, "Wrestling is underrated... maybe I should join basketball instead."

"Fortune cookies, briefs and peeps hold a special place in every K-Town debater's heart!" says Alex Ortiz as he show how beautiful his paper is.

Standing at the podium, junior Sharon Maloney says, "This is my first year of debate. It's hard work, but a lot of fun!"

Sophomore Emily Brooks says, "Debate is good for both study and speaking skills. It can get really stressful, but it's really fun to travel, learn, and meet new people."

Sophomore Morgan Hein, when asked what lessons he's learned from participating in Debate, said, "Even though debate is hard work, it's lots of fun and it's good for the mind."

In the wise words of junior Jamillah Pitchford, "Debate is a common medium like none other. I've been debating people for 16 years, but now I'm forced to structure it."

Junior Sharon Maloney gives her "I'll take you down" look.

Even though Mrs. Sande spends the majority of her valuable time with her student debaters, she enjoys all the fun new experiences each new year brings.

Junior Emily Miller stops in the hallway to smile before she goes to do some hard work in ACDC.

Junior Darcy Bengaard, shown here with her barf-bag puppet, looks like she's having a fun time despite the hard work.

Looking like a pretty little girl with his adorable hair clips, here we have freshman Gavin Berkey.

Senior Brock Taylor looks shocked and relieved that working so hard still gives him the opportunity to smile.

Oh look! It's big, bad Mr. Powell! Doesn't he look serious? This amazing man voluntarily took on the job of coaching the Academic Decathlon team along with completing all of his normal teaching responsibilities. What a superman!

Junior Stephanie Woodruff and partner Anthony Martinez concentrate on their steps during one of their many dances. "It was hard learning the dances because I am usually not very coordinated."

Sophomore Alexis Schofield enjoyed the play < because it was "a good experience, a great way to meet people, and a lot of fun."

Sophomore Forrest McGillis surrounded by the rear-ends of the many Shapooopi dancers. Forrest says, "The Music Man was a great acting experience and I would definitely do it again."

I really like drama club. I like to travel with the team and perform in Juneau and Sitka. I joined because it gives me a chance to express myself through acting. I hope we get to do more plays this year.

The Royal & Inspiration

Juniors Darcy Bengaard, Erika VanSlyke and Tyler Davis give pep band one big thumb up.

Freshmen Allison Neterer, Tyler Cronk and Devin Hahne.

Freshman Laura Soderstrom plays her french horn like she's home on the range. But I don't think she'd fit in with the real cowgirls wearing a bright orange, plastic cowboy hat!

Junior Jay Miller thinks of pep band as just another opportunity to show your true identity.

Pep band drummer, junior Rachael Neterer, seems to be a bit camera shy. But she sure isn't shy when it's time to play Wild Thing!

Junior Tyler Davis has many talents, playing George of the Jungle with his cane is just one of them.

Junior Christine Montecillo is the only pep band member who is the same size as her instrument.

"I LOVE PEP BAND!" says sophomore Sarah Brandt-Erichson. Way to show your enthusiasm!

HEY PEP BAND, HOW DO YOU FEEL?

The Dreaded Senior Paper

No matter how many times Ms. Roppel and Mrs. Habberstad try to explain it to Mr. Walker, he just can't get it through his head that poetry and the senior paper don't mix.

Will Peterson, Holly Thompson, Ahna Gillet, Elizabeth Duncan and Tara Miller all discuss the interesting topics they are pursuing.

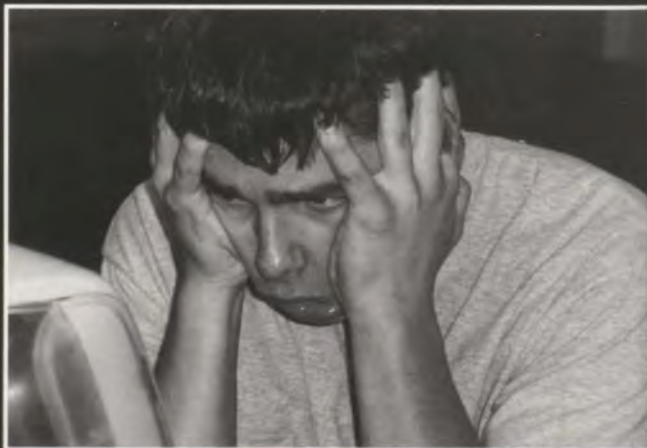

Chasina Haynes gets a head start by working away diligently on her senior paper.

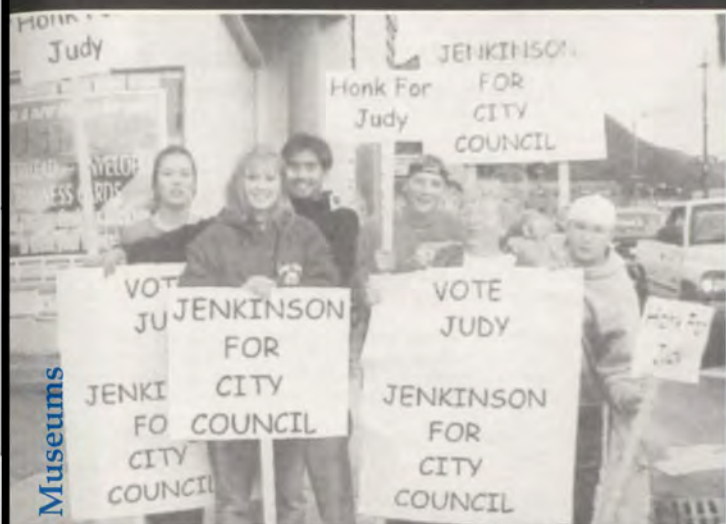

Jamie Egner-Burns and Katie Sullivan can't believe how easy the senior paper is once you get to work on it.

Jami Garrett, Crystal Womble, Chelsea Pfeifer, and Katie Corrao work the day away. The Senior research paper prepares us to go to college ready to write big college essays.

Some people get very stressed out during the senior paper work time, like Brian Leask, while others put up a front to hide the stress.

Patricia Mitchell, Aleisha Filyaw, Sayers McAlpin, Trent Birch, Judy Jenkinson, Marvin Nacionales, and Chris Campbell urge us to vote Judy Jenkinson for City Council.

Dollee Enright, Tara Miller, and Stuart Mecham all spend a lovely afternoon in the rain campaigning for Machado.

Seniors Lizzy Peters, Holly Thompson, Ellen Armstrong and Meghan Paulson get ready to go campaigning.

Matthew Hanson tells us to vote Choc Shafer for School Board.

Rico Martinez peaces out with Leah Cadiente.

Holly Thompson and Elizabeth Duncan help count and package brochures for Choc Schafer.

On the other hand, Chelsea Pfiefer says vote Machado for School Board.

This is definitely an election year we won't forget but we really don't want to. Everyone is sick of the words Chad, Gore, Bush, Electoral College, and Campaign 2000!

Exchange Students

Yaksuko Sawabu, Japan

Christin Schmidt, Germany

Georgia Brown, Australia

Bianca Nobanda, South Africa

What the 2000-2001 Exchange Students have to say about the country they visited:

Jesse Van Aart: "I spent my 10 months in La Victoria, Venezuela. I didn't live in a very nice part of the town, but I learned that the economy situation didn't really matter. I knew no Spanish, but learned to speak it fluently while I was there! I got to travel to the Amazon rainforest, Caribbean, and to Los Rios, Archipellages. I had an awesome time."

Georgia Brown: Georgia spent her year here in Ketchikan from Australia. "My exchange year of 2000 was the most amazing year of my life. I spent most of the year in Ketchikan, but I also got to travel throughout the U.S. "Alaska is a truly beautiful state."

Yaksuko Sawabu: Yaksuko arrived at the beginning of the 2000-2001 school year from Japan. "I really like being an exchange student."

Christin Schmidt: Christin is visiting us from Germany. She arrived a little after the school year started.

Bianca Nobanda: Bianca is visiting us from South Africa. She arrived in January and is happy to be here!

Britta Christensen, Peru

Niki Steffen, France

What the 2001-2002 Exchange Students think about the country they are visiting:

Niki Steffen: "France was my first choice. I'm really excited about going there because there hasn't been an exchange student from Ketchikan there in a long time! I'm also excited because it will give me a chance to see other parts of Europe."

Britta Christensen: "I am so excited that my assigned country is Peru! Being right below the equator in South America is going to be an awesome change. I can't wait to bask in the sun! It's going to be fantastic learning Spanish, being involved in Peru's culture, and meeting new people."

Jackie Jacobson: Jackie is the alternate for this year's exchanges. "I would love the chance to go on a Rotary Exchange because I believe that it would be the opportunity of a lifetime! I would be able to meet new acquaintances and be given ample opportunities to experience new things. The chance to get out of this rainy weather is something I can't pass up!"

Fit to Rule

Mr. Walker thinks it's his life goal to torture his students with the most homework ever! He must think he's the only teacher in the world!

Mrs. Habberstad knows how to make coffee nervous because she's so hyper! Her energy level is enormous! If Mrs. Habberstad could siphon her energy into a power drink, she'd make millions powering the nation!

The man who was on a first name basis with the police was Mr. Crockett! In high school, the students think he had the longest police record in history! Bad Mr. Crockett!

Ms. Fashion is Ms. Roppel. She belongs on a New York fashion runway rather than in the English department! She knows how to set trends and be the envy of everyone with her stylish clothes!

Mr. Kinunen and Ms. Kern are the wackiest teachers of Kayhli! What would we do without a bit of weirdness in high school?!!

The Drama Queens that rule the school are Mrs. Conley and Mrs. Woodruff! They belong on stage or in the movies!

For the second year running, Mrs. Hunt takes the award for the teacher giving the most homework! What's up with the English teachers and homework? They use about half a forest every class!

Wow! Mr. Ortiz is as busy as a beaver! He could probably run around the world in 24 hours with his energy level! Does this man ever sleep, or does he just keep busy all day?

Students think Mr. Collins was a trouble maker in high school. Did he really have a police record the length of Mr. Walker's arm?!

Mr. Mogen is the next Armanti! His stylish clothes make him the best dressed male teacher this year! He stole the spotlight from Mr. Bolling who used to know where to shop--now Mr. Mogen knows what makes him look good! What a trend setter!

Crazy Moments

Who said Kayhi teachers didn't know how to have fun?

"I'm a little teapot, short and stout! Here is my handle, here is my spout!" Mr. Ortiz is a little unsure of the actions, so he has to look to his co-workers, Mr. Maynard and Mr. Mogen for help. Goofy Mr. Crockett hides in the back-ground--he must be too cool to sing.

These peppy cheerleaders stole the Pep Assembly with their wild and crazy cheers! Mrs. Habberstad, Mrs. Troina, Ms. Roppel, Ms. Sande and Mrs. Karlik. Yea, Team!

Can you guess who this scary wrestler is? It is Ms. Roppel! She is showing the other teams who they should fear on the Kayhi wrestling team!

Teaching froshies and seniors is hard work! Mrs. Habberstad must not be getting enough zzz's at night, because she looks ready to yawn in this picture!

What would you do...

Right: Sophomore Lindsey Bolling agrees to put a plunger on her face for a Klondike Bar. Gross, even I wouldn't do that.

Freshman Nick Schenck has no problem with sitting in a garbage can, as long as he gets his Klondike bar.

Sophomore Karl Cox is a wild one; he agrees to pull the fire alarm just so he can enjoy the cold, creamy taste of a Klondike Bar.

Right: Sophomore Will Montgomery doesn't mind wearing his clothes backwards; in fact, he agreed to do it for the remainder of the school day when offered a Klondike Bar.

Left: Junior Marty Media must really love nature. Oh wait—I forgot! He's only making out with that tree (ala SNL's Mary Catherine Gallagher) to get a Klondike Bar.

Sophomore Jason Snook has a huge smile on his face while hanging upside-down from the boy's bathroom entrance. Anything for a Klondike Bar, huh, Jase!

Right: "Debbie, will you marry me?" asks senior Bret Bonine. Little does Debbie know, Bret is only asking her so he can get a Klondike Bar. Besides, she's already married, Bret!

Left: Senior Michelle Trumble is really hoping she doesn't get caught stealing one of Mr. Pennington's ties. How do you explain stealing a vice principal's tie to get a Klondike Bar?

"Lick the senior square? No problem!" says freshman Jennifer Sauca. "Just give me that Klondike Bar!"

Sophomore Tim Beynon announces he will sit in one of the glass display cases for a Klondike bar.

...for a Klondike Bar?

How do you eat a Reese's?

Senior Tesia Dobrydnia and sophomore Molly Edwards are good friends who love to share a Reese's.

Junior Savanah Stewart loves to eat her Reese's when she gets stressed from prepping for SAT and ACT tests.

Senior Loren Joy Leonora loves Reese's so much she is willing to beg for them.

Junior Zell Gadd doesn't want to get her hands all chocolatey, so she eats her Reese's with a spoon.

Courtesy of Ketchikan Public Library and Ketchikan Museums

Junior Tyler Davis is in such a hurry to eat his many Reese's as he can that he eats his Reese's two at once.

Sophomore Carlos Weimer impresses animals everywhere with his exquisite ability to eat a Reese's while balancing another on his nose.

Junior Amy Cleman likes to first remove all the chocolate from her Reese's before devouring the peanut butter.

Sophomore Tyeeasha Mitchell can gross anyone out by showing you what her Reese's looks like after it has been chewed.

Sophomore Will Bousley can not wait to savor the taste of his Reese's, so he hurriedly eats it—forgetting the wrapper!

Junior Lizzy Williams can help but eat her Reese's while haggagging upsidedown in the commons.

Junior Crystal Crayne eats her Reese's by twisting them like an Oreo and licking out the peanutbutter.

Sophomore Nick Buchanan won't share, so he hides in the bathroom to eat his Reese's.

Junior Trevor Wills will go to extremes for a Reese's, even as far as eating them out of the garbage can. Now that is love.

Senior Jami Garrett doesn't think of her Reese's as candy; she thinks of them as fashion accesories!

Freshman Ben Rosenfeld must have never been taught not to play with his food, because that is exactly what he does with his Reese's.

INDEX BY THE WILLIWAW CLASS, ORGANIZED BY BRIAN PEABODY

We would be remiss if we did not acknowledge the students who joined our staff at semester! Welcome to WILLIWAW and thank you for your contribution--sophomores Sarah Hollimon, Emily Brooks, Lindsey Bolling, Kelly McDonald, Kelsi Jones, and Brooke Orr.

To the rest of you who stuck it out for the whole year--Matt Hanson (Computer Man), Katie Sportsman (Editor), Chelsey Richardson (Copy Editor), Lizzy Peters (Personals Editor), Loren Joy Leonora (Business Editor), Tesia Dobrydnia, Savannah Stewart, Crystal Crane, Brian Peabody, and Charisse Seludo--THANK YOU! I appreciate you and all your hard work and sacrifice. You made my first year as an adviser well-worth all the stress! I'll especially miss my seniors (and teachers) next year. Good luck always!

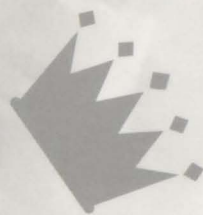

Mrs. Habberstad :)
