"So there we were in a four person tube. The weather was nice and the water was warm. The world was truly a good place. So again, there we were. Andy Otos was driving his boat at about one million miles per hour, and out from the tube flies Krissy Galaway followed by me. My butt smacked Krissy across the face and left her with a black eye. What a loser." Words of sophomore Elizabeth Jagusch while standing next to sophomore Krissy Galaway.

Memories...

Courtnie, Chelsea, and Sam will always be a part of our memories. They will live on in our hearts and never be forgotten.

In life we have our friends. They support us, they keep us, and are never forgotten. Our senior class is made of friends, people that we shall forever remember.

Each person who will be standing on the stage at the end of the year waiting for graduation will carry all that they have accomplished through the years. We will also bring Chelsea, Courtnie, and Sam who are forever present in our memories. We dedicate these pages to you, as we hold on to your strengths, your talents, and the gifts you gave us through your lives.

Sam:

"If you really want to be somebody, you don't have to be great, you only have to be good. Good people live by the golden rule, and in doing so they become somebody to everybody. So be good and be somebody."

Chelsea:

Confront boldness by if ill being more bold.

-unknown

Courtnie:

"Kind words can be short and easy to speak, but their echoes are truly endless."

-Mother Teresa

Blissfully ignorant
 I didn't want to know
 you told me with moistened cheeks
 if we pretend life is how it was?
 I comfort you
 I want to be held put on a smile and pretend to be strong don't want to think that anything's happened
 I hold it all inside
 it's been so long since I've cried
 why do I have to be so god-damned strong?
 pretend life is how it was

So we pass each other in a hallway, somewhere
 both struggling to smile tried to forget what happened
 it didn't work
 nothing will be the same anymore
 there's always something missing
 a void, and an empty chair

haunting memories return creeping in and out of inanimate objects
 reminding me ...
 ... that life isn't how it was life will never be the same

by Gianna Willard

The Sun

Rolling over the hills, creeping up behind the dark.
Waiting to light your day,
so there is no doubt.
To fill and light the dark side,
and make your day more bright.
to make you feel all warm
and fuzzy, inside.

Cheleea...
Loved Life.
Always had a smile and a spot in her heart for everyone.
Had a great sense of humor.
Kept a daily 'To Do' list.
8 said, "Be nice."
Loved unconditionally.
..."Was every father's daughter."
Never said a bad word
about anyone.
Loved her family with all her heart.
Touched our lives in a special way.

Courtnie's Prayer

In the light of morning
Through the softly falling rain
I walk through loss and sorrow
And wonder when the sun
Shall shine again

In the light of morning
When at the break of day
As the breeze caresses my heartache
I hear your gentle Spirit whisper sweetly
On the wind

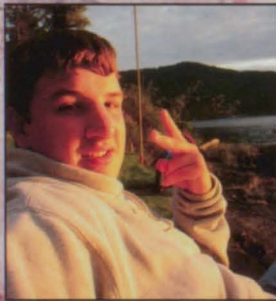

In the light of morning
Through the misty shoreline's dance
I stand awash in memory
And feel the warmth of your Spirit
Offer comfort from afar

In the light of morning
And through the eventide
As our fragile ships reach safe harbor
I know your loving Spirit will carry us
Through tomorrow

-You will always be loved and remembered, dear Courtnie

Your teacher,
Mrs. Bowlen

Forever Young

Trapped in the glorious years
Within the memory of belief, lost of all grief.
Take the reasons, which once seemed so clear
But never mind, you have nothing to fear.
For you my friend will be, forever young.
Forever in the hearts of memories.
Lost in the glory of all time.
The wisdom was there within that smile,
You see you could have told us, there within Lies the mystery.
So shed a smile, and grin a tear
For you my friend, will be,
Forever young, Forever young,
Forever in the heart of memory,
We see not through our misery.
Forever young, forever young.
There is a new angel tonight.

Coaches Blaine Ashcraft and Richard Cropp

These two pictures are of Kayhi on a winning spree! It's been five years since we actually won a game against Juneau Douglas High School. Our time has come!

Kayhi Kings in San Diego

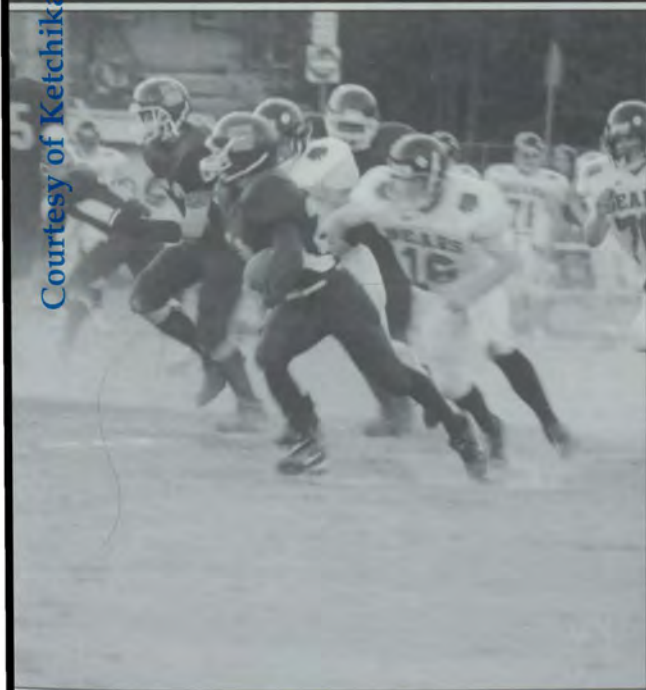

These pictures are from Kayhi's trip down to San Diego, California. They did a lot things besides just play football. They went to a Sea World's game with the players of the San Diego team that they played against down there. We had to know the players that we were playing against a little better by going to the line with them. Junior Boyd Runnion says, "I think I speak for the team, when I say that this trip was awesome and the game went well to. Also, we can't wait till next year."

Above: Our Kayhi King Football players relax in the shade as they wait for the game later that day.

Far Left: This is the game against the Juneau Douglas Crimson Bears. Kayhi smashed them into the ground! It looks like they will no longer be able to beat the Kings in any sport including football! Look at Junior Rick Grams go! Juneau Bears eat his dust! Rick earns some yards for Kayhi Kings.

POM

This routine is full of high energy and sharp movement. These girls learned this routine at the All-Star Summer Dance Camp that came up here on August 27-30 of 2004. This routine is mixed with some rock and some old school hip hop songs. The combination of both makes the drill more exciting and original than the rest.

COWBOY

"Ride'em Cowgirl" This year, the Drill Team has decided to bring back last year's Southeast tournament routine. Last year, the girls recieved an "excellent" rating in Sitka. This drill has cowboy hats, jump ropes and boxes they use to dance with in this entire drill. The girls worked really hard on this awesome drill and wowed the crowd when they showed it off.

HIP HOP

This hip hop drill is by far one of the most exciting drills the girls have come up with this year. Full of awesome hip hop moves and some original choreography, this drill has more popular music, like Fat Jo's "Lean Back" and Destiny's Child's "Lose My Breath." The girls put their own personality on the floor to give this routine more "Flaval"

DIZZY

This year's Southeast Tournament Routine theme is "Dizzy." The girls will spin out of control in Juneau and show off their awesome talent. The girls won't act dazed and confused up in Juneau because the girls know that they will get the Superior rating they have been waiting for. The girls will spin circles around the competition.

Above: The girls wait in "Ready Position" for their favorite music to start playing.

Courtesy of Ketchikan Public Library and Ketchikan Museums

Senior Bonniebell Nacionales: "I'm really sad it's my last year. Drill team has been so fun! I'm gonna miss all the dancing, performing and all the team bonding."

Senior Tiffany Alba: "I've been on the team for three and a half years... It's been real fun. I really love to dance. The girls on the team are great! I'm really sad that it's my last year."

Senior Dawn Reno: "Being on drill team for all four years has been really fun. Anyone who likes to dance should at least try out next year. You won't regret it. It's sad that it's my last year. I'm going to miss everyone, performing, and of course all the apes! Killer!! I hope that the team next year has a good year and takes home a SUPERIOR!! I'll miss you guys!"

Laura West, grade: 11
"We've been through many wins and losses, but no matter what the ending result, we'll always be a team."

Jamie Edwardson, grade: 10
"When you want what you never had, you must do what you have never done."

Crystal Reno, grade: 10
"I remember when I went 1 on 1 with Kelsy Griffin, an All American, and took it to the hoop and scored 2 pts."

Irene Pihang, grade: 10

Karin Voetberg, grade: 10
"My favorite part about basketball this year was hangin in a cove on the 16 hour ferry ride to Canada while we had team bonding in the bathroom."

Marta Geldaker, grade: 9
"The best thing about basketball this year is getting experience and getting to play with my sister."

From Left to right: Senior Kyle Howe and juniors Josh Boyd, Braedon Marrs and Corey Howe flex their big muscles for the camera. Just another sunny day in Ketchikan.

Senior Ryan Hendricks and sophomores Ryan Simpson and Cole White show off their "gangsta" poses that they have been working on day and night.

Senior William Klein gives the thumbs up while learning so much in Mr. Bohling's American Government class.

Junior Thomas Montgomery is excited that the McDonald's Monopoly game peices are back. He can't wait to win some money!

Seniors Andy Dimmore and Mike Jepson play pool in Ms. Fowlen's English class.

Juniors Alejandro Chavarria, Nelson Hays, Devin Klose, Connor Pihl, and Arne Tollfeldt are hanging out at lunch.

Seniors Slade Stockli, Tory Edmondson, Casey Bass, and Brandon Bahnsen hang out during lunch in the commons.

Scoutmaster Sam McDonald and Mr. McDonald makes funny faces while holding up a Yankee's baseball jersey.

Junior Rena Gabor "accidentally" falls asleep in Biology class. Wake up Rena!

Seniors Amanda, Ashley, Reed, and Haley Farrah all look hot with their stylish foil hats.

Senior

"David Graham, Joyann Cameros, and Nico and I had gone to the Pioneer Pantry and David had never been there before and he asked where the bathrooms were, so I pointed down to the corner of the building. He started walking down towards the cook, right pass the waitress. The waitress just stood there watching and didn't say anything. He got all the way down to the cook when everyone started laughing. He then realized that he was going to the wrong corner!"

Sara Schroeder

Kevin Mackey

"Ok, there I was walking down Sophmore Hall behind my bestfriend "Coz". This totally hot chick was like totally all over him, and I wasn't down with that. So I decided to claim my turf. Covertly from behind the water-fountain I sneak up behind "Coz", grab his pantalouns and give a slight tug. All I can remember from that point on are flashes. "Coz" was totally startled, and in an attempt to pull his pants back up, he missed and hit my face. Well my plan went through without a hitch, and to this day, no girls have messed with my friend. We both have matching scars, one on my face and one on his fist."

Caitlin Stewart

"During my Sophmore year I had all of my wisdom teeth taken out. I stayed home for a week and had huge "chipmunnk cheeks". I came back to school drugged up on percocet and was feeling pretty dizzy. I flew across my Biology class and was giggling because everything seemed funny. I couldn't walk down the hall and all the teachers were concerned, so I got sent back home that day!"

"On a sports trip in Washington, Iain Brown and I were housed together. One morning at like six a.m. Iain woke me up and told me to look at the huge goats outside. I woke up and saw the biggest goats I've ever seen. We went downstairs and told the lady that she had some huge goats in her backyard and she looked at us and started laughing and said "Those aren't goats. We have a llama farm!"

Brian Brown

Michelle Meredith

"I was hanging out with some friends and we were talking about Hannah Martin and how she had become too much of a "good girl". We dared her to "get" a pumpkin from Carrs and throw it off the cliff near the police station and she did it! Go Hannah!"

"So anyway, it was Freshman year. There was three of us, fully clothed. Some how Brandon Maxwell, William Klein and myself had gotten the idea to steal hoses, yeah garden hoses. So we had about fifteen of them piled up in Jarrad Fudge's front lawn and we're coming up the hill with four more when the three police that lived on that street had a shift change and all intersected at the same intersection. The joke was up, the man had thwarted our plan!"

Memories

Clay Hanson

"At soccer practice one time we were doing this one drill. There was this little girl who was helping get all the balls for us, she was running around and at the same time it was Nick Belfry's turn to kick. Nick kicked the ball and it went over the net, hit the girl and knocked her over."

"One time for basketball the C Team went to Prince of Whales for a weekend. Eric Joy Demmer's aunt housed me, Rachel Johnson, and Rhanna Zastrow. I don't know what started it but we started talking about Koolhaas and we decided to go look for some. We walked to this park and it looked really scary, none of us wanted to walk alone. The next day we went back there and it looked not scary at all, just some big open space"

K.C. Greenup

"During one of my drill team performances part of our routine had the song "Let The Bodies Hit The Floor". We had to do this one trick where we would catch ourselves and then lay on our backs. Well, I guess I forgot to catch myself and I literally let my body hit the floor!"

"When I was a Sophomore we had a Pep-Assembly at the beginning of the year. I think this might have been the best one ever. Ryan Sever got pulled out of the crowd for a "Kariyoki Showdown". Ryan got the song "Barbie Girl". They gave him note cards with the lyrics. But he didn't need them, he put them down and sung the entire song by heart!"

Ryan Hendricks

Rhianna Zastrow

"My Junior year I was sitting in Algebra Two. I sat in the front of the class, and you pretty much notice everything. One day we had a sub and he kept walking in front of my table. His fly was unzipped and my whole class noticed too. Caitlin Stewart and I decided to say something though because we couldn't help but notice, and he was right in front of us! We said something and the whole class made fun of us, acting like they didn't notice."

"My favorite memory was on a snow day my Junior year. I had a Geo Prizm then and we tried to stuff a bunch of people into my car. We were speeding down the hill trying to get the green light and I took a sharp turn to avoid bumps. My tire went flat and everyone started freaking out and acting like we were going to die. We had to push my car a little ways and we pushed a bunch of other people's cars too that day so we got the nick name "Snow Angels"."

Tiffany Alba

Casey Bass and Charles Altman

I will always remember last year, after the first basketball game verses Juneau, everyone was wearing camo and Brandon Pahang and I were hanging out. He was caring his camouflage jacket on his shoulder and he pointed to it and said, "No one can see me because I am camouflage and I make the rules. No one can see me except you guys."

Jared Azure

I will always remember that on a soccer trip to Anchorage last year, Jason Pfeifer made some cookies, but in them were two squares of ex-lax in each cookie, which is twice the amount you should have. Any who, Spencer Round, being the glutton he is, learned a valuable lesson that day. He grabbed five cookies and stuffed his face in them. About two hours later, we had to go to our game. He was using the potty and thought he needed to let some gas out, but got a nasty surprise instead.

Andy Dinamore

I will always remember last year in my English class when Kirsten Filyaw and myself were eating chocolate covered coffee beans, while this other kid, we'll just call him "Stupid Carl" anyways, Carl comes up to Kirsten and I and says, "How can you stand eating those things" and I replied, "I believe it's more of an acquired taste." "OK," he exclaimed. So a while later, he came back and asked us, "Why do they put coffee in beans anyways?..." Enough said.

Contessa Pahang

I will always remember when Eugene Doyon was over at Boyd's house and he was trying to catch a mosquito that was in the room. Well there was this ceiling fan that was really low, maybe about 5 inches away from people's heads and the bug was right above it. Anyways Eugene almost caught the bug, but the fan got the way. The fan hit him in the face and knocked him over straight on his back. Everyone was laughing at him. He even broke the fan.

Patrick Troll

I will always remember when George Bush got re-elected. NOT!

Beau Dale and Corey Howe

I will always remember this one day at lunch Corey and I were visting our friend Bertha. We were walking back to the school and Corey found 5 bucks in the parking lot after I walked dazed and confused right by it. Some kid walked past us and told us he lost five bucks in the parking lot, but we said we didn't see anything. Then we hit up the vending machine.

Brian Taro

I will always remember when Casey Bass, Irene Pahang, Sarah Harpold, Raquelle Pahang and I had just got done eating at Pioneer Pantry and well Raquelle started to run over to her car and fell hard on her face. Casey and I were laughing so hard we started crying.

Natalie Pfeifer

I will always remember this one weekend when my brother, Alex Zinger and I went to go pick up my brother's car at the mall and we found his car parked one inch away from Nick Radler's car. My brother got worried that he hit his car when trying to pull out of his spot, so he called the cops. Later they got in touch with Nick and he said it was just a joke, however, later that night at Cheyan house, Alex and Jason's tires got deflated....hum?

Will Always Remember... I Will Always

Leanna West

I will always remember when Ashleigh Krantz got milk poured on her head in the cafeteria by Roni in eighth grade and in return Ashleigh threw a cheese burger at her!

Moriah Marsh

I will always remember my cool Freshmen class and how we were too messy to eat in our hall!

William Klein

I will always remember when Jacky Tan got pantsed in the middle of Freshmen hall, showing me far more Jacky then I'd ever wanted to see.

Bailey Singstad

I will always remember Kaitlyn Porter and her stunning beauty. It amazes me day by day.

Mr. Pennington
I will always remember....wait
I'm too old to remember!

Sarah Harpold

I'll always remember when I was on a soccer trip in Kitimat, Canada with my friend Erika Pearce. It was early in the afternoon and we had to walk to the field. Well, there were no sidewalks, so we were walking in between the street and a big ditch and to top it all off the sun was in our eyes so we were looking down. We were about halfway there then BAM! I ran straight into a road sign, fell down and almost fell into the ditch and Erika fell to the ground laughing...ahhh the good times.

Irene Pahang

I will always remember this one day when Karin Voetberg, Jamie Edwardson and I were strolling through the aisles of Carrs, well more like running, and we were kicking these little "Sale" signs as we went. We passed by one particularly high sign, so Jamie thought she could kick it, and she tried and BAM! Next thing I knew she's flat on her back. Guess we didn't notice the "wet floor" sign.

Hilary Goucher

I will always remember one day when I decided to take the school elevator and what do ya know, I get stuck in it with Junior Nick Galloway. We ended up calling up the Fire Department to come bail us out, and ended up being in there for an hour. It was hot!

Justin Breiner

I will always remember running the spotlights with Frances Klein at the Paul Revere and the Raiders Concert.

Devin Klose

I will always remember this one normal day when we were all sitting at lunch, plotting what to do next. All of a sudden, Pat Troll jumps up and runs for the door screaming, "Gotta Go!" He ran smack dab into the bar. I've never laughed so hard in my life

Bonnie Nacionales

I will always remember Southeast Regionals here in Sophomore year. It was so crazy, frustrating, but fun at the same time.

Jennifer Strassel

I will always remember the last day of school my sophomore year when a bunch of us decided to take our boats and innertubes out north. Anton and Mitch Potter were driving my boat and I was on a jet ski with Alan Dale. We were all just hitting waves when suddenly Mitch decided to run over us. We almost died!

Remember... I Will Always Remember...

Emily Eichner and Amber Kammeyer

I will always remember this one day in culinary 2, we were slicing bread for hot dog buns and Emily sliced her finger open. It was just dangling there by a few threads, so Amber raced to get a big red first aid kit. She sewed it back on, just in time. Then we both had some soup.

Jarrad Fudge

I will always remember this one time at a baseball tailgate party my Junior year, Kevin Mackey was whining about being hungry, so after his hunger overcame his laziness he decided to jump the fence and go to the concessions stand. While jumping the fence he racked his jewels and fell off the fence. As he layed there in pain, all the guys and girls laughed at him. Unbeknownst to him, he had ripped his pants and was totally exposed.

Jessie Houtcooper

I will always remember the day when one of my friends was skipping class and I physically pulled her into my class and she fell down on the floor and found out it wasn't even the right class room. The class got a kick out of it.

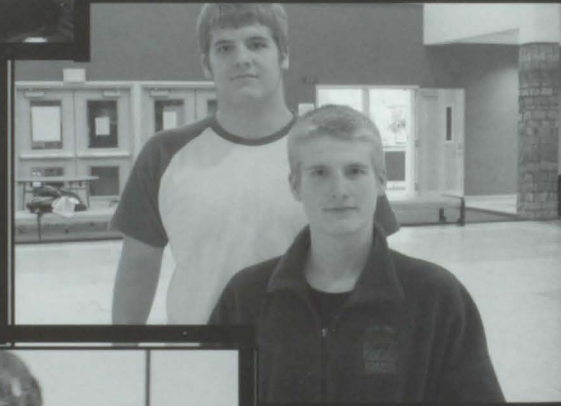

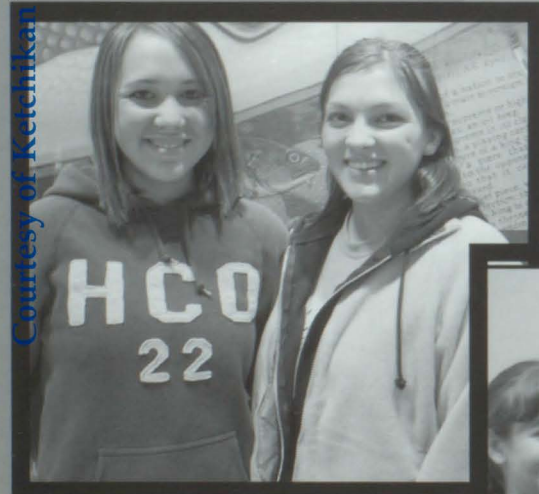

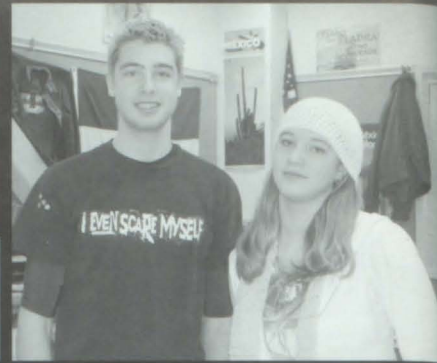

Nick Belfry

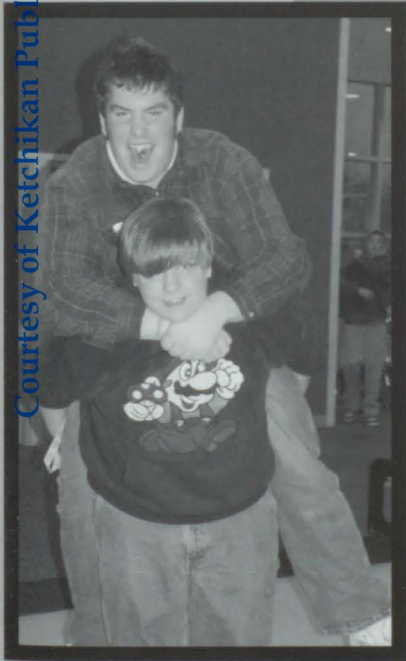

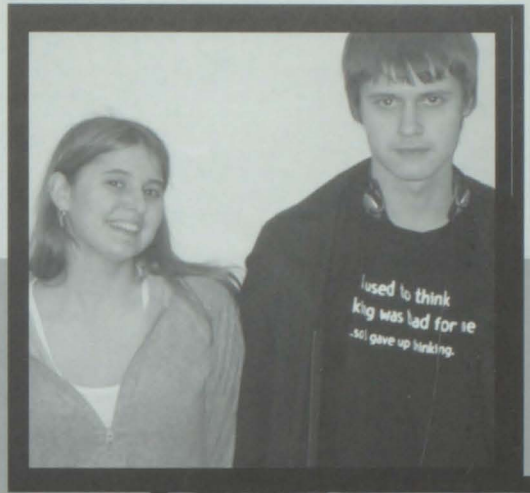

I will always remember this one time at soccer practice when I accidentally kicked a ball over the goal post and behind it was some little kids running around having a good all time and well the ball arched over the goal and nailed a little girl in the head as we all watched with disbelief. Flipping head over heels, she hit the ground with a thud and didn't move or cry. I ran over, thinking I had killed her, to help her. She got up and ran away crying. That was the high point of my soccer career.

WILLIWA

I Will Always Remember

This year, Williwaw has gone digital in their photography and their page making is now internet based. They can submit their pages as easy as sending a regular email. Instead of cropping their pictures manually, all they have to do is upload them on the web and click to zoom in or out to get the picture the way you want it. This year's staff members are: Junior Jared Azure, Sophomore Chelsea Rogge, Junior Leanna West, Sophomore Aimee McClory, Junior Boyd Runnion, Junior Contessa Pahang, Senior Alex Zinger, Senior Adrian Goodwin, Sophomore Jessica Inouye, Senior Rhianna Zastrow, Senior Nick Belfry, and Junior Britney Hoyt

Left: Seniors Nick Belfry, Rhianna Zastrow and Sophomore Chelsea Rogge are concentrating mightly hard on what to do with their pages to make them better and perfect.

Right: What are Junior Jared Azure, Senior Adrian Goodwin, and Sophomore Chelsea Rogge doing? These guys are just a few of the wacky yearbook staff that they have in class.

Junior Jared Azure
"I'm a little bitter that eight 'griggin' people made the whole yearbook, so all you 'lazy' people out there... JOIN, so I dont have to make this yearbook all by myself for you."

Sophomore Chelsea Rogge
"Yearbook is one of the best classes for all you people who want to create something pretty awesome. That's why I like it."

Junior Leanna West
"Being in a class where I can use my creativity is a lot of fun! I also liked working with everyone in my class, they're all great students!"

Sophomore Aimee McClory
"Yearbook was awesome! I had a lot of fun in this class."

Junior Boyd Runnion
"Yearbook was fun."

Second Semester Yearbook Students

"Yearbook was great. I've only really been in it for a month, but its really fun!"

Senior
Nick Belfry

2004-2005 Yearbook Staff

Junior Contessa Pahang
"Yearbook was a lot of fun this year. I had a lot of fun being this year's editor. It was a lot of hard work. It was hard having about seven students in the class first semester, but I was really impressed with how much work we all accomplished with this small of class and having to learn a new program that we never used before. It was a new experience for me."

Senior Alexander Zinger
"This is a very interesting class which allows students to take an active role in the preparation and production of the yearbook. The class really taught me a lot not only about graphic and visual arts but also about working independently, and meeting deadlines. I recommend this class to everyone."

Senior Adrian Goodwin
"It has been a lot of work, but I really enjoyed working on the yearbook this year."

Senior Rhianna Zastrow
"Yearbook rocked this year. I had a lot of fun taking pictures of friends and people I have never met before. I don't think there was ever a dull moment with the staff."

Sophomore Jessica Inouye
"Yearbook was definitely fun, but a little stressful with all the deadlines. I really learned a lot too. And having Mrs. Bates as a teacher was really cool! Thanks Mrs. Bates!"

October 15 through the 17th, approximately 25 High School students gathered for the weekend the Silverking Lodge on Grant Island to develop and improve leadership skills. Participants learned from keynotes given by local Russell Thomas and International motivational speaker Javier Sanchez from Youth to Youth, Columbus, Ohio. Students participated in fun, challenging activities and made new lasting friendships. The congerence was free of charge to the participants and was funded by PATCHWORKS, KIC, KGBSD & Alaska ICE.

Traveling from Germany

I am so happy that I came to Ketchikan! I love it here, this is the best place in the world. I wouldn't want to change it with any other place. I met the nicest people here, everybody had their arms open for me when I arrived. And I get to do so many things I always wanted to do. I get to live by the sea and I can dance... It is awesome to live on an island and between so much nature. It is interesting to see the difference between life in Germany but also between Alaska and the other states. I love Alaska and the "Alaskan way of life."

"Some people come into our lives and quickly go. Some stay for awhile, leave footprints on our hearts and we are never, ever the same." You will all leave footprints on my heart! Thank you all for everything and for helping to make this year the best of my life.

Nicolas Berthaud-12th Grade
Visiting from France

I'm Nico, the exchange student from France. I chose to become an exchange student because I wanted to learn English, and to have something new in my life. Since I have been here, I think my English has gotten better everyday, even if my accent is still bad, and I have learned so many things about Ketchikan, Alaska, and the U.S. I have had a great experience so far, and I have done so many things I could never have imagined doing, like dancing in the Nutcracker Ballet, seeing bears, sea lions, whales, etc... I like Kayhi very much, but it is very different from school in France. I have enjoyed playing in the wind ensemble, jazz band, and pep band. I also liked going to Sitka for Jazz Fest, and participating in Music Fest here in Ketchikan. I have enjoyed this year and will never forget all the things I did. It has been a good experience for me and I have discovered a lot.

Returning from Thailand

Thailand was an awesome, eye-opening experience. Some of my favorite parts were learning about a new culture, meeting new people from all over the world, and learning about Buddhism. I became involved in a lot of new things, such as meditation, Thai massage, and Muay Thai. I definitely would like to go back to Thailand in the future.

Alexandra Davis-10th Grade

Future Exchange Student of 2005

I can't wait to go to live in a different country for a whole year! To learn a new culture and possibly a new language would be brilliant, but the thing I am looking forward to the most is making new friends. That way I could go back and visit my friends in that country. After, I will hopefully come back from my exchange a more knowledgeable person and take things home with me that I have experienced.

Marrison Barker-10th Grade

Up-Coming Exchange Student of 2005

I am really excited to go on this exchange program for a year. I am really happy to get off this rock and knowing it isn't just a 3-week vacation. But I have to admit I will definitely miss everything in Ketchikan while I am away. I am hoping to learn a new language, make friends, and also I would like to have a better understanding for people and their cultures. During this exchange program I think I will accomplish a lot of tough things too.

Debate and its team

The debate team is one of the best in the Southeast Alaska. It is the best we have seen in a long time. We need to put a lot more effort into recognizing our academic activities.

Over all I think the team would say that this was a good trip. There were a lot of good things that happened during this trip. Like they finally got together as a team and helped each other out as a whole.

Personal philosophies on band class...

"Band is all about being one, you have twenty people that loving the same thing as you do. You got to create a beautiful and melodious sound, and you, are just a small part of a bigger and better thing" -Jessica Davis

"A lot of people think that I'm a little bit weird, you know, just a tad off the deep end. But you want to know why? I'm a musician! I can't help it! I'm a band geek, and if I have to give up a little bit of my sanity to be a good musician, then so be it!" -Jamie Karlson

"The best thing about band is the rush. Whenever I play a really powerful piece of music, a thing called a "musician's high" happens. It is a euphoria that inspires me to do more. That is probably the best thing about band." -Sam Pflaum

"Music helps to take you where you want to be. To get to the top takes some effort, but the reward is amazing. It provides you the ability to travel and meet some really nice people. Music is only as good as you make it." -Amanda Morris

What students' think makes band class great...

"Band is pretty fun. We have a lot of fun. We are always laughing and making jokes. More people should join so the two bands are even in number. Symphonic Band is the best! So more people should join in and experience the great fun we have." - Kathryn Bullock

"I like band because it's fun, I get to relax and play my saxophone. When we get new music to work on, and that is cool. I improve my skill at playing with the variety of songs. It's cool and spastically wild." -Tara Willehelm

"This band was fun! I got to meet new people, play some really fun music, we had a really awesome Christmas Concert, and the clarinet section was really good." -Stephanie Gudgeon

"I think this band has grown with in this past year. Its been fun playing with younger people, just the things they say and how they act makes this band fun! The Christmas concert was fun, it was awesome when Stephanie and I got to guard the cookies at the concert." -Jessie Houtcooper

No matter what science class a student at Ketchikan High School has, chances are that they will be working on some sort of lab during the year. In the picture below, Mr. Kralis's physics class is dropping eggs from the second floor and hoping that they do not break. The students using a very limited amount of materials and what they had learned in class had to keep the egg intact.

There are also the biology students who all grew sunflower plants and monitored their growth over a few weeks. Some plants were given more hours of light a day than others and the students had to keep detailed measurements and then later write a paper on the differences between the two different groups of plants.

Bookey Two Shoes,
Be careful in your life with what you do and where you go because we won't always be there to tell you 'No!
Your life has truly just begun. Take what you've learned and have some fun! Be true to yourself, stay thoughtful and kind and you'll be the man we had in mind!
We love you!
Mom, Dad & Cameron

Leslee LeBeau

Who's the man? May there always be a ball in your future, and may your heart still be Ketchikan! We thank you and what you have brought to our family. Tomorrow is full of promise.
Love and honor God and your family, keep your closest friends close to your heart, and walk with integrity in all you do. Life is a gift, celebration, and character test. Pass it... and help somebody else along the way!
All our love,
Dad & Mom xo

Waldemar Kintana

Ever since you were little, you've always made us smile... And you still do!
We love you!
