REMEMBER

KAYLA WILLIAMS

In September 2008, Shane and I were sitting in band and we got our instruments out for the first time this year. Mrs. Cron went around the class to tune everyone's instruments. She asked Shane to play and he said that he was still warming up. At the end of the class, Shane was taking his clarinet apart and the found a ball of paper in the barrel part of his clarinet (near this mouth piece).

So this one time, Keevin and the guys were at Keevin's house watching a movie. Emily K, Monique, Emily F, Chairel, Zoey and I decided we were going to scare them. We got our all-black outfits on, and headed out to Keevin's in Monique's car. We got out there and, being smart, we parked across the street so they wouldn't see us pull up. We got out, ran across the highway and down the hill to Keevin's house. We snuck around to the other side of his house, where all the boys were at. We only made it to the deck before we thought we heard Cindy, Keevin's mom, yelling at us. We all booked it back to Monique's car. We set the motion light off, but we thought it was Cindy with a flashlight. I thought everyone was ahead of me until I was climbing the hill and someone grabbed my leg. screamed as loud as I could. At first I thought it was Cindy, until I turned around and it was "Toey. Meanwhile Monique, Emily K, Chairel and Emily F were cracking up by the car. We left thinking they had caught us. We got to school on Monday and asked Keevin about it and uno one even knew we were there.

KAT SWEETMAN

During English class sophomore year with Ms. Roppel, the entire class was playing the game where you name an object starting with the same first letter as your name. So, Colby likes crackers, Katie likes kangaroos, etc. and when we get around to Rose Rodriguez, she saus,

"Hi! I'm Rose, and I like bread!"
Okaay?

THAT ONE TIME...

KEEVIN CRAIG

Freshman year during basketball regionals my boy Blake and I were down at McDonald's having this extremely serious heart to heart, while Blake was busy figdeting with the overhanging light source, unscrewing everything and what not. Blake failed to properly secure the bulb at which time the light fell and made an incredibly loud sound. Every single person (a solid 60) including the workers turned and stared at us in complete silence. Blake promptly raised his hand and announced, "Uh...I broke the light." Nonetheless ruining the vibe of our conversation.

ROSE RODRIGUEZ

Exer since I started Drill Team at Kayhi, I have been close friends with JC It's our tradition to have a solo picture of just the two of us excluding the rest of the team, not that we don't like them, but that's how it's always been. During my junior year Emily Kelly, my grade school best friend, joined the team. She has the habit of asking, "Hey, do you know what time it is?" and JC would reply "It's 2:51". At first I didn't realize that JC already told Emily the time, so I would repeat whatever time it was, for example, "It's 2:51." From then on I still didn't realize that I was just repeating what JC said. Now that I realized it it's just been a fun joke. SMILE for JC Seludo & Rose Rodriguez.

ALEX SWEAT

State day of senior carnival, Zach, John, and I had the genius idea of getting costumes to draws up as nerds for the black jack booth. We apparently miscalculated how much time we had toget costumes, food, and to the senior meeting because after our quick trip to the Salvation Army and Safeway, we walked into the commons all dressed up. THE ONLY PEOPLE DRESSED

UP. I looked like Taj from Van Wilder, Zach looked like John Lennon from the Beatles, and John looked exactly like Alf-Alfa. We walked in right in the middle of Ms. Bowlen's big speech about being on time and appropriateness, and the room just went silent and everyone stared. And then Paris Albertson burst out laughing and the rest of the senior class followed and we were just getting laughed at. It was pretty much the funniest moment in the whole night for us.

Mwhole new world for them! They arrived to learn and have fun, and they did!

This year has been awesome! At first when I heard that I was going to Alaska, it was honestly a little bit of a shock because I didn't decide to come here. The only thing I knew was that I was going to go to somewere in the USA, so did my best friend so she picked South Carolina and I came here in Alaska in a little town called Ketchikan. Some people might think that an exchange year in South Carolina is way better then a year in Alaska. But I don't! Not anymore! I know that there couldn't be a better place for me. I have great friends, I can dance ballet here, and I totally love this little, tiny town! One good thing about being in Ketchkan is that I have found my inner hunter! NOT! :D I'm never going to forget the day when I first saw a skinned deer. Or when a bear walked into our garden! HaHa. Exchange year is definitely not an easy year but I love everything about it! It was very hard to leave ell my friends and family knowing that I'm not going to see them for a whole year. But one thing I know for sure: It's going to be even harder to go back to Finland when the time comes! Luckily I still have some time here and I'm going to make the most of it! Thank You! Kiitos! Tulle Kova Ikává! Anni

Anni Larkela Finland

Bi, my name is Caroline Cabral, I am from Brazil! I spent an entire year here, in Ketchikan. It was the most amazing experience I've ever had so far! I saw snow for the first time. and it was so exciting that I cried! I have experienced a whole bunch of things. I have made new friendships that will last forever. Ketchikan is really different from my city, Sao Raulo, it's much smaller and colder. Still, I met great people that made me feel warm inside! :) I love the way you fellows five, the way you know everyone else and how kind you are! When I chose Alaska for my exchange I was afraid, but it was a great challenge. I will go back to Brazil sure that Ketchikan was the best option I could ever choose for my exchange year. I will miss you all, but you will always be in my heart and definitely in the BEST memories of my life! Thank you for this amazing year!!! I LOVE KETCHIKAN! (mas Brasil é Brasil, meu amor eterno!) Igottabow! Love you, my close friends! Always&forever. Carol.

WOW! This was the best year of my life! Thank you everyone for these awesome moments.... I'm going to miss you all! I had lots of fun! Coming here was a great idea! Alaska! Nobody will think of it but its iust great! See you all!

For my Junior year I was on exchange in Brasil. I applied for it my sophomore year in total preparation for a new experiences and adventures. When I was chosen to go on exchange, I knew where I wanted to go. Brasil had been a lifelong dream of mine, as well as the Amazon. With tons of work and effort. I lucked out and got to go to my number one choice. It was a dream come true. The next was fluency in Portuguese, and then getting to see the Amazon. The experience will never be able to fit fully into words, but it changed me and my life. Whether experiences were good or bad. I've never learned so much in such a short period of time. Education is not just from school. It comes from life lessons, experiences, challenges, and preparation for anything. After that year all alone in a foreign dreamland full of bright, cheerful, friendly, loving Brasileiros, I discovered a new part of myself. I know now for a fact that life without risk is very closed life. Get out there and experience life! Learn! Estou com saudades demais: um dia eu vou voltar pro Brasil... um dia eu vou morar no Brasil, minha outra casa. There is NOTHING like the feeling of having a dream, following it, accomplshing it, and never letting the 'happily ever after' come ... The dream should be 'happily on forever.' EU AMO O BRASIL.

the feeling of having a dream, following and never letting the 'happily ever aft should be 'happily on forever.' EU AMO of the best year of your livest astyear I was fortunate enough to take part in a six-month exhange in beautiful Austria. I had expected some small provincial own were we'd milk goats and make our own cheese while yodeling omplex alpine tunes. Instead, I was surprised to find a large osmopolitan city, surrounded by gorgeous mountains, pristine akes and filled with many warm-hearted people. I consider myself ery lucky to have taken part in this AFS exchange. I'm certain that 'Il never forget my experiences and the many wonderful people I net that semeseter.

The Alaska Association of Student Governments is a three-day conference where students all over Alaska come together and discuss state and nation- wide issues. The AASG delegates write and present resolutions, the problems that they wish to see changed, in front of the General Assembly. Eleven Kayhi students and two advisors ventured all the way to Palmer, Alaska immensely excited to defend their resolutions. The four resolutions brought to the table were: "0 Grams Trans-Fat Ban," "D.A.R.E. Program, "Wi-fi Connections," and "Oil Endowment." Three out of the four resolutions brought were passed.
