Foreword

OUR dream of four years is fast reaching its realization. Within a few short weeks the year will be over, and we who are seniors will receive the long anticipated diploma signifying that we have passed the first milestone of our educational dream.

Along with this has been the dream of a new school building into which we moved this fall. At times we nearly lost sight of the vision, but with this year it is realized and we have experienced one year within its walls.

We, the staff of Kayhi, present this book which chronicles in story and pictures the steps in both the educational and building dream. Through pictures we have tried to give you a view of the many beautiful features of what we think is the most beautiful building we could want.

Thus the theme of this book: The Realization of the Dream

We Thank You

DEVELOPING a new formula, creating a new picture, building a new building, setting up a new schedule is not an easy undertaking. It involves a trial and error, correction and revision before it becomes a finished product.

This has been the supervising problem of our principal in this new building this year.

Through it all she has maintained her usual composure, advising here, suggesting there, no matter what demands might be crowding her already over-burdened time.

To her goes the credit of guiding this first year in the new building.

With these things in mind, we, the staff, dedicate this annual to our PRINCIPAL, Miss Elsie M. Stouffer. We thank you.

The Citizens Too

AS a second dedication we want to express our appreciation to the citizens of Ketchikan, who, through their interest in us, made this building possible. Had they not been willing, as shown through their passage of the bond issue, to increase their tax load this DREAM of a modern school plant could not have come true.

We feel privileged to be the first class to spend its final year within its walls, so to you citizens we say THANK YOU.

Administration

J. E. Danielson, Superintendent of Schools

Superintendent

THE person who probably did more of the actual administrative work which brought about the completion of this DREAM is our superintendent of schools, J. E. Danielson. He was the co-ordinator who spent many hours in consultation, in studying plans, in adjusting requests to budgets.

Yet he does not share in the beauties of the building with an office there. However, moving the high school from the old Main School made it possible to enlarge the superintendent's office so that there is room for private office, consulting room and a spacious general office.

What a satisfaction it must be to him to know that after years of planning and figuring, the new building has become a REALITY.

Superintendent's Message

THE first year in our new high school building has truly been a realization of a DREAM of many years. Goals have been attained which heretofore would have been impossible. It has been very gratifying to note the full utilization of the many new facilities—by the eighth grade and high school, the community college, and by our citizenry in general.

Taxpayers of the Ketchikan Independent School District are to be commended for making our new high school possible. To show our appreciation, we must strive to make the most of the excellent opportunities which have been provided. This, in itself, constitutes a real challenge.—J. E. Danielson, sup't.

Principal

THE high school Parent-Teachers Association has worked with the principal to co-ordinate school and home activities. Their monthly programs featured subjects of interest to teen-agers and their adult supervisors.

Also they were an invaluable help with the housing and entertainment problems when visiting teams and rooters were here for basketball games.

Officers of PARENT-TEACHERS ASSOCIATION

PRINCIPAL'S MESSAGE

THE new building with its added facilities has made it possible to achieve greater and better things for Kayhi. Construction of the auditorium and gymnasium as two separate and distinct units greatly increased its utility to the community and school.

This year has been one of adjustment. Many customs and events of student life have had to be revamped and remodeled to fit into the new surroundings, and in some instances new developments have taken place.

All this is a part of progress—a part of a DREAM COME TRUE.

Eighth Grade

WHILE the eighth grade has not been a part of the high school curriculum, its rooms have been located in the new building and their work has been under the supervision of the high school principal.

They had their own class organizations, social activities and programs. They attended high school assemblies that were considered of interest to them.

Work of the art classes under the supervision of Mrs. John Doyle made many colorful and often near professional displays in the show cases.

One of the most valuable projects of the group under the supervision of Guy E. Poorman was the eighth grade store which sold school supplies to all students. They stocked pencils, pens, notebook paper and other materials for the same prices at which they could be purchased elsewhere and made a small profit that provided funds for class projects.

Home room teachers supervised their folding and stuffing of the envelopes with Christmas seals at that season.

Their basketball tournament created much interest. Teams from this class played preliminary games at some of the high school games, and many of the class played in the Church League basketball teams.

Harland E. Johnson who has a B.S. degree from the University of Minnesota taught social studies and mathematics.

Mrs. John Doyle with a B.S. degree from Northeastern State College Oklahoma, taught art and education.

Guy E. Poorman with a B.A. and M.A. degree from Peabody Teachers College, taught social studies. Mrs. Earl Smith taught English.

Eighth Grade Store: Inge Karlson, senior, makes purchase from Bobbin Kyte and Ronnie Bremer.

Cafeteria

THE cafeteria is an organized unit of the school, headed by Mrs. Harold Miller with Mrs. Arthur Sund as her assistant.

These women plan the meals so that everyone will get his requirement of health building food.

They arrive at school early in the morning and often do not leave until after school is dismissed in the afternoon.

In this time they are busy preparing the day's meal, serving it at noon, then cleaning up the kitchen to start on the meal for the next day.

They order the groceries, some of which are supplied by the government as surplus commodities.

At noon they are helped in their work by two shifts of high school students who receive free meals in return for their work.

Bus Drivers

Bus Drivers

USES that transport students who live more than a mile from school are operated by the Northern Bus Co., owned by Barber and Eichner. They also have 20 buses with regular runs in town.

Students come from as far as 16 miles to the north and nine miles to the south of the city.

Custodians

THE custodians are busy people who are always working to keep the high school looking new and clean. They work in three shifts with a man on each shift.

Three women come after school dismissal to help with the work.

SENIOR HISTORY

By Dixie-Anne Holman

AS freshmen we started the year with fear and trembling and were crowded nearly 90 strong into an already overcrowded school building. First on the social calendar was the Freshman Frolic, October 3, which we put over with great success.

Decorations were life-sized figures in Spanish costumes with heads of high school students. Bert Kimura, our adviser, took the pictures and enlarged them to life size.

Committee chairman for the dance were Sandy Mullins and Dian Hilligass, decorations; Carol Erickson, refreshments; Mike Selfridge, orchestra; George Tanino, publicity; Jim Jones, clean-up.

During intermission members of the class demonstrated square dancing and led their guests in the Virginia Reel. Jean Corbin played the piano.

Our freshman class officers were Johnny Gilbert, president; George Tanino, vice-president; Dian Hilligass, secretary; Don Maddox, treasurer, and Jim Jones, sergeant at arms. Our advisers were Miss Ethel M. Evans and Bert Kimura.

Although we worked hard selling annuals, our Queen of the Yearbook candidate, Dian Hilligass, lost to a senior.

We started our sophomore year right by electing class officers. They were Don Maddox, president; Jerry Raines, vice-president; Peggy Palmer, secretary; John Gilbert, treasurer, and Rocky Terry, SBA representative. Our advisers were Mrs. Helen G. Bond and W. C. Martineson.

Our Sophomore Hop was a great success. The theme, "Foresters Ball," was carried out by decorating chairman Dixie-Anne Holman with trees brought in from the woods by the boys of our class and W. C. Martineson, adviser. After a lot of hard work the gym was ready for the dance.

Faye Wylie, as mistress of ceremonies introduced the "Can-Cans" and the Apache Dance.

Don Maddox, Jerry Raines, Chuck Knight, Rocky Terry and Bruce Newlun were in the "Can-Cans" and Doug Vig and Harlan Ohlson gave their version of slaughter of Tenth Avenue in the Apache Dance.

Dixie-Anne Holman and Rocky Terry were on the debate team. Dixie-Anne and Kay Benson were judged outstanding affirmatives at the Petersburg Tri-City tournament.

At last we were juniors. Next year we would be seniors.

For our junior year we elected these officers: Lawrence Edenso, president; George Tanino, vice-president; Sylvia Field, secretary; Doug Vig, treasurer; Rolf Hildre, sergeant-at-arms; Mike Selfridge and Ed Borgen, SBA representatives. Our advisers were Mrs. Helen G. Bond, Douglas W. Davies and W. C. Martineson.

It was a busy year with money making projects for junior and senior expenses, selecting class rings and planning for the Junior Prom to honor the seniors.

Our Junior Prom was elaborately decorated like a Mardi Gras. We put up whole walls the length of the gym to simulate a street in New Orleans. It was a big success. Darlene Campbell was decoration chairman.

Soroptimist Club entertained all the girls at a dinner where they explained the advantages and requirements of requested professions.

The boys made themselves known by taking part in activities. Johnny Gilbert and Don Maddox were on the varsity squad. Ed Borgen was Yell King. Johnny was vice-president and Don was sergeant-at-arms of the Student Body Association.

Dixie-Anne represented the class on the debate team.

"Ice-cold Pop" was almost the motto of the junior class. We sold gallons of pop at basketball games to make part of our money.

And then we were seniors. At last! After three years of work and fun to get there we finally made it, at least part of us. After starting with more than 90 members in the class there are only 54 left to graduate.

Our last year in "Dear Old Kayhi" was one never to be forgotten. So much happened that it is almost unbelievable.

We moved into the new high school building. After so many years of waiting it finally happened. It was beautiful, clean and new and this was our last year, what could be better.

Because of our big, new gym, the Southeastern Alaska Basketball Tournament was held here. For the first time in seven years WE WON! The team led by captain Johnny Gilbert, was the best Kayhi had seen in a long time.

After the tournament Anchorage came down for the All-Alaska play-off. We won two out of three games for the championship. We all agree that it was about the best thing that could have happened in our last year.

Johnny Gilbert and Freddie Hulse were elected most inspirational players.

Darlene Campbell was Song Queen and Dennis Zoerb was Yell King.

Our senior play was a farce comedy, "Mr. Co-ed;" Carole Cartwright and Dennis Zoerb played the leads. We had as much fun putting on the play as we did doing anything else, even if our adviser, Miss Martha Mullins, did make us come to practice at 7:30 a.m. on Saturdays. (Our day off.)

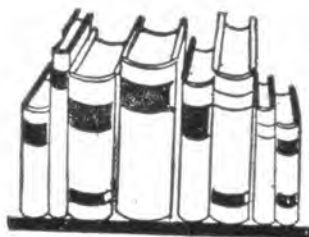

Sylvia Field was Queen of the Yearbook and Darlene Campbell and Dennis Zoerb were Best Mixers.

Our senior officers were George Tanino, president; Dennis Zoerb, vice-president; Sylvia Field, secretary; Lois Droogs-Van Mun, treasurer; Bob Buchanan, sergeant-at-arms, and Dixie-Anne Holman, Roger Iversen and Ralph Hildre, SBA representatives.

Sandy Mullins and Dixie-Anne Holman were co-editors of KAYHITEMS. Dixie-Anne and Johnny represented the class in the debate tournament at Petersburg.

Inge Karlson was one of the editors of this annual and what a time she had worrying about pictures, printing and distributing the book.

Activities held after the printing of this annual were Senior White Day, the Junior Prom, the Senior Banquet; and then COMMENCEMENT, the day we have dreamed about, the realization of four years of work and study, trials and fun, bound in one small folder, the DIPLOMA.

JUNIOR CLASS

We are almost there! This year, then next—1957, the year we have all been waiting for for so long. WE WILL BE SENIORS.

In September, Ed Marshall was elected to lead us through this busy year. Four of the first seven members on our All-Alaska basketball team were juniors. They are Carl Corbin, Jerry Wood, Bob Thomas, Ed Marshall.

The class earned money by selling pop and hot dogs at varsity basketball games and at the Southeastern Alaska basketball tournament. Gerald Wardlow proved his ability as a "Buck" sergeant by heading the committee.

Audrey Stump and Diane Clark represented the class on the Pep squad. Kay Benson was runner-up in the "Queen of the Yearbook" contest.

Daniel Shafland was co-editor of the Kayhi '56. Jim Miller won first place in the local American Legion oratorical contest and third place in the Territorial contest in Juneau.

The Junior Prom honoring the seniors was the last big school activity of the year.

ACTIVITIES

John Gilbert
President

Student Body Association

THE Student Body Association Council acts as a co-ordinating group between students and administration. They meet about twice a month to carry out projects, organize assemblies, meet the needs of the school as far as they can help.

The Council is composed of the president, vice-president, secretary, treasurer, sergeant-at-arms, fire chief, yell king, class presidents and class representatives.

On the first day of school they acted as guides to direct students to classrooms. On Open House Day they served in a similar capacity as they did again when the S.E. Alaska tournament was here.

One of their major plans is selection of a school crest to be placed in the floor of the entrance corridor.

SBA dues were reduced to one dollar this year so that it is possible for all high school students to belong. Instead of admitting holders to games free, membership cards allow admission for one-half the adult price.

The Council sold "Apples for Polio" during the noon hour instead of "peanuts" as was done in the States. The polio foundation ran out of peanuts and had none for Alaska.

The Council sponsored assemblies for special occasions, and participated in the Rotary citizenship award for the month. They carried out a school ground clean-up campaign.

They helped with the eighth grade Visitation Day program which was planned to introduce incoming freshmen to the high school schedule.

The last project of the year is the purchasing of new plaques and planning the election of officers for next year.

Fire Squad

THE Fire Squad is a voluntary organization set up by the Student Body Association Council to help prevent the loss of life in case of fire.

The squad operates on the basis that it is their obligation to vacate the building and check students to be certain no one is left inside. The city department fights the fire.

Although the new building is supposed to be fire proof, the squad operates in the usual way. Fire is not the only hazard, other dangers exist which explain the use of the term "evacuation" instead of "fire drill."

Each class has a specific location away from the building where an assigned person takes roll call and reports any missing persons.

Service Club

DEDICATED to the service of the school, the Service Club takes the responsibility for the jobs to which nobody has been assigned.

Service Club members are selected by members of the faculty for their dependability and citizenship. These students usher at games and programs, help set up the stage for programs, run the public address system, move furniture, do general repair and any odd work that may arise.

This year the projectionists are a separate club, but they are included on this page with the Service Club because the work of the two is the same, helping people.

Members receive a pin and card which states that they are qualified to work the projectors without an instructor to supervise.

Torch Honor Society

SCHOLARSHIP, citizenship and service are the objectives of Torch Honor Society.

This society was introduced in Kayhi in 1935, but it was not until 1954 that a National Charter was secured.

Eligibility for membership is based upon points in grades and participation in school activities. Each year the senior members are awarded permanent membership and emblem pins if they have earned a total of 110 points.

The annual Torch banquet was held April 21 when new members for 1955-56 were initiated.

The Torch Tap assembly was held March 1.

Debate Club

KAYHI debaters took third place in the Tri-City tournament held in Petersburg April 6 and 7. Juneau won first. Winner was determined by the total number of points accumulated by the four teams of each of the competing schools.

This year for the first time instead of using the National debate topic, an Alaskan subject was chosen. It was "Resolved: that the Territory of Alaska be admitted as a fully qualified state of the United States at the next session of Congress."

After the last debate, a round table discussion with a negative and affirmative from each town was held. This gave members of the audience an opportunity to ask questions.

Dixie-Anne Holman and George Selig were the Ketchikan representatives.

Douglas W. Davies is the adviser. George Placentia went with the team from here to judge the debates.

Latin Club

THE Home Economics room was the scene of the annual Latin Club banquet. Club members dressed in togas and attended by slaves as in ancient Rome.

Another highlight of the year was a Christmas party at the home of Marcy Steers where gifts were exchanged among members.

All members of the Latin class and those who have taken Latin are eligible for membership. The club is an outlet to foster an interest in Acient Rome.

Future Teachers of America

ALASKA Club No. 1, Future Teachers of America, was reactivated the first semester under the sponsorship of Miss Mildred Gelston.

FTA groups in high school are pre-vocational and exploratory. They seek to encourage young people to cultivate in themselves the qualities of personality and character which are necessary for teaching; to acquaint young people with the opportunities and to provide specific information in the various fields of the profession.

Future Homemakers of America

FUTURE Homemakers of America derives its membership from those presently enrolled in Homemaking and those who have previously been enrolled. Though the organization is national, the local chapter has not been allowed to participate because at present there is no territorial chapter.

To earn a degree, members must participate in activities carried on by the chapter. This year activities have included preparing Christmas trays for the hospital, preparing a box of food and clothing for the Welfare Department, making a children's scrap book and a Mother's Day recognition.

Anticipating the formation of a Territorial Chapter, funds for the treasury were raised by a bake sale, food concessions for All-Alaska Tournament and serving of dinners to local organizations.

Opportunity for service to the club is limited only by each individual's ambition. Opportunity for club service to the school and to the community is limited only by the foresight of the membership of the club.

Quill and Scroll

QUILL and SCROLL, national honor society for high school journalists, is open to juniors and seniors whose grades are in the upper third of their respective classes. They submit a printed article for approval by the national secretary and must be recommended by the adviser for their work on high school publications.

A formal initiation held May 16 gave eight Kayhi students membership.

Former Kayhi Quill and Scroll members conducted the initiation with Inge Karlson, member from last year acting as chairman.

Bob Olson, associate editor and advertising manager of the Alaska Sportsman gave the address on "Values and Compensations of High School Journalism."

Mr. Olson was a member of Quill and Scroll when he was in high school.

Parents, faculty and friends were guests for the initiation and program.

PRESS CLUB

PRESS CLUB is an organization that includes the membership of students interested in the work of the Journalism Department besides the journalism students. Each home room elects a representative to take care of the circulation and subscription selling of that room. The eighth grade also is included in Press Club this year. Clubs and classes have representatives also.

Meetings are held once a week. The Journalism class does most of the work on the paper but Press Club members are given assignments to supply the paper with news and information. It is their responsibility to report news from their rooms or clubs.

Miss Ethel M. Evans is adviser.

LIBRARIANS

STUDENT librarians charge books and magazines to students and members of the faculty and assist students in the use of card catalogues, compute and receive fines, shelve books and magazines, file pamphlets, repair torn books and magazines and arrange displays and bulletin boards.

The library is open from 8 a.m. until 4:15 p.m.

Library science is a regular class requiring one hour a day for a school year before the one-half credit is earned.

Miss Helen Merry, librarian, and Mrs. Jessie Walu, assistant, librarian, are in charge.

OFFICE HELP

DUTIES of students who work in the office are small, but actually very important. Their efficiency and dependability help to keep the office working as an organized unit.

Their jobs range from alphabetizing material, collecting absentee slips from each class and sorting and arranging classification cards to answering the telephone and running errands for the office secretary and the principal.

The office help this year included Vona Traylor, first hour; Nancy Walters, second hour; Janice Brougher, fourth hour; Ammaleta Roberts, fifth hour; Eileen Miller, sixth hour and Sandy Mullins, seventh hour.

Girls Athletic Association

GIRLS Athletic Association started off with a full program of activities. Nearly every evening after school found them conducting some athletic activity when the gym was available.

They sent a CARE package of athletic equipment overseas, held a Varsity Drag to honor the basketball team and entertained rooters and chaperons who accompanied teams for the basketball tournament.

For the last event they prepared and served a luncheon on Saturday of the event.

Basketball plays as much a part in the girls athletic program as it does in the boys schedule. Four teams entered intramural competition followed by games between the classes. Judy Clausen's "Killer Dillers" were final champions of the intramural games.

The class tournament was not completed when this story was written.

In the volleyball tournament played earlier the "Courteous Killers" defeated "Berg's Bullies" in the finals to win the championship.

Perhaps the most impressive was the Alaska flag done with flash lights held in the position of the outline and dipper and star as the Triple Trio sang the Alaska song.

They wore maroon jumpers and white blouses. The leaders wore white.

THE tumbling team made its debut this year into athletic ranks by performing during the half time of basketball games. Students who joined the tumbling team at the beginning of the year and continued throughout the season were awarded letters at the awards assembly.

Eighth grade and high school students interested in the tumbling team for the coming school year turned out weekly this spring in order to become familiarized with the skills necessary for team members.

PEP CLUB

PEP CLUB worked hard to earn points for the trip to Sitka so that they might back the Pep Squad. Rooters did a splendid job. They were led by cheerleaders, Audrey Stump and Diane Clark and Dennis Zoerb, yell king.

Mattie White-Walters started out the year with Dennis and Audrey, but halfway through the basketball season she dropped school to become the wife of Bob Walters.

Out on the floor to lead the singing and band numbers were Darlene Campbell and Judy Hasibar. The constitution was amended to allow the selection of more than one song queen.

The group had bake sales, sold pom poms, booster buttons and pennants to earn money.

About 20 were able to make the trip to Sitka. All were flown there.

The club sat in a group wearing their Kayhi hats at games and led the yelling and singing at all athletic events.

Southeastern Alaska

KAYHI and the community were hosts to approximately 350 visiting students for the Southeastern Alaska Music Festival last spring. Although the new high school building was not completed, the contractor allowed the auditorium to be used for the Festival.

Band and choral groups came from Juneau, Sitka, Douglas, Mt. Edgecumbe, Klawock and Wrangell. All came by airplane and were housed in Ketchikan homes.

The bands and choral groups performed separately on the first two nights of the Festival. On the final evening and after three days of concentrated practice under the supervision of visiting directors, the mass band and chorus gave the last performance, before the largest crowd ever gathered in Ketchikan.

The auditorium, which is considered to have ample room for the largest crowds, was completely filled for this program.

A. Bert Christenson was adjudicator for the instrumental groups and Wayne S. Hertz, the adjudicator for the vocal groups. Both men are from Central Washington College of Education, Ellensburg, Washington.

Festival Chorus and Band

Music Festival

ORGANIZATION of details for housing and feeding as large a group of students as came for the Festival was no small task. Miss Elsie Stouffer, principal, Mrs. Irven Wengert, director of vocal music, and Elwood Rickman, director of instrumental music, working with the Parent-Teachers Association and the Student Council managed to handle it without any apparent trouble.

Fraternal organizations served meals, for no eating house in town could handle that many people.

The bus company ran special busses from town to the high school to make transportation easier.

Because of the cost of such a festival, they are held only on alternate years. There will be none this year. Next year the Festival will be in Sitka.

BAND

PEP rallies, basketball games, the Southeastern Alaska and the All-Alaska Basketball Tournament occupied the time and interests of the band members this year.

The band played at all inter-school basketball games and at some city-league games.

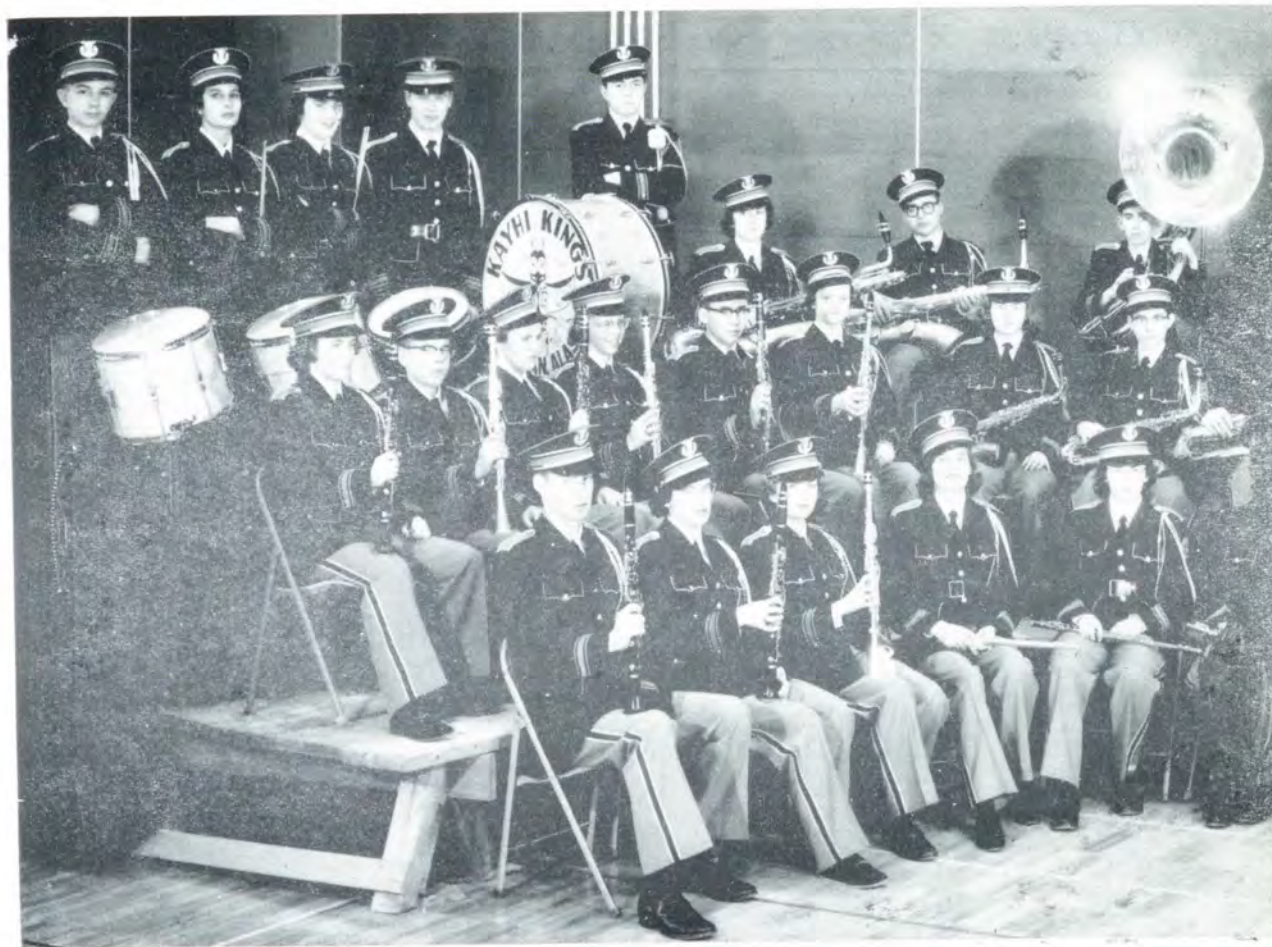

They went caroling at Christmas time, played in the Mothers March on Polio and played in the Lions vs Rotarians basketball game.

Several students of the band organized a dance band and played at several dances.

BAND

THE band presented its annual Amateur Night contest March 23. Prizes for this school-wide talent show were $50, $30, $20 and $10. Other entrants were given free show tickets.

Bud and Betty Witham were awarded first place; Keith Taylor, second; Ronald and Dennis Zoerb, third; and Karen Coy, honorable mention.

Winners were determined by applause as recorded by an electric applause meter purchased by the band.

The band combined with the chorus for the Spring Concert April 20. Then they went to Prince Rupert the next week for the Music Festival there.

MRS. IRVEN WENGERT
Director

THE Christmas Vespers, Easter program and a Spring Concert constituted the major productions of the high school chorus. The girls Triple Trio sang at the Easter Sunrise service and the Boys Octette and the Triple Trio sang for various organizations of the city.

The basic fundamentals of vocal music were stressed by Mrs. Irven Wengert, director, of vocal music, to prepare the vocal students for the Southeastern Alaska Music Festival which is held every two years.

Students will attend this festival in Sitka next year.

This year there were 65 students in the mixed chorus and 20 in the Acapella chorus.

FOOTBALL this year consisted of intramural play since the new high school was so far from the field, and the expense of travel to other schools was too great. The new field has not been completed, but will be before long.

In past years, games have been played with the Oak Bay Goblins of Canada and with Anchorage.

A new field, the solid financial condition of the Athletic Department and increased interest of other schools will permit a greater number of games to be played in the future.

After Three Hard-Fought Games

KAYHI'S newly named Kings broke in a new school and a new gym by besting Anchorage two out of three in a three game series to win the All-Alaska basketball championship for the first time in eight years. The wins were not easy ones as the scores indicate and the last game was never closer than one might believe.

Ketchikan won the first game 55 to 53 by staving off an Eagle drive in the last quarter. The second game had Anchorage winning 62 to 61, a see-saw battle. In this game the two teams were never separated by more than three baskets.

In the final game the Kings played a steady calm game and emerged champions via a 73 to 55 score.

Fouls made the difference in this game. Anchorage got behind and had to play hard to try to regain the lead and the Kings made the difference on the free throw line.

KAYHI compiled the best record in Alaska this year emerging with a 23 to 3 win-loss record and the Alaska basketball championship.

The Kings also tied for first place in the City League with a 5 to 1 record before the league was discontinued.

In all, Kayhi lost four games by a grand total of 6 points, three losses coming by 1 point margins.

* Games Won

KAYHI Kings became the third Southeastern Alaska team to win Alaska championship since the tournament plan was established three years ago.

In past years the winner was determined by the team with the best record in S. E. Alaska playing the team with the best record in Western Alaska.

Three years ago the plan was changed so that the tournament winner of S. E. Alaska plays the tournament champions in Northern Alaska.

All games during the season go only to the improvement of the teams and have no bearing on the tournament other than that of establishing favorites.

In Elimination Tournament

Ketchikan won three straight games in the Southeastern Alaska basketball tournament here to finish as champions.

The Kings defeated Haines 65 to 36 in the opener. In the second game, the Kings disposed of Mt. Edgecumbe 70 to 53, thus avenging a previous one-point loss in a two game series during the season.

The championship contest with Sitka high was also a rubber game since the two teams had divided a two-game series earlier.

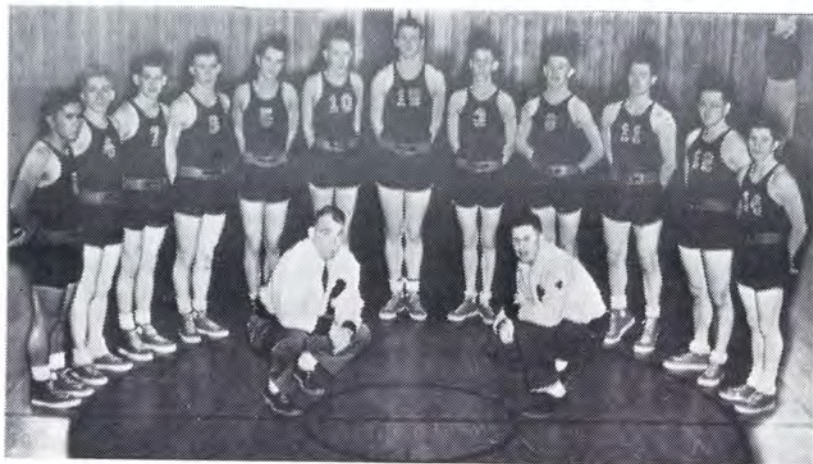

In the final encounter, the Kings grabbed a quick lead which they never lost and went on to win a decisive 45 to 34 victory.

Following the final game, trophies were awarded and special gifts given to outstanding players and teams in the tournament.

TRACK

Cindermen started off the 1956 season by breaking in the track immediately after the basketball tournament. They began conditioning themselves by running laps and doing calisthenics on the field in good weather and in the gym when it rained. The Southeastern Alaska meet was held at Juneau May 4 with Kayhi taking third.

Queen of the Yearbook

SYLVIA FIELD

SYLVIA Field was elected Queen of the Yearbook by selling more annuals than any other candidate. Each class elected a representative who, with her assistants, canvassed their respective classes for sales. More annuals were ordered than have been purchased any previous year.

Because the number of books was limited, a long waiting list of students was made at the close of contest and extra or uncalled-for books will be sold them, in order of their listing.

Queens in previous years have been Irene Bue in 1950, Ann Hildebrandt, 1951; Janice Montgomery, 1952; Gerda Nergaard, 1953; Barbara Ruhle and Eddee Jo Wilson, 1954; and Carol Burrow, 1955.

Yearbook Queen Runners up

Best Mixers

Right: Dennis Zoerb

FRIENDLINESS, tact, the ability to get along with people are the characteristics of the Best Mixers, an election conducted by the Journalism Department. They are chosen by the student body and faculty in a secret ballot.

Dennis Zoerb and Darlyne Campbell were presented with gilt painted mixing spoons with their names and the year printed on them at an assembly held for that purpose.

Star Reporters

EILEEN MILLER and Joyce Campbell were chosen Star Reporters for 1956 by a vote of the class and a survey of their work. Eileen was noted for her promptness in submitting news she saw about the school. Also she was efficient as advertising manager of the paper.

Joyce was prompt on any feature assignments given her as well as being efficient as business manager of both school publications.

Both girls led in obtaining advertising for the annual, making it a success.

While the editors of the paper and annual led in total amounts of material published, they felt these girls should be rewarded for their outstanding work.

What Happened This Year

SEPTEMBER, 1955—The smell of pencils, varnish, chalk and the chatter of breathless, excited students in the new Kayhi building blended together to herald the first day of school. This being a very important incident to us was really quite minor in comparison to all the events taking place elsewhere in the world.

News of International Importance

Of interest to the entire world is the Israel-Arab dispute which has been going on for some time now.

While some problems were being created, others were being solved in the summit conference held in Geneva which saw the leaders of France, England, America and Russia in conference.

French Morocco received her long-desired nominal independence from France.

During this tension there were some good times also. Winter Olympic games were held in Switzerland and the 4-minute mile was run for the first time by two men on one track, one from England and the other from Australia.

Also, romance was in the air. Princess Margaret of England sacrificed the love of Peter Townsend for the Church of England and royal duty.

United States Headlines

The grave news of President Eisenhower's heart attack shook the world, causing a drop in the stock market.

One of the worst issues in our history—segregation—was blown wide open. Many instances of rioting occurred, dealing a severe blow to human relations.

Westinghouse Electric workers were on strike for many weeks.

Floods, tornadoes, hurricanes and blizzards swept the country, causing disaster and deaths.

Life had more than misery. It was Leap year now and Cupid played his part. Grace Kelly became the modern day princess by marrying the last eligible monarch in Prince Rainier of Monaco.

Long-eligible Margaret Truman took advantage of the year and married an assistant to the editor of the New York Times.

On academy award night, Oscars were awarded to: best actress, Anna Magnani; best actor, Ernest Borgnine; best picture, Marty; best song, Love is a Many Splendored Thing.

One of the controversial measures hit the headlines in the soil bank farm plan. It was not included in the fixed-parity bill passed by congress and vetoed by President Eisenhower who then upped support payments.

Sports tradition was upset when Brooklyn beat the Yankees in the world series for the first time.

Color TV became a reality and radio networks started $64,000 giveaways.

The age of atomic power and jet propulsion came into being.

Alaska News Summary

It was another poor fishing season in 1955, affecting the economy of all Alaska.

Judge George Folta, a true Alaska pioneer, died on a bear hunt of a heart attack after many years of hard work in Alaska.

Tentative plans were made for the new pulp mill at Sitka.

Statehood and fish traps, still extremely important to Alaskans, were the main topics of conversation.

What Happened This Year

A constitution for the proposed state of Alaska was drafted on the University of Alaska campus at College and ratified by Alaska voters by a wide margin April 24, 1956.

With the discovery of commercial uranium, Southeastern Alaska took on new economic importance.

Ketchikan Happenings

Just before Christmas we received a grand present in the completion of the arterial highway beyond the tunnel.

After years of debate, we also ordered a water chlorination system.

With inauguration of daily plane service by Pacific Northern, added to that of Pan American World Airways, Ketchikan took a bigger place on the aviation map. They say "competition is the spice of life." The planes land on Annette island from where Ellis Airlines planes bring passengers to Ketchikan. Also there are daily flights to Prince Rupert and Juneau with many regular trips to outlying settlements, logging camps and canneries.

Besides, there is talk of a ferry service between Ketchikan and Annette.

A great disaster in Ketchikan was the fire at a local boat storage which destroyed 71 pleasure craft. It really hit home.

The seasonal salmon derby was won on a 65-pound king.

Fishermen are again out trying to lure the largest fish of the new season. A woman caught a 62-pounder May 8, 1956.

On The School Scene

First and of greatest importance was our occupancy of the new high school building. While not all equipment was installed, school began and open house for the public was held Sept. 11. The Parent-Teachers Association, Student Body Association Council and faculty were hosts to more than 1000 visitors.

In March the Southeastern Alaska Basketball tournament teams competed before capacity crowds in the new gym here.

Our sport pages pleased local fans, for we are the proud owners of the Kayhi Kings, ALL-ALASKA basketball champs.

Our enrollment was increased during the year by new students and the coming of eighth graders to the new building. If new classrooms, just started at the close of school, are completed next year, the seventh graders will be here also.

Future Teachers of America were re-organized and Future Homemakers of America were organized for the first time.

All in all, we are certainly holding our own to prove that Ketchikan is truly the "Gateway to Alaska."

So the proud seniors, heads held high, leave Kayhi and new freshmen will start bobbing about next fall—next year when there will be more shaking events; events that affect all of us.

Sadness at the close of school comes with the loss of several faculty members. Mr. and Mrs. Ray Bassett, who have been here many years, and Douglas Davies, who has been here four years, have been granted leaves of absence. We look forward to their return in a year.

W. C. Martineson, coach of the All-Alaska champs, has resigned to enter training for dentistry. Vernon Gallup will leave the profession. Miss Mildred Gelston will go to her home where her mother is ill.

Acknowledgments

DEAR FRIENDS:

One of the major assets of the high school annual is co-operation. Co-operation between the editors and adviser on a story, or between the merchant and student for advertising in the annual.

Money, too, is an invaluable asset. One-fifth of the cost of the annual is paid by organizations for their pages in the yearbook, but most of the money is obtained from advertising space taken by Ketchikan merchants and industries that give us continued support.

So to the merchants, local photographers, high school students and faculty go the sincere thanks and deep appreciation of the staff for your part in making this annual possible.

Sincerely,
THE STAFF OF THE KAYHI '56
