SENIO RS OF '71

Full of pep,
Ready for fun,
We’re the class
Of Seventy-one.
To Bill Weiss

For your many hours spent with high school people,

For your unbiased and generous news coverage,

For your outstanding devotion over the years,

We, the ’71 Williwaw staff wish to express our sincere appreciation to you, with the dedication of this annual.
Everything is Beautiful in its own way,
Like a starry summer night and a snow covered winter’s day.
Everybody's Beautiful in their own way,
Under God’s heaven, the world’s going to find a way
We shouldn’t care
About the length
of his hair

Or the color of his skin
Don’t worry about
What shows from without,

But the love
That lives within.
Annual Queen Marla Peters
Miss Marla Peters was voted the fairest of them all by the Student Body. Marla is active in most of the school activities and is a compliment to Kayhi, both in action and beauty.

Runners-up were Sibyl Fosse class of '71, Maura Molver '74, Julie Craig '73.

Mrs. Beers shows the students their dancing dolls.

On November 13, Folksingers Bob and Evelyne Beers appeared in a special concert for the Kayhi students.

While Mrs. Beers sang, her husband accompanied her on an unusual, antiquated instrument, the psaltery, which sounds much like a harp and a fiddle.

The talented couple performed such songs as "Island in the Sun," the "Love Theme from Romeo and Juliet," and "Try to Remember." They told stories about the origins of some of the songs they sang.
Ketchikan Hosts Exchange Student

Mrs. Wengert and Ueli enjoy a good laugh.

If you don't know what they are talking about, laugh like crazy.
Kayhi's third exchange student, Ulrich Fricker (Ueli, as he prefers to be called), is from Aarau, Switzerland.

During the 1970-71 school year he made his home with the Ira Elerding family.

Ueli's favorite sports are swimming, tennis, skiing, and fishing. He was active in the Ketchikan Ski Club and Pep Club. He attended tournament in Mt. Edgecumbe also. Ueli was sponsored by the International Christian Youth Exchange. He was one of 20 Swiss students who passed the I.C.Y.E. selection tests. Ueli's father is an insurance agent and he has one brother who attended school in Arizona in 1967.

Ueli enjoyed making comparisons between Swiss schools and Kayhi and he felt that we were more strict.

What do you think of our American beverages Ueli?

Senior Carnival Nets $1,200

The class of '71 broke all records at its senior carnival on November 14. Gordon Lee and Mike Erlording headed the carnival committees, in spite of which it was pretty good. Marly Edenso, Debbie Ruaro, and Charlene Ortiz ordered the booby prizes and Mike Fredini handled 'Gus'... the giraffe. The spook house was full of "horrors" and by the end of the night the spooks were hoarse but they said it was a real ball. The cake walk ran wild and Devils food cakes were heavenly. Everyone got a bang out of the sponge throw, especially Mr. Stekl, Mr. Hansen, and Mr. Adame. Just for the "halibut" we let a couple of real crabs run the fish pond. They did it on porpoise. The class of '71 grossed $2,100 the most ever, and netted $1,200 not counting the money from Gus the Giraffe which went to some worthy cases... uh, er, causes.

International Homecoming

The Prince Rupert Rainmakers arrived in Ketchikan on December 17 for a two-game series with Kayhi. That evening, the Pep Club hosted the teams at a dinner. The following morning a pep assembly was held. A special feature was "The Masculine Marching Men of 1971", a group of seniors who thought they might be able to give the drill team a few tips.

Friday night, a car parade, and the annual bonfire preceded the game. Homecoming activities drew to a close with the Queen's Ball.

"Prayer for Peace" Theme at Senior Ball

Kayhi couples dance to music by the Fragile Lime.

Linda Veerman and Ron Wallin reigned over the annual senior ball held January 2 at the Elk's upstairs ballroom. Music was provided by the Fragile Lime, a Seattle band.

Vice-Principal Richard Hansen crowned the King and Queen and Queen Linda was presented with the traditional bouquet of red roses, a smorgasbord of turkey, ham, salads and dessert was provided by Mr. and Mrs. Andrew at midnight.

Mike Frediani was chairman of the ball and was assisted by Ricki Mulkosheffel, Mary Nault and Jenelle Kandt, who were in charge of decorations.

Kayhi students, sporting various attire, watch Evelyne Beers and her dancing limberjacks.

Despite predictions of a sex-identification crisis, the new dress code failed to confuse many Kayhi students.
National Honor Society Holds Tapping Assembly

The Ketchikan High School Chapter of the National Honor Society held its annual Torch Tapping assembly on February 25, and 36 new members were selected. This is the largest number of Kayhi students ever inducted. Torch at Kayhi is sponsored by Mr. Stekl.

Future Teachers Organize

After several years of inactivity, the F.T.A. was again organized. The club is designed to encourage an interest in the teaching profession.

Barbara Hale was elected president, Laurel Van Hoof was vice-president, and Candy Pickrell was secretary-treasurer. A constitution was written and the club was officially chartered.

The Club consisted primarily of tutors and teachers' aids. They met to discuss mutual problems and concerns that they had encountered in their work in the local elementary schools.

Barbara Hale and Laurel Van Hoof check the constitution.

Annual Staff Meets All Deadlines

Tony, Roger, and Ric worked hard to get a brainstorm of ideas for the yearbook.

The Journalism class gave up free time after school and on weekends to work on the annual.

They took pictures, wrote copy, and taxed their brains to meet deadlines.

The staff's many hours of deep thought, and argument, made the 1971 WILLIWAW possible.

Pep Club Sponsors Eating Contest

Events started off with Pep Club President, Penny Riddle, choosing a boy and a girl contestant from each class. The girls were blindfolded by the boys, and then the girls fed the boys as best they could.

Charlie is Doing Well

The real contest was between Senior Jim Borgan, and Junior Charlie Horner.

The Crowd Enjoyed Every Bite

The Senior class loved every minute of the contest. And as Pep Club President, Penny Riddle put it, "The results of this contest only goes to prove one thing, and that is Juniors have big mouths."
Varsity Cheerleaders
Manager Assists Cheerleaders

Something new was added to the varsity cheerleader role this year, the position of manager. Linda Koons would be seen running errands, collecting gear, helping with skits, and generally making things run smoother for the varsity six.

The Kayhi Lettermen's Club started off with a bang this year. Four wrestlers were elected to offices in the club. Ralph Mackie was chosen for president; Mike Elerding, vice-president; Tony Martin, secretary; and Bill Moran, sgt. at arms. In October, the club held its annual slave auction, and raised over $500.00. Soon after the auction, the lettermen received the Marcy Gym set, a 2,700 muscle building machine the club had been working towards for two years. Twelve wrestlers, 7 track and cross country men, and 3 basketball players made up the club. Members earning a varsity letter in more than one sport included Fred Bass, Ric Boyd, George Brounty, Dan Hook, and Bill Stewart.

This year, because of its large size, the concert band was split into two groups, the Kayhi Concert Band consisting of 57 members, and the Freshman Band consisting of 17 members. Both of the Bands are under the direction of Mr. Wally Ost.

In the beginning of the year, each band chose officers. The High School Band officers were: Carmen Bernhoft, president; Steve Alsup, vice-president; and Ricki Marksheffel, secretary-treasurer. Freshman Band officers were: Ben Griffith, president; Tracey Lovett, vice-president; and Shawn Smeller, secretary-treasurer.

The two bands first performed at a fall concert on November 23. The music varied from "Raindrops" by Bacharach to "Abduction from Seraglio" by Mozart. In December the High School Band appeared in the annual Christmas concert.

On January 31 and February 1, the High School and Freshman Bands presented a joint program with the Schoenbar Bands.

Other activities included a tour to Prince Rupert, Terrace and Kitimat, B.C., and a musical in which only band and chorus members participated.

Ric Boyd goes up twisting and turning only to have it checked by Alumni player. Roger Ludwigsen 44, Dave Davis 33, and Dan Hook 22 watch eagerly.
Parents and friends were on hand Tuesday, March 2 to see Kayhi students and chaperones board the Taku for Mt. Edgecumbe and the 1971 Southeast Alaska Basketball Tournament. On the way north the ferry made several stops to pick up students from Wrangell, Petersburg and Juneau, also on their way to tournament. The students were met by several buses which took them to the terminal. There they took a small boat to Mt. Edgecumbe. Most of the Kayhi students unless they had other housing arrangements, were housed at the dorms in Edgecumbe.

Ketchikan played against the host school and came out victorious, 67-59. The Kayhi Pep Band and the Mt. Edgecumbe Pep Band entertained throughout the game. The Ketchikan and Sitka Drill Teams marched before the games. Several dances were held in Mt. Edgecumbe and in Sitka, sponsored by various clubs and organizations.

Although the Kayhi supporters had to leave on the ferry Saturday night they left plenty of school spirit but apparently that wasn’t enough for the Juneau-Douglas Crimson Bears defeated the Kings 60-47. Metlakatla defeated Haines 64-60, Wrangell beat Mt. Edgecumbe 93-62 and for the first time in 25 years the Petersburg Vikings won the S.E. Basketball Tournament by downing the Sitka Wolves 91-61.

Cheerleaders, Carole Michalsen and Linda Christensen teach Jeff Carlin and Cathy Jensen cheers for when they become cheerleaders.

Enthusiastic Pep Club cheers the team on but were unsuccessful as the Kings lost to Sitka 67-59.

Keith Kerby fights for rebound with Steve Bavard as Mike File (11) and Tim Brunner for Juneau move in as Bays for Kayhi.

Ketchikan High School’s 1970-71 wrestlers were stronger than ever this year and it was expected that they would once again claim the S.E. Championship trophy.

The team started out with 50 eager faces, of which 28 remained. Out of that 28 there were 11 returning lettermen. The season began with a 16-1 record for the Kings and with whirlwind speed they extended their victories to 24-1 and were still going strong!

The 1970-71 varsity team has eight returning senior varsity lettermen who have been winning together with Coach Adame for three years. The rest of the varsity consisted of two juniors and two sophomores.

S.E. Tournament in Ketchikan Mar. 25,26,27.
Tony Martin sets up his Sitka opponent for a takedown. Martin went on to win the match by a pin.

Varsity screams encouragement to Borgen

Mike Elerding executes the "Banana Splits" on his Mt. Edgecumbe foe. Elerding later won by a pin in the second round.
Varsity Boosted by 11 Returning Lettermen

Robert Hulse, 148, ties up with his opponent, Bob Riggs of Sitka High. Riggs, a S.E. Champ in his freshman year, topped Hulse in each of their first two outings this season.

Clyde Collins, 136, goes behind his Mt. Edgecumbe opponent for a two point reversal. Collins, a senior, won the match, keeping his hopes for an undefeated season alive.

Jim Borgen sprawls on Sitka's Gary Olson as Olson attempts a takedown. Borgen later won the match to avenge his 1970 Tournament to Olson in the Semi-Finals.
Kings Extend Winning Streak to 3rd Season

Mary Demmert, 106 lb. Kayhi wrestler, picks up his Mt. Edgcumbe adversary with a cradle, pinning him in 1:43 of the first round. Demmert was trailing 8-4 at time of the pin.

Jim Borgen scores two points for a reversal on Gideon Barr of Mt. Edgcumbe, who had twice defeated Borgen in their two previous meetings. Borgen out-pointed Barr in this match 2-4, to take the conference lead in the 178 lb. division.

Southeast Alaska High School Wrestling Tournament

Ketchikan High School Gym
Kayhi Hosts Wrestling Tourney

1971 Southeast Tournament action started Friday afternoon on two mats. Teams representing Ketchikan, Sitka, Juneau, Mt. Edgecumbe, Wrangell, and Petersburg entered the competition. Three sessions later the tournament was over, and the Kayhi Kings were crowned Wrestling Champs of S. E. Alaska, behind a record-smashing eight 1st places.

packed gymnastium watched Kayhi take the lead during Friday Night's semi-finals.

Jim Borgen of Ketchikan and Frank Osborne of Juneau met in the semifinals Friday night.

Referee Larry Trani of Sitka looks on as two wrestlers tangle in the Friday afternoon sessions.

Borgen upset Osborne and moved on to the finals, amid cheers from his teammates.
Tension mounted as contestants warmed up for the Finals.

Coach Adame turns away in relief and happiness as Mike Maxwell wins the 101 lb. Championship.

Mike Patrick, Kayhi freshman, went all the way to the Finals, doing an outstanding job for the Kings.

The Kayhi Cheerleaders do their thing as they scream for a King victory.

Awards were presented by Michal Beth Gaffney, Anita Williams, Carole Michalsen, and Marla Peters.

The victory banquet in the M.S.R. turned out to be a big success.

AN ACKNOWLEDGMENT

The editorial staff of the Williwaw offers a hearty thanks to the many people who have made the 1971 Williwaw possible. A special thanks goes to the photographers, Morgan Grude, Joe Kelsey, Lloyd's Studio, George Sabo, Schallerer's Photo and Gift, and Bill Weiss, who provided the great majority of pictures in the book; to the members of the staff, who worked so diligently on the book; and last but not least to the advisor, Miss Beverly Wilson.
