For most of us, the past four years at Kayhi have been long and drawn out. Now as Seniors, we can think back and remember all that Kayhi has done for us and the fun times we have had. Just think of the opportunities that Kayhi has given us. We should all be proud of the high quality of education that we have received and thankful for being able to participate in so many different activities.

Coming from a small high school such as Kayhi we have had the opportunity to have a friendly relationship with all of our teachers and advisors. The teachers we have had here at Kayhi over the past four years have not only increased our academic knowledge but have helped our social lives so that each of us can be better individuals in society. It’s been nice to know that the faculty at Kayhi is so eager to lend a helping hand to our problems and planning for our future careers.

Throughout the years our class has been very active in all areas of school activities, basketball, wrestling, cross country, drill team, pep club, pep band, matmaids, kings knights, language clubs, swim team and B.R.A.'s. CLASS SPIRIT? YOU BET!! Our class was the first class not to accept the Stonehawker award, when we were sophomores. And the only time we did receive it was at the first assembly when we were freshmen.

Graduation in May will be a proud and honorable moment for all of us. It’s relieving to know that our post graduation years will always be filled with memories of the best four years of our lives at Kayhi!

The Way
Juniors add their part

Junior class officers Tim Moran, Nancy Wilson and Laurie Eckland.
The class of 1976 has finally made it into the select club entitled "upperclassmen." It's taken two long years to earn the distinction, but it was well worth the effort. As juniors, our class finally is really working together. As a class the juniors can finally think ahead into their future years after high school, instead of just trying to pull through the school year. The junior class, though, through the last few years, made its impression on Kayhi. We had about 20 students maintain high enough grade point averages and enough civic involvement to be tapped for National Honor Society. In the athletic field, Scott Keene has dominated the cross country squad since his freshman year. Shawn Henderson, Joe Jackson, Scott Diverty, Dan Ortiz and Scott Keene show much promise for next year's first string basketball team. On the wrestling mat Bill Auger and Mike McCormick rule. In addition to scholastic and athletic achievements, the junior class has shown much spirit in Pep Club, Drill Team, Matmaids, and Cheerleading. Jeri Walters and Harriet Hamilton represent the juniors on the cheerleading squad this year. The juniors participating in Matmaids are Su Cooper, Janice Rollog, Ellen Haseltine and Katy Beck. Su Cooper is vice president of Matmaids this year. The juniors participating in Drill Team this year are Ellen Haseltine, Nora Ludwick, Robin Sparks and Lori Schweinfurt. Lori and Robin are the Drill Team co-captains.

But in addition to the activities so often promoted above all others, let us remember the cultural achievements the junior class has shown. In the music department at Kayhi, many juniors play important parts. Seven were chosen for S.E. Honor Band (where most sat first in their section) and Nancy Wilson made State Honor Band. The chorus also contains many enthusiastic juniors: Anne Dowling and Glenda Bergh in particular. In the art department, the junior class features John McDermott and Tom Ferry, each of whose art has been displayed in the school newspaper and yearbook.

Though the junior class has diminished drastically this year, through early graduation, the core of its members still continue to show their spirit.

Sophomores show their spirit
The Sophomore class was eager to get involved this year... but couldn't because we received the name "in-betweens." We were too old to be fooled by the high school ways, but too young to take an active part.

Sophomority is an important part of life's decisions. You develop into a mature young adult. Your sophomore year will always be a cherished memory, not only the fun and excitement, but also the change that accompanied it.

As freshmen we tried to FIND ourselves, find the human being developing inside. Although we may not have accomplished this feat, we discovered that participating in the school activities DOES count.

Last year, as freshmen, we worked hard to pass our classes with A's and B's and brown-nose the teachers in order to ease into the sophomore year. We fretted over BSCS, that horrid, formidable abbreviation for Biology and were thankful that there would be no more 2nd hour P.E. So with a little relief and a lot of worry we plunged into our sophomore year.

The class of 1977 showed the spirit and soul that should be evident in every class. We proved our maturity by delving into the activity field: Pep Club, Drill Team, and Matmaids. The J.V. basketball team was made up entirely of sophomores with the exception of one freshman. In January a large number of them were drafted onto the Varsity squad.

Various talents have appeared. Leadership was one of our best qualities. We finally realized that things were happening, in school and out, and we were trying to join in.

We are crazy and we are original. We hope that the outside world is ready to accept the new fresh ideas that we have to offer; accept us as we are. And give us the chance to prove ourselves, the chance to bring out the best that we have to offer.

The Way
Fresh
Involved! That's a good word to describe the freshman class this year. Freshmen were involved in everything from Matmaids to the J.V. basketball team. To give you an idea of what I mean, there were 7 freshmen in Pep Band, 3 on Drill Team, 4 on the J.V. cheerleading squad, 4 on the Matmaids, 1 on Kings Knights, and 7 on the J.V. basketball team.

Someone once said that "A small number of our days stand out from the ordinary, framed in ritual, celebrate by us all, ordained by the calendar in red letters. Other days are plucked from history by a moment of national joy or tragedy and become memorable, most simply of themselves, but for our part in them where we were then, what we were doing, how we felt." I think that this somewhat describes our freshman year, as it has always been looked upon kind of a goal or a milestone in our lives. This year belonged to us as much as it did to the seniors, only in a different way; for us it was a beginning, for them an ending. This much of our life is gone, but we still have so very much to do. So far we have made it to the ninth grade which was quite an accomplishment for some of us. Now we have to make it through to our senior year; some of us won't, but I think that the majority of us will. I guess you could call that our next goal, graduation.

After that who knows... For some of us there is marriage, a job, college or even death. For others, the dreamers amongst us, there is a world to conquer, peace to attain and an end to poverty, pain, and starvation to find. Like I said before who knows... But even though our future is so uncertain, we will always have our memories, memories of people, places, or things.

I just hope that 20 years from now when we are looking back and wondering where the time went that we remember the good times and learn from the bad, but most of all I hope that we remember that we did it together!

It’s the Laughter
We Will Remember
The main theme of this year's S.B.A. was the revision of the constitution. A majority of the student body felt that their rights were not fully covered by the old constitution. Ron Settje, vice president of the student council, headed a committee to construct a new constitution that would satisfy both faculty and students. At a school board meeting the committee brought forth their constitution for ratification and advice on what changes should be made. The board's decisions were not binding but taken into consideration and many were accepted.

One of the most interesting articles in the constitution covered the students' rights to assemble in peaceful and non-disruptive fashion. Around mid-year about 150 students gathered in "unorganized protest". They demanded to speak to Principal Charles A. Lowry about rights they felt were being denied to them. Ralph Stanton and Cathy Scoville held an hour long conference with him to hash out differences. Students felt that there was a strong communication gap between faculty and themselves, while administration felt there had never been a blockade between the two. As a result of the demonstration about ten students were put on probation pending their disciplinary actions. Ralph and Cathy felt that nothing had been accomplished.

In October, Student council president, Candi Cowin attended a convention of the Alaska Association of School Governments in Anchorage. While there she met with many other school representatives in workshops which discussed such topics as Women's Lib, ROTC, and the effect of school governments. She came back with many fresh ideas for school government and additions to the constitution.

In 1975!
$3606.00 Needed To Send 500 Students

Pep Club members are shown during a tense moment of a wrestling match.

Total tournament costs this year amounted to $3606 plus extra for the tickets to see the games. The pep club treasury in about February held $1300 which left $2306 to be earned by various means, a few of which were an oriental dinner February 10, a Valentine dance on February 14, and another dance February 22. Earlier money raising projects were instigated with success, but for the individual money was not the only factor. Enough pep club points had to be obtained and there could be no failing grades, no more than one D, a good disciplinary record and a good attendance record in order to go.

Housing is at times the most challenging and necessary task set before the pep club. However in the past they've always managed to take care of the problem.

Maggie Moran and Chrissie Jackson made a list of people needing housing and gave it to Ralph Stanton, who got transportation, the drivers then picked up the out-of-towners and delivered them to the proper homes.

Drill Team

The Kayhi Drill Team, advised by Miss Fran Bezedicek, started the year off with high hopes for taking first place in competition. They planned to travel, along with the Basketball Team, to the Southeast Alaska Tournament, which is held in Juneau this year. The girls compete against other school teams, from all over Southeast. The girls perform during the half-times of the basketball games.

This year's Drill Team bought their uniforms, instead of making them as in the past years. The hot pink and maroon uniforms caught the eyes of the audience instantly. The uniforms were purchased down south and were shipped up at a price of $132.00 per uniform.

The Drill Team marched to the drums of Ricky Shull and Guy Tatsuda. The drums had many effects on the performance, mainly because it was live music.

The National Honor Society is an organization sponsored by the National Association of Secondary School Principals to honor students who are judged to be outstanding in the three characteristics of leadership, character, and scholarship. The Kayhi chapter chooses its new members each year by first sending an application for membership to every junior or senior with a grade point average of 3.2 or higher. Those who fill out the applications are then screened by the faculty and, finally, those who are approved are "tapped" to join the society. This year a tapping assembly was held for the entire student body in early November to introduce the new members for 1974-75.

Besides handling concessions at ball games and other activities, the Kayhi Torch Chapter was honored to nominate two seniors as candidates for nation-wide Honor Society scholarships. The two chosen were Scott Dawkins and Greg Jensen.

Pin him, screams the Kayhi Matmaid! Not only will you see the Matmaids yelling at the matches but they hand out veggies, keep score and time, keep the official books, and announce the line-up of the night.

To make some of the matches special for our wrestlers, the Matmaids presented the wrestlers a heart, filled with chocolates, and had their names on hearts in the gym for Valentine’s Day. They also gave them each a special name on our Sweetie Scott Dennis at 101 for line-up.

At the last home match March 8th against Wrangell they had a Father’s Night. The Fathers were introduced and given sideline seats at the match.

Miss Beverly Wilson, the Matmaid advisor left in February, after 4½ years as the advisor. Chrisiie Wilson was President, Su Cooper, Vice President, and Cherie Moll was Secretary Treasurer of the 1975 year.

The Matmaids took a trip to Juneau with the wrestlers in March. And they were hostesses for the 1975 Southeast Wrestling Tournament. Four of the Matmaids were selected to hand out medals and trophies at tournament and they presided at the banquet.
December 13-14 the Kayhi Drama class performed "The Tragedy of Ragweed Cowboy Joe", for the public. The melodrama was written by a Texan, I.E. Clark.

The hero, Joe Septicanker was played by Ken Kirschman. The heroine, Melody Zagar was Hootin' Annie, a school teacher. Villain Billy the Goat, played by Frank Barton brought lots of laughs.

Most of the setting was in a saloon called The Watergate, run by Dixie Dixon (Candi Cowin), Billy's mother.

Lori Painter, Donna Goldstein, and Betsy Williamson portrayed "Women's Libbies". Other characters included Kit Carson (Greg West), Dr. Debonkey (Kevin McElroy), his nurse (Lisa Schweinfurt), militiamen and cowboys (David Wood, Mitch Bjorklund, Cookie Beals, and Morris Pearson.) The chorus and her bar girls were Su Cooper, Cookie Beals, Janet Jewell, and Barb Christiansen.

The Kayhi Men's Quartet, accompanied by Gayle Kienbaum performed heartwarming songs like "I Dream of Queenie With the Light Brown Hide" and "Jiggle Things" a streakers song, sung to the tune of Jingle Bells.

Theresa Bennett was the narrator, Cathy Scoville was a student director, and Miss Beverly Wilson directed the play.
Wilson Leaves Kayhi

Both the school's yearbook (Williwaw) and newspaper (Kayhytems) were produced by the journalism staff, which consisted of only 12 members, and was advised by Miss Beverly Wilson.

The yearbook was cut down to 176 pages this year on the account of the small staff. The yearbook was still a lot of hard work. Many of the students had to work long and late hours at night to make up for the fewer members. The yearbook also had another great disadvantage for the students, one that couldn't be helped. It was the fact that the shipment of the journalism supplies was held up in the mail, however the yearbooks were distributed on schedule.

Kings Knights Greet Year With Enthusiasm and Participation

The Kings Knights this year, with their traditional 16 members, have dedicated at least 50 hours a piece of their time to serving patrons and students attending any curricular activities sponsored by the school. When senior Kings Knights graduate other interested students, under the approval of the advisor Mr. Hansen, may be initiated into the organization. Kings Knights officers are secretary-treasurer who keeps records of all business carried on by the organization and attends to all business transactions, and a boys and girls captain who have equal jurisdiction over the student members. Kings Knights represent a group of highly reliable persons who carry a good image of Kayhi. At each game the Kings Knights handle the money and take tickets. They represent the colors at the beginning of the basketball games. Their outfits this year consisted of a maroon sweater for the girls with white pants and a white sweater with a maroon shirt underneath and maroon pants for the boys.

Lettermen Petition for Billboard

Cross Country, Wrestling and Basketball are the three sports in which participants receive letters. An athlete only has to earn one letter to become a member of the lettermen's club at Kayhi.

The majority of lettermen this year are wrestlers, as twelve men are on the starting line up, opposed to five in basketball and seven in cross country.

Being a letterman is hard work and the letter is symbolic of this hard work. The letterman wears his letter proudly, knowing he has done something significant for himself and for his school.

Lettermen's club contributes to the team spirit of Kayhi. Don Dillenburg, Sponsors.
The main purpose of the F.H.A.-H.E.R.O. program is to help youth assume their roles in society through home economics, education in areas of personal growth, family life, vocational preparation and community involvement plus to institute programs promoting greater understanding between youth and adults.

Since this was a newly established club, organizational problems interfered with some activities, but many plans were made for the following year.

Members did participate as Candy Stripers, helping nurses and patients at the hospital.

Cadet Band Shows Improvement

Stage Band Enjoys Good Year

The members of the 1974-75 stage band, under the continued direction of Roy McPherson, started off the season with a fall concert. They performed on November 1st, featuring mainly jazz and rock, which the audience truly enjoyed. The stage band department also participated in the Music Marathon to help raise funds so members of band and chorus could make a spring tour.

Although almost the entire group was depleted last year, due to graduation, the newcomers proved that experience is not everything, nor quantity, but quality must always come first and foremost.

The Kayhi Cross Country team, headed by first-year coach Don Dillenburg, fought hard this year, coming in just under Juneau-Douglas and Mt. Edgecumbe.

Relying on third year runner and team captain Scott Keene, Kayhi captured second place in the Wrangell Invitational Meet and third in the Sitka Invitational Meet. Keene placed first and second, respectively, at those meets.

In the Southeast Invitational Tournament, Kayhi lost to Juneau-Douglas while besting Mt. Edgecumbe. Kayhi runners placing high were Scott Keene, second; Scott Dawkins, seventh; and Lew Williams, twelfth.

Beraldi, New Coach

Sal Beraldi is the new volleyball coach at Kayhi this year. Mr. Beraldi is originally from Boston, Mass., and graduated from college in South Dakota. He has high hopes for next year's team, saying that their goals next year will be to attain the championship title. He also stated that he was very pleased with the 1974-75 team's performance and is very proud of all the girls. Mr. Beraldi is expecting to see more girls turn out for GAA next year.

Coach Sal Beraldi gives a few words of encouragement to the team before the second half of the game.

Captain Joy Hack, Nancy Hawkins and Marlene Johnston, members of the 1974-75 volleyball team are presented to the Kayhi Student Body.
Girls place Second in Tournament

"Team Work was the key word for Girls' Basketball this year. The team worked together as one and came through the season with great pride.

Miss Greta Bottcher, advisor and coach for the team was well pleased with how they performed. All members showed good ability and exceptional sportsmanship. Along with Miss Bottcher's support from behind the sidelines, the team also had that of Shanan McMahon, who gladly gave up her time to serve as manager. On the floor, Joy Hack, voted team captain by her teammates, supplied all the support and enthusiasm that the girls needed.

The Girls' Basketball Tournament was held in Ketchikan this year. It consisted of four teams, which included Wrangell, Juneau, Metlakatla, and Ketchikan. In the heated competition Ketchikan made a good showing by taking second, and Juneau winning first.

Joy Hack Voted Captain

There is an old saying that more or less typifies the kind of year Kayhi has had. "Don't roll the dice, if you can't pay the price." Seven basketball players were suspended from the team this year as a result of their breaking training rules set up by the school. Six of the seven were on the varsity squad and were fine players, three of them on the starting line up. To compensate for the loss, Coach Vincent drew from the junior varsity squad and came up with a team that proved to be every bit as competent as the "old team." The records of the "new team" and "old team" were almost identical, each winning six conference games. The exciting thing about the change was that every one of the players that now made up the varsity squad were either sophomores or juniors, with the exception of one senior, Steve MacDonald, and two freshmen, Richard Alsup and Jim Heisler. The inexperience of the players was greatly outweighed by their willingness to learn and follow Coach Vincent. Kayni finally saw for the first time in a long while, a team playing effort in the sport of basketball. All anyone had seen before was one man's efforts and conflict between the players. But it appeared that this year Kayhi had a team that played as a team.

A change has also been noted in Coach Vincent this year, as we have never seen him so relaxed before. Gone is the towel throwing he was so famed for, although he did let loose pent up emotions during a tight game in that manner. I feel the change has been a healthy one and many profitable actions will come of it.

As a last word for the basketball season of 1974-75, I would like to say as a supporter of the Kings, that they are a fine team. They worked hard under near impossible positions, won and lost like men and came through the season in a manner showing true maturity in both coach and players alike.

Shawn Henderson puts another one in for the Kings.
Joe Jackson sets one up amidst tough competition.

Lyle Dodson tips the ball our way.

The Kayhi Kings, in a fine performance, defeated the Alumni team by the score of 66-55. The annual game, that puts younger Kings against older, more experienced players has always proven to be a great contest drawing many sport fans to the gym. Keeping with tradition, the Kayhi Kings won over their competition and preserved the honor of the school team. Returning to play for this year were: Frank Kolanko, Dan Hook, Gary Craig, Gene Walters, Kirk Sharp, Nick Smith, and Bill Paterson.

Pin..............6 pts. (awarded to the man who holds both shoulders of his opponent to the mat for 2 seconds)

The bigger they are, the harder they fall!
Coach Don Dillenburg replaced Frank Adame after six years as Kayhi's wrestling advisor. Sal Beraldi was chosen as his assistant coach. They worked long and hard hours with the boys teaching them moves and holds that were valuable on the mat against oncoming competition. They knew that the Southeast Tournament would be the final test of their strength and knowledge of the season.

The wrestlers were handicapped this year with the loss of three varsity members through their injuries on and off the mat. Norman Jackson, undefeated champion of the preceding year, broke his arm; Jim Schenk broke his wrist and Mike Nash pulled a muscle in his knee.

Lester McCormick was voted team captain and Danny Garner, co-captain. They gave spirit and encouragement to the boys throughout the season. Without their efforts and support, the team would have lacked many of their fine qualities.

A large, unexpected but entirely welcomed and necessary crowd turned out to cheer the victorious Kings match after match. The ambitious Matmaids, adding both scenery and support to the wrestling season never failed to follow their well-known tradition of supplying the fatigued wrestler with a fresh, succulent orange.

SOUTHEAST BASKET

Kayhi Pep Band performs during S.E. Basketball Tournament in Juneau.

Scott Keene tries to make a point for Kayhi.

Following the championship game the president of the S.E. district, Dick McCormick, who is also a member of the board of control for the state activities association presented trophies to: The 1st place Drill Team—Sitka, Doug Larsen for free throw (24 out of 25 attempts) and the 1st place cheerleaders, Juneau. Wrangell was presented with the first place in basketball, second place went to Sitka, third place Metlakatla, fourth Haines. All Tourney Team was announced, the following were chosen: Fred Angerman, and Thorne Ferguson of Wrangell, Paul Haavig and Brian Hansen of Sitka, Pat Williams and Aaron Cook of Metlakatla, Steve McDonald of Ketchikan, Dave Boddy of Juneau-Douglas and Stan Wilson and Marlin Fowler of Haines.
BALL TOURNAMENT

A Juneau player takes a shot at the basket.

Tom Hanks reaches up for the ball.

Kings warm up before a game against Juneau.
Sitka Wins Drill Team Award

The Sitka Drill Team marched before a stunned audience, to take the 1st place position in competition. It was held in Juneau on February 29, 1975. Although the girls were up against stiff opponents, their routine and uniforms both new and delightfully different, provided the added zip to win.

The girls performed a rather unusual march, using good old-fashioned barnyard music, equipped with props such as haystacks, pitch forks, and straw hats. To fill the roll to the hilt, their uniforms were blue-jean cut-offs, red and white checkered shirts with bows and barrettes to match. The addition of a rope belt assisted in trying up the performance and overwhelming the audience and competitors.
Juneau Wins Cheerleading

Immediately following the championship game, the president of the S.E. district of schools, Dick McCormick, who is also a member of the board of control for the state activities association, presented awards to:

1st place drill team—Sitka
Free throw competition—Doug Larsen
(with 24 out of 25 throws)
1st place cheerleaders—Juneau
1st place basketball—Wrangell
2nd place basketball—Sitka
3rd place basketball—Metlakatla
4th place basketball—Haines
All-tourney team—Fred Angerman (W)
Thorne Ferguson (W)
Paul Haavig (S)
Brian Hansen (S)
Pat Williams (M)
Aaron Cook (M)
Steve MacDonald (K)
Dave Boddy (J)
Stan Wilson (H)
Marlin Fowler (H)

Juneau’s Doug Larson accepts the free throw award after sinking 24 out of 25.
Ketchikan may not have taken first this year, but we did have the honor of one of our boys being picked for the All Tourney Team. Steve McDonald was the only Ketchikan player to be chosen for the ten man team. Those chosen are judged, not by former performance during the season, but by performance, sportsmanship and attitude displayed during the actual tournament. The coaches from each of the eight teams get together and vote on which players should receive this recognition. Needless to say, a coach cannot vote for one of his own players. With the quantity of quality material to be chosen from, you can imagine what kind of team they came up with! Players such as Steve McDonald, Paul Haavig, Fred Angerman, Pat Williams, Aaron Cook, Dave Boody, Stan Wilson, Marlin Fowler, John Hansen and Thorne Ferguson are hard to beat!
Southeast Title

On February 25, 1975, 99 Kayhi Pep Club members and nine chaperones left Ketchikan via the M.V. Taku to join the Kayhi Kings in Juneau. They all anxiously left for the Southeast Basketball Tournament. The students did many activities to occupy their time, like playing cards, listening to music, talking about the latest news, or just their own thing. The ferry made breaks at Wrangell and Petersburg to pick up other schools for the Tournament.

The students were anxious to reach Juneau to support their team and other odds and ends. Kayhi had high hopes even after most of the varsity team was kicked off. They finally reached Juneau and started their big expectations.

Since earliest times when man first strove to excel and dominate in feats of physical strength he has used certain strenuous sports as a test of his own strength and a challenge to all others. Chief among these sports is the art of wrestling. From pee wee wrestling through interscholastic collegiate competition wrestling now enjoys a widespread popularity. And nowhere is the art more widely acclaimed by old and young alike than here in Alaska’s Southeast. This year the town of Ketchikan was honored to host the 1975 S.E. Alaska Tournament, on the 20, 21, and 22 of March. It was well received with visitors welcomed from participating towns and cities in Southeast. Housing was provided for by Ketchikan students and the visitors enjoyed an exciting stay in our city.

Memories,
Swept like cob webs from the
Corners of my mind
Tear drops form like mirrors
To tell if we laughed
Or if we cried

Pictures reflect moments;
Were they smiles we left behind?
We hoped we gave to one another
Visions of the way we were.

Was life then so simple
That we didn’t search for change?
Has time then altered memories....
Rewritten every line?
If we had the opportunity to
Be there once again,
Would we relive memories
We’ve formed with all our friends?

Our thoughts were once so beautiful,
And yet
Those memories which were unpleasant
We chose so simply to forget,
So it’s our laughter we’ll recall
When we remember---

The Way We Were
