Life is said to be a puzzle,
A giant jigsaw game.
Intricate and changing
With no piece quite the same.

Yet the parts all fit together.
They join to make complete
An ever varied picture
Of life's impressive seat.

Yes, perhaps life is a puzzle.
It isn't hard to see
The pieces of the puzzle
Are made up of you and me.

And as in any puzzle,
Each piece must play a role,

A most important function
Of "making up the whole."

Sophomores were involved in Kay-Hi spirit and leadership this year. They worked with S.B.A. in fundraising activities. As a class they wrapped Christmas presents at the Bon Marche and sold concessions at the games. Sophomores made up nine of the twenty-five Drill Team members. Newcomers were Tina Nelson, Wendy McComick, Linda Jackson, Sheri Bengaard, Wanda Rice, Shelly Taylor, Amy Bettisworth, Teri Matiasowski. Now, as we have the 1983-84 school year to look back on, We can be proud and know that we did our best to show that Sophomores spirit was alive.

CLARKE

On the gym floor
They tangled, pulled, and pinned
They dribbled and shot and swished
They hurdled and jumped and vaulted
They stamped, pranced, and pyramided

While the black and white shirt signaled
Or timed or whistled or coached

And sometimes the black and white shirt
Hung in the closet
Next to bland short-sleeved shirts-
Blue or beige or light plaid-
That you donned for day

Those shirts worked, too
And encouraged and coaxed and counseled
They questioned and discussed and compromised

You were shirts and sense
and kindness

In the classroom and the corridor and on the gym floor

Things are looking up at Kayhi with the new Principal Karen Hines and Vice-Principal Don Pennington. The team created a positive atmosphere with the faculty and students working together to make Kayhi a better school.

1 Mr. and Mrs. Pennington with Jeff, "That's my boy!" 2 Mrs. Hines, "Today the principal tomorrow the presidency!" 3 Mr. Pennington, "You what!!" 4 Mrs. Hines lectures Carol White, "Rule 236-No smiling at the camera!"

Kayhi was again ahead in education. This year the credits for graduation were raised from 21 to 22. Freshmen must take four classes in English, three courses in social studies, two math courses, two science classes, one P.E. and ten electives. These new requirements will help meet the needs of our students in the future.

Teachers Get Into The Spirit

Courtesy of Ketchikan Public Library and Ketchikan Museums

This year in Kayhi, teachers showed school spirit in many ways: one being the colorful costumes they donned in celebration of Halloween. Faculty morale was boosted through luncheons, baby showers, and a variety of other things. All in all, teachers were much more involved in school activities.

1. "You want it when?!" 2. Sal Beraldi tempted by treats. 3. Caught with the goods. 4. Prather Poses Perfectly. 5. "Yeah, we baadd." 6. Katie Joyce. "And the wicked witch said to Hansel and Gretel ..."

Organizations

Kayhi Students Excel

The National Honor Society is a National Organization for high school Juniors and Seniors who have excelled in both their school and community. To be considered for membership into the society, a student must have a 3.0 GPA or better and show leadership and character potential. This year the Ketchikan chapter inducted 27 new members.

Kings Knights Serve Kayhi

Courtesy of Ketchikan Public Library and Ketchikan Museums

The King's Knights organization is an inschool service group of dedicated Kayhi students who perform a variety of tasks and duties for school functions and activities. Taking and selling athletic tickets, attempting to keep our gym clean from food and debris and clearing the school during fire drills are a few of their many tasks. With the help of their advisor, Jonell Prather, the Knights again helped to see that our activities ran smoothly throughout the year.

S.B.A. Takes Action

The S.B.A. has had an innovative year. We began new projects and completed old. With the profits from numerous fundraisers and projects, we were able to send a large number of S.B.A. representatives to participate in a leadership conference in Juneau, our state's capitol. Special thanks go to my Vice President and Secretary, Lee Wooten and Lynn McKinley - and especially to our advisor Evelyn Bullock and all the people that supported S.B.A.'s efforts.

Karen Yetka

Again this year the Kay-Hi Pep Club did their job in supporting our various athletic teams and promoting spirit and pride throughout the school with proceeds from numerous popcorn and button sales, and the community-wide raffle sponsored by the Kay-Hi booster Club. Enough money was raised to send The Pep Club and others to the 1983-84 Southeast basketball Tournament in Juneau. Vicky Mata, Mike Akers, Lyn Buendia, Brenda Abney and Jeff Lorton were elected officers to organize and lead this years events.

Thespians Put On A Good Act

Thespians is an honorary organization to help promote excellence on and off the stage. It requires much work and at least 10 points, equivalent to 100 hours, on or around the stage to become a Thespian. This year's group proved themselves excellent.

1. Jamie Elkins, Mike Akers, Asoni Noveno, Russel Wodehouse, Roy McMillion, Mary Cowin, Lee Wooten, Wendy Miles, Brandon Loomis, Shauna Brown, Beci Haddix. 2. Brandon Loomis, Shauna Brown, and Russel Wodehouse prepare for a play. 3. Brandon Loomis: "Hanging Loose." 4. Mrs. Knapp explains details.

School Store-Not Just Another "Hole In The Wall"

Courtesy of Ketchikan Public Library and Ketchikan Museums

The Retailing Class is a special class that teaches students how to run and organize a business and learn basic retailing procedures. These students are responsible for the management of Kayhi's own mini store "The Hole in the Wall."

1. The 1984 Retailing Class (back row) Tawnia Harrison, Julia Stacy, teacher Dru Hansen, Cheryl Reynolds, Diane Bixby, Julie Tresner, Joe Steele, Judy Eisel, Kelli Wolfe, Kathy Spear. ## Foreign Language Club !Hola! Bonjour!

The K.H.S. Foreign Language Club, made up of students studying both French and Spanish, spent this year cooking foreign food and baking pastries for sale to the general public. The profits were used to help send the group to the S.E. Foreign Language Festival in Juneau.

Jerry Hughes Directs Choir

Courtesy of Ketchikan Public Library and Ketchikan Museums

The Concert Choir received, besides many new additions, a new choir director, Mr. Jerry Hughes. Under the leadership of Mr. Hughes, a Swing Choir was organized. The choir sent five members to Southeast Honor Festival and three to the State Festival. The choir participated in five concerts, and during the Christmas season, caroled in school and throughout town.

Stage Crew Helps Keep Up The Scene

A lot of helping hands, hardwork and team effort is what makes up Stage crew. The stage crew does more than just stage work, however. They help set up for assemblies, video sports events and drill team, and maintain lights and equipment for the many dramas. Without this group, many of our activities could not happen.

Williwaw Captures Our Spirit

Courtesy of Ketchikan Public Library and Ketchikan Museums

What does Williwaw mean? Hard work, lot's and Lot's of it. We have changed from a spring delivery to a summer. The reason for the change is to add the events that are covered in the summer suppliment. Through the year, the Year book staff acquired many new skills, and they learned the important talent of working with others. Through the guidance of the advisor Mrs. Bloom the staff has succeeded in producing the best yearbook ever.

1. The Junior Varsity squad cheered for Boys and Girls Junior Varsity Basketball, and Frosh Basketball. As well as cheering the three squads sold concessions and sponsored dances.

K-Highlights Rated Superior

The Kayhi Drill Team, known as "The K-Highlights", are a group of girls who entertain the crowds during half-time at basketball games. To raise funds for costume and travel, they had a Filipino dinner, sold candygrams, and sponsored a dance. This year's advisor was Judy Jenkinson, with Sherry Hewitt assisting.

Jackson Runs Away With Southeast Title.

The 1983-84 year was a good year for the Cross Country team. They held first in Southeast, but were overcome by Sitka in the Region V Cross Country Meet, with a score of 49 to 41. Our guys came in second and our girls came in third. Out of 75 runners, Larry Jackson came in first and Troy Rogers placed third. And out of 48 girls, Sandy Thompson placed fourth.

Returning Wrestlers Lead Team

The 1984 Kayhi wrestlers were long on enthusiasm but short on experience. Most of our team were new this year, but showed excellent potential. They worked mainly on moves and self confidence throughout the season. The more experienced members provided necessary points. Andy Hendricks, undefeated, Drew Jones 6 and 2; Jim Lowell, 7 and 1, Brett Claggett, 6 and 2, and Scott Johnson, 3 and 5, were some of the returning wrestlers to our team. Under Coach Don Dillenburg and the Assistance of Wayne Kinnuen, Kurt Kuehl, and Ed Johnson; there were plans to create a wrestling club which would travel to the lower 48 states which would give the wrestlers an opportunity to wrestle more teams.

This seasons hard workouts primed our wrestlers for some very tough matches which were all aimed at southeast tournament. Five wrestlers qualified for state championship; Andy Hendricks, at 136 pounds, and Drew Jones, heavyweight, won individual Southeast Championship titles. Jim Lowell, 116 and Tim Shull, 195 finished second. Because of the grueling workouts and tense competitions our wrestlers faced in 1983-84, we sent a qualified and confident team to the state finals.

The 1983-84 Swim Team had a good year, starting off with a new coach, Tracy Phipps. Due to endurance workouts and new techniques, the swimmers' times were improved. The team lacked strength in numbers, but were strong individually. Five members; Scott Woodbury, Willie Schulz, Ty Walker, Janelle Demmert and Carl Jaynes, qualified for state competition.

Freshmen Capture 15-5 Season

The 1983-84 Freshmen Basketball team, led by coach Randy Mogan, won 75% of their games this season. The frosh used height and quickness to place third in the Prince Rupert classic. The team also competed in the Freshmen tournament at Juneau with victories over Kake and Haines, finishing the season with a record of 15-5.

J.V. Boys Hold 16-9 Record

Courtesy of Ketchikan Public Library and Ketchikan Museums

Good things came out of the 1983-84 Boys' J.V. Basketball team, as they had a successful year with a 16-9 record. Darrel Lewis, a new transfer student, showed much promise for playing at center in the future. Allen Frank and Clay Slanaker had an excellent year playing at the forward position. Chad Novak proved to be a valuable point guard as he led the team in the all important assist category. The highlight of the 83-84 year was when the J.V.'s were able to complete a two game sweep of a tough Sitka team that had defeated them earlier in the year. Things definitely look good for our future Kayhi Basketball Program.

Girls Varsity Shows Spark And Hustle.

Courtesy of Ketchikan Public Library and Ketchikan Museums

This year Girls Basketball team had to overcome injury and illness with their players, but the girls came through. They ranked 4th in state, 3rd in conference and took 2nd at S.E. despite problems with fouling and breaking the press, the girls offense and rebounding were strong. The team traveled to Vancouver, Washington and Oregon to play different teams and showed that Kayhi's Girls Varsity was a team to reckon with.

Girls Take Second In S.E.

Courtesy of Ketchikan Public Library and Ketchikan Museums

This year tournament in Juneau was a combination of sweat, hard work, and a card game here and there. With cheerleaders, drill team, and pep club cheering them on, the girls' team placed 2nd in the 4-A division with Juneau taking the championship. It was a tiring job, but Kayhi still had enough energy to flash a smile.

Varsity Boys Prove Themselves Once Again

Courtesy of Ketchikan Public Library and Ketchikan Museums

The 1983-84 Varsity Boy's basketball team had good potential, but had weaknesses that kept them from a winning season. Kayhi went into S.E. Tournament in 3rd place behind Juneau and Sitka. Our team was strong in defense but was fresh and relatively unexperienced in offense. Mueller and Blankenbeckler were strong at free throws.

1. The 1983-84 Boys Varsity Basketball Team: back row- Ron Mueller, Kirk Wolf, John Carson, Paul Williams, Kyle Johansen, Bill Bolling, front row- Kris Pihl, Jim Blankenbeckler, Bob Boozer, Steve Hudson.

Boys' Varsity Place Third In S.E.

This year's Southeast AAAA Tournament was held in Juneau. The Kayhi Boys Varsity took third behind Sitka and Juneau. Juneau took first. Both Juneau and Sitka traveled to Ketchikan for the State Tourney in February. Kayhi's Cheerleading squad and Drill team took standing ovations when they performed. Both received superior ratings.

1. Karen Williams look to the crowd for the next cheer. 2. Kayhi's fish dances to the excitement. 3. Varsity boys practice before the game at S.E. tournament. 4. Jim Blanklenbeckler goes for two. 5. Junior Julie Whiteman and Freshman Lori Blankenbeckler led Kayhi to the Southeast championship this year. They finished one-two in the top all around gymnastics column. Kayhi excelled in the uneven bars and the balance beam as they have done in the past two seasons. The team sent their six best competitors to state: Julie Whiteman, Lori Blankenbeckler, Wendy Mackie, Angela Nillis, Kim Falco, Jenny Wisnewski.

The girls established the best record in conference play! They hoped to repeat as S.E. Champions again this year. Coach Ortiz felt his team had the talent to not only win Southeast but do well in state. The Kings had very fine players in seniors Gretchen Everett, Debi Johnson and Nancy Williams. These girls played good defense. On offense, Nancy set teammates up while Gretchen and Debi gave the Kings added spiking power. Amber Thomas rated on top as the #1 hitter in the conference. Sheila King, Jayme Peters and Wendy Mackie have contributed much to the excellent performance of the Kings this year. Rounding out the Kings, Ortiz had three fine volleyball players in Donalee Minnich, Kelley Judge and Lesli Hansen.

Kayhi's 1984 varsity volleyball team captured 3rd place at State, winning 4 of 5 matches-better than any S.E. team has done statewide! The team came within a few points of playing for the championship. Against West Anchorage (the eventual State champs) the Kings forced play to 5 games before the match was decided in West's favor. A highlight was having Amber Thomas named the No. 2 selection to the All-State team. She was an outstanding player and will be back next year.

East Dominates State

Although the K-High boys basketball team didn't participate, they did host what has been called the best state tournament in years. The teams participating for the Alaska State Title were: West Valley and Monroe Catholic from Region I, Chugiak and East Anchorage from Region II, Wasilla and Kodiak from Region III, and Juneau and Sitka from Region IV.

East Anchorage took first in the championship game against West Valley while Wasilla took third from Juneau. Both games were full of excitement bringing the fans to their feet over and over. The top scorers were Tony Reed (East) 31.5 per game, Chris Church (West) 18, and Marc Greeley (Juneau) 15.5. The top rebounders were Chris Church 14 per game, Tony Reed 12.5, and Matt Newhouse 12 (Juneau).

The Ketchikan High School Drama Department fascinated audiences of both young and old alike with their production of "The Wizard of Oz." The cast consisted of both veteran and first-time actors whose talents combined to produce one of the best performances ever to be seen on the Kayhi stage. Large crowds with kind and appreciative comments contributed to generate the casts' pride and feelings of self-accomplishment for a job well done.

Students Explore Our Government

Courtesy of Ketchikan Public Library and Ketchikan Museums

This year seven Kayhi students were selected to take part in two governmental programs sponsored by the National Close-Up Association. These programs were designed to provide students with an insight on how our state and national governments are run and organized and give them a chance to view and participate in various political activities.

Students Exposed To Foreign Cultures.

Nine Kayhi students traveled to Juneau as participants in the 1984 Southeast Foreign Language Festival. Kayhi's Rotary exchange student, Fabiana Rezende accompanied the group along with Mrs. Isabel Morelli who together held a small session speaking on how people in Brazil and Portugal live and showed slides from both countries. Of the students who entered the various competitions and contests it was Jeanne Neff who came home with a third place ribbon for French 1 poetry reciting and Asoni Noveno returned with a ribbon for her entry in the pinata contest. A pinata constructed by Jay Brendehoft also won a ribbon in his contest. The days spent meeting new friends and absorbing foreign cultures were fun as well as educational for all who attended.

This year the Senior Class went back to an old tradition and held the Senior Prom in the high school gymnasium. With the help of a small group of creative classmates who put in over 15 hours of decorating, we were able to convert the lifeless gym into a park setting at nightfall. Just before midnight, with our theme song playing in the background, Gretchen Everett & Fred Svenson were crowned the 1984 Prom Queen and King while prom activities continued "All Night Long."

1. Randy Johnson, Cindy Roppel, Tim Scanlon, Curt Holman & Amy Bettsworth - "Putting on the Ritz." 2. John Dowling wonders where the champagne is. 3. Tony Dupea and Patti Sivertsen - This songs for you! 4. Paul Williams and Kelly Judge DIG IN. 5. Joel Stack and Annette Hoyt makes a toast. 6. 1984 Senior Prom. 7. Kellie Wolfe and Gary Homan make a perfect couple. 8. 1984 Prom King & Queen - Fred Svenson and Gretchen Everett. 9. Janice Svenson and Chandra Kinney make an entrance.

Students Honored

Courtesy of Ketchikan Public Library and Ketchikan Museums

Again this year, Kayhi held two separate awards assemblies in order to honor outstanding students. The first was to recognize students at Kayhi who have excelled in various academic and extracurricular activities and subjects ranging from Senior math to Drivers Ed. The second evening assembly was to present Kayhi Seniors with cash scholarship awards for their accomplishments and standing throughout the past four years. Over 100 Kayhi students were honored and approx. $15,000.00 was given in scholarships.

1. Cheryl Earnest and Wade Simpson receive John Koel Scholarships. 2. Paul Williams receives Alaska Loggers Association Scholarship with pride. 3. Gretchen Everett and Nita Noveno announce for the Awards Night. 4. Joel Stack receives the weight training award with a large smile. 5. Mrs. Miller presents the English Department awards to Gretchen Everett, Tabitha Gregory, Mick Wisniewski, and Kim Gilbert. 6. Mr. Crockett presents the Clarke Cochrane award to Scott Woodbury. 7. Karen Hines announces the Outstanding Mechanic Award to Fred Severson. 8. Bill Hamilton and Fran Hamilton award the Bill Hamilton Memorial Scholarship to Nita Noveno. 9. John Dowling accepts the $1000.00 scholarship from the Lion's Club. 10. Winners of the Moose Scholarship: Wendy Sullivan, Chandza Kinney, Mike Akers, Gretchen Everett. 11. Tracey Phipps awards Tara Mitchell with a swimming award. 12. Mrs. Bullock gives Lynn McKinley a SBA award.

1. Mike Mayberry, Deb Johnson, Mike Akers: Dreaming of what's ahead. 2. President Scott Laemmle delivers his speech. 3. Annie Miller and Paul Williams march to "Pomp and Circumstance." 4. Ron Mueller accepts diploma from Cheri Davis. 5. Fred Svenson and Gretchen Everett: It's been a long 13 years. 6. 1984 marches towards the ceremony. 7. Randy Bjur gives the commencement address. 8. "Look out world! Here we come." 9. Bill Bixby and Cindy Ames: "Keep in step there." 10. Chandra Kinney, salutatorian, tells of the "Perfect Senior". 11. Gretchen Everett makes her valedictorian speech. 12. Brooke Hunt: "It's finally mine." 13. Lori Hines sings "The Way We Were."

"84" Pulls The Pieces Together

Courtesy of Ketchikan Public Library and Ketchikan Museums

The class of "84" pulled together with a commendable commencement. Randy Bjur, the commencement speaker, compared high school to one's first kiss. (Beginning with anticipation, continuing with pleasure and ending with a sense of accomplishment. Later, in reflection, wondering what could have been done to make it better.) With these words as well as speaking of the importance of using wisdom and sharing, Mr. Bjur sent the class of 1984 out into the future. Gretchen Everett, valedictorian, and Chandra Kinney, salutatorian, spoke of the "Perfect Senior". Class president, Scott Laemmle led the tassel turing ceremony.

Congratulations Seniors Here's To The Future

To the graduating Seniors of Ketchikan High School, we wish you well. You face a future of high hopes, occasional doubts and reasonable concern about what the future holds. We at U.S. Borax have been around for over 100 years as a company. One of the things we have learned is that the future holds many of the promises and some of the fears we all expect. The challenge is not knowing which of each will come about.

Many of you will be heading right into the work force. Many others will go to college first. But eventually you will all need employment. We think the future of Alaska and of Ketchikan is bright enough to attract most of you to remain in Ketchikan, to grow with it, to contribute to it and to earn from it. Ketchikan and Alaska need all the intelligence, eagerness and new ideas you have to offer. We at U.S. Borax are old in the West but we are new in Alaska. We hope to grow with you in the First City and in Alaska. Congratulations.

In Memory of...

We will always remember the way your nose wrinkled and the way your eyes twinkled when you laughed.

We will always remember your smile and how it made us stop and laugh with you awhile.

We will always remember how you would yell and complain but you always did well when test time came.

We will always remember the way you wouldn't hesitate to slip into class just a little bit late.

But most of all,
or as far as I can recall
We will always remember just because you were you.
