KAYLA WILLIAMS
In September 2008, Shane and I were sitting in band and we got our instruments out for the first time this year. Mrs. Cron went around the class to tune everyone’s instruments. She asked Shane to play and he said that he was still warming up. At the end of the class, Shane was taking his clarinet apart and he found a ball of paper in the barrel part of his clarinet (near his mouth piece).

JAYCE SELUDO
So this one time, Keevin and the guys were at Keevin’s house watching a movie. Emily K, Monique, Emily F, Chairel, Zoey and I decided we were going to scare them. We got our all-black outfits on, and headed out to Keevin’s in Monique’s car. We got out there and, being smart, we parked across the street so they wouldn’t see us pull up. We got out, ran across the highway and down the hill to Keevin’s house. We snuck around to the other side of his house, where all the boys were at. We only made it to the deck before we thought we heard Cindy, Keevin’s mom, yelling at us. We all booked it back to Monique’s car. We set the motion light off, but we thought it was Cindy with a flashlight. I thought everyone was ahead of me until I was climbing the hill and someone grabbed my leg, screamed as loud as I could. At first I thought it was Cindy, until I turned around and it was Zoey. Meanwhile Monique, Emily K, Chairel and Emily F were cracking up by the car. We left still thinking they had caught us. We got to school on Monday and asked Keevin about it and no one even knew we were there.

KAT SWEETMAN
During English class sophomore year with Ms. Roppel, the entire class was playing the game where you name an object starting with the same first letter as your name. So, Colby likes crackers, Katie likes kangaroos, etc. and when we get around to Rose Rodriguez, she says, ‘Hi! I’m Rose, and I like bread!’ Okaay?
THAT ONE TIME...

KEEVIN CRAIG
Freshman year during basketball regionals my boy Blake and I were down at McDonald's having this extremely serious heart to heart, while Blake was busy fiddling with the overhanging light source, unscrewing everything and what not. Blake failed to properly secure the bulb at which time the light fell and made an incredibly loud sound. Every single person (a solid 60) including the workers turned and stared at us in complete silence. Blake promptly raised his hand and announced, "Uh...I broke the light." Nonetheless ruining the vibe of our conversation.

ROSE RODRIGUEZ
Ever since I started Drill Team at Kayhi, I have been close friends with JC. It's our tradition to have a solo picture of just the two of us excluding the rest of the team, not that we don't like them, but that's how it's always been. During my junior year Emily Kelly, my grade school best friend, joined the team. She has the habit of asking, "Hey, do you know what time it is?" and JC would reply "It's 2:51." At first I didn't realize that JC already told Emily the time, so I would repeat whatever time it was, for example, "It's 2:51." From then on I still didn't realize that I was just repeating what JC said. Now that I realized it it's just been a fun joke. SMILE for JC Seludo & Rose Rodriguez.

ALEX SWEAT
The day of senior carnival, Zach, John, and I had the genius idea of getting costumes to dress up as nerds for the black jack booth. We apparently miscalculated how much time we had to get costumes, food, and to the senior meeting because after our quick trip to the Salvation Army and Safeway, we walked into the commons all dressed up. THE ONLY PEOPLE DRESSED UP. I looked like Taj from Van Wilder, Zach looked like John Lennon from the Beatles, and John looked exactly like Alf-Alfa. We walked in right in the middle of Ms. Bowlen's big speech about being on time and appropriateness, and the room just went silent and everyone stared. And then Paris Albertson burst out laughing and the rest of the senior class followed and we were just getting laughed at. It was pretty much the funniest moment in the whole night for us.
This year has been awesome! At first when I heard that I was going to Alaska, it was honestly a little bit of a shock because I didn’t decide to come here. The only thing I knew was that I was going to go to somewhere in the USA, so did my best friend ... so she picked South Carolina and I came here in Alaska in a little town called Ketchikan. Some people might think that an exchange year in South Carolina is way better than a year in Alaska. But I don’t! Not anymore! I know that there couldn’t be a better place for me. I have great friends, I can dance ballet here, and I totally love this little, tiny town!

One good thing about being in Ketchikan is that I have found my inner hunter! NOT! :D I’m never going to forget the day when I first saw a skinned deer. Or when a bear walked into our garden! HaHa. Exchange year is definitely not an easy year but I love everything about it! It was very hard to leave my friends and family knowing that I’m not going to see them for a whole year. But one thing I know for sure: It’s going to be even harder to go back to Finland when the time comes! Luckily I still have some time here and I’m going to make the most of it! Thank You! Kiitos! Tulle Kova Ikävä!

Anni

My name is Caroline Cabral. I am from Brazil! I spent an entire year here, in Ketchikan. It was the most amazing experience I’ve ever had so far! I saw snow for the first time, and it was so exciting that I cried! I have experienced a whole bunch of things. I have made new friendships that will last forever. Ketchikan is really different from my city, Sao Paulo, it’s much smaller and colder. Still, I met great people that made me feel warm inside! :) I love the way you fellows live, the way you know everyone else and how kind you are! When I chose Alaska for my exchange I was afraid, but it was a great challenge. I will go back to Brazil sure that Ketchikan was the best option I could ever choose for my exchange year. I will miss you all, but you will always be in my heart and definitely in the BEST memories of my life! Thank you for this amazing year!!! I LOVE KETCHIKAN! (mas Brasil é Brasil, meu amor eterno!) I gottabow! Love you, my close friends! Always&forever. Carol.
WOW! This was the best year of my life! Thank you everyone for these awesome moments.... I'm going to miss you all! I had lots of fun! Coming here was a great idea! Alaska! Nobody will think of it but its just great!
See you all!

For my Junior year I was on exchange in Brasil. I applied for it my sophomore year in total preparation for a new experiences and adventures. When I was chosen to go on exchange, I knew where I wanted to go. Brasil had been a lifelong dream of mine, as well as the Amazon. With tons of work and effort, I lucked out and got to go to my number one choice. It was a dream come true. The next was fluency in Portuguese,and then getting to see the Amazon. The experience will never be able to fit fully into words, but it changed me and my life. Whether experiences were good or bad, I've never learned so much in such a short period of time. Education is not just from school. It comes from life lessons, experiences, challenges, and preparation for anything. After that year all alone in a foreign dreamland full of bright, cheerful, friendly, loving Brasileiros, I discovered a new part of myself. I know now for a fact that life without risk is very closed life. Get out there and experience life! Learn! Estou com saudades demais: um dia eu vou voltar pro Brasil... um dia eu vou morar no Brasil, minha outra casa. There is NOTHING like the feeling of having a dream, following it, accomplishing it, and never letting the 'happily ever after' come... The dream should be 'happily on forever.' EU AMO O BRASIL.

Last year I was fortunate enough to take part in a six-month exchange in beautiful Austria. I had expected some small provincial own were we'd milk goats and make our own cheese while yodeling complex alpine tunes. Instead, I was surprised to find a large cosmopolitan city,surrounded by gorgeous mountains, pristine lakes and filled with many warm-hearted people. I consider myself very lucky to have taken part in this AFS exchange. I'm certain that I'll never forget my experiences and the many wonderful people I met that semester.
Vielen Dank, Österreich!

Jump like you mean it!
The Alaska Association of Student Governments is a three-day conference where students all over Alaska come together and discuss state and nationwide issues. The AASG delegates write and present resolutions, the problems that they wish to see changed, in front of the General Assembly. Eleven Kayhi students and two advisors ventured all the way to Palmer, Alaska, immensely excited to defend their resolutions. The four resolutions brought to the table were: "0 Grams Trans-Fat Ban," "D.A.R.E. Program," "Wi-fi Connections," and "Oil Endowment." Three out of the four resolutions brought were passed.

Kids from all around Mayhi sign up for the talent show to show off their moves and strut their stuff. This year we had a wide variety of talents, ranging from rock bands, to dancing with glowsticks, to tapping teachers, and much more. It was all thanks to our Junior class leaders, Connor Jepson, Elizabeth Graham, and Laura Brandt-Erichson, that we were able to pull it off. Thanks to everyone that participated and helped!

Ciara Patton protects the ball as she drives to the basket.

Sophomores Crystal Blair, Alexis Edwardson, Laci Marsden-Effenberger and Kathleen Reno stop to pose after accepting their awards at the CCCC.

Left: Janessa Porter plays intense defence against Juneau. At right, Lucy Ortiz is getting pointed in the right direction by Coach Woodward.
C & J.O. Boys Basketball

Above: Team huddles to run the "Secret Play."

Right: Jesse Lindgren powers his way to the hole.

Right: Kelvin Falarca cashes a 3-pointer! Cha-Ching!

Left: Pausing in the air for a jumper, Kyle Day, gives the basket the stink eye!

Left: Luke Updike eyes down the defender. Should I shoot it, or dunk it?

Right: Chas Allen represents the number "32" flying for a rebound.

Right: Dylan Carson shoots a free throw with Nik Silva looking on.

Right: Rodney Manabat lets his team set up for the play.

Left: Keagan Lervick out reaches the Juneau Bear as he takes it to the hole.
Above: "Throw it here, then pass it here. Dribble around, pass it back, throw it, and we should get a basket!" Coach Stock says calmly. Players look on with blank faces. 🙂

1. Trent Headley eyes his teammates looking for the next pass.
2. Tyler Elliot pulls back the fastbreak to set up an amazing play.
3. Bertie Pahang powers up to put the ball in the basket.

4. Blake "B-Bowz" Bousley is holding a Petersburg Viking, fighting for the ball.

Left: Jeff Whicker wiggles his way through the defense and creates his own shot!

Seniors 09′
Fay, Coach Stock quote

Blake Bousley #42
"That is... The dumbest thing, I have ever heard."

Jacob Casey
"You guys might want to pick up Jacob. I just blasted him again."

Matt Carpenter #3
"JUST HOLD YOUR WATER!"

Trent Headley #44
"You don’t have to be smart to play basketball!"

Kevin Manabat #5
"Cut that rat-tail off, you’d play better!"

Paul Manabat #12
"You need to be me out there."

Albert Pahang #21
"JUST PLAY BASKETBALL!"

Erik Pahl #11
"I wish I could take points off your GPA for being dumb in basketball."

Jase Scudero #15
"I bet a dollar he doesn’t quit running."

Simeon Schum Mgr.
"That’s horse manure!"

The Boys Basketball team would like to thank: Coach Stockhausen, Coach Smith, Coach Mitchell, and Manager Karen Manabat for their hard efforts.
Thank you to all of our generous Business Sponsors!
