An outstanding characteristic of Kayhi is the spirit of loyalty which exists among the students. The present annual staff is a vivid demonstration of that loyalty and of that sincerity which Kayhi students feel.

At a crucial moment, events beyond their control, deprived them of one of their main professional assistants. The annual staff, the student body, and faculty contributed their services in one manner or another. The annual is the result of their many long and tedious hours of work.

We pay tribute to this fine and great spirit of Kayhi.

Around noon, the most popular place in the school seems to be the cafeteria. Mrs. Harold Miller and Mrs. Arthur Sund, the cooks, prepare a lunch designed to be high in nutritional value as well as delicious and appealing. Since some of the food is government surplus, the cooks must follow meal plans with the government provides. Students pay 40¢ for each meal which partly defrays expenses.

Students help in the work during the three lunch periods and receive a free lunch for the work.
The custodians, headed by Frank Clark, are the men and women responsible for keeping the school looking neat and clean. They work in three shifts with one man on each shift. Therefore there is always a custodian in the building.

Among the general cleaning, they must maintain the building, such as the boiler, and plumbing system.
Kinerk, Charlene Zachary, and Lew Gosnell. Our yearbook candidate was Dianne Sayre. The cheerleaders were Judy Hasibar and Roberta Hogben. Charlene Zachary and Dana Magden were song queens.

Approaching the end of this third crossroad, we picked up the Multi-Service Room and transported it to Japan. The theme of the Prom being "Japanese Garden."

As we once again commenced on our journey, we looked at our Kayhi Crest which was embossed on our class rings with the black stone background.

Then when roll was called we found that the wanderlust of our class had detoured our journey. So, down to the state of Washington we went to take Aleita Victorson, who was the schools' representative, to Girls' State, held in Ellensburg.

We stepped over the last crossroad. Student Body Association officers were John Huff, President; Howard Holman, Vice President; Charlene Zachary, Secretary; Betty Biehl, Treasurer; and Dick Kinerk, Sergeant at Arms. The class officers were Bill Montgomery, President; Karen Taubeneck, Vice President; Janene Caspersen, Secretary; Dave Hamlin, Treasurer; Myron Boudreau, Sergeant at Arms; with Marcy Steers and Fred Cooper S.B.A. representatives.

We stepped up our pace and promptly undertook our senior play, "Time out for Ginger."

Our next task was transporting the Multi-Service Room once again; but this time into Heaven for our Senior Ball, "The Littlest Angel."

We slowed down while several members of our class received honors:
Charlene Zachary was elected Editor of the Kayhi Annual Joanne Auger was elected Editor of the Kayhitems
Julie Berg was elected Queen of the annual with Betty Biehl as runner up
Abbre Tucker and Jerry Madsen was elected Best Mixers of Kayhi

We again started off while watching Joanne Auger, Dianne Sayre, and Betty Biehl, cheerleaders, and Martha Charles, song queen, cheer on senior members of the Kayhi basketball team: John Huff, Dick Kinerk, Bill Montgomery, Irv Charles, Myron Boudreau, and Dennis Daigler.

We again traversed forward pausing briefly for Senior White Day, our Senior Banquet, Baccalaureate and our final goal, Commencement.

Along with these four years, we were aptly guided by Mr. Bert Kimura.

We now separated our roads and each choose his own destination.

The Senior Ball

"The Littlest Angel"

The senior ball was held on December 23, as this was the last dance that seniors would put on. They went all out on decorations. The theme was "The Littlest Angel." The sky was silver stars, and there were cut-out drawings of the Littlest Angel. There were also clouds, and the golden gate on the stage.
The Junior Prom was decorated in a Japanese Theme, it was called "Japanese Gardens." There were several drawings of Japanese figures, and a large drawing of a volcano, and a Ming tree. The refreshments were served by girls dressed in the Japanese Kimona.
"Basketball Jamboree"

The Sophomore Hop was given in honor of the basketball team. The theme was "Basketball Jamboree." This dance was a tolo dance so the girls paid for the evenings entertainment.
"Polar Bear Jamboree"

The Freshman Frolic was the last dance to be held in the old school. The theme for this dance was "Polar Bear Jamboree." This was the first dance that the class of 1958 gave. It was decorated with cutouts of bears which were almost as big as the little freshmen who made them.

A plan for a board of control was drawn up by the S.B.A. council and approved by the administration. The plan provides for four officers headed by the SBA Sergeant at Arms, and four jurors, to be elected one from each class each time the board meets.

Besides the SBA Sergeant at Arms as president, the officers of the Board shall be, one student selected by the faculty, one selected by the students in a popular election, and one selected by the SBA Council.

The board is set up to deal at first only with infractions of assembly conduct rules; but if it proves successful in this, its jurisdiction will be extended.

Qualifications for membership are the same as those of SBA officers.

The success or failure of the Board of Control depends on the respect the students have for it.

The ability to get along pleasantly with people is the prime factor in determining the Best Mixers. A popularity contest of the Journalism department. Other factors are friendliness and tact. Appreciation of these qualities in Abbre Tucker, and Jerry Madsen prompted the student body to select them as Best Mixers this year.

The following list of Ketchikan High School graduates is as nearly accurate as it was possible to make it this year. Some of the older records at school are incomplete. The staff compiled this list from school records and newspaper stories. Names were printed in KAYITEMS with a request for corrections. The staff will appreciate corrections to this list so that future publications will be accurate.
